

LAZY LION—Veterinarian William Greer can afford to grin as he holds a mountain lion which arrived in San Francisco Monday by private plane from its native state of Utah. The sleek male cat is drugged, which accounts for the blasé look on its face. The lion is en route to a new zoo in Manila, The Philippines. (UPI Telephoto)

Three Accidents Reported In City

Three two-car accidents were reported to Medford police yesterday, none causing any serious injury.

Cars operated by Nancy Chandler Hinman, 16, of 675 Oakdale dr., Medford, and Margaret Elizabeth Gook, 58, of 916 East Jackson st., Medford, collided at the intersection of Taylor and Myrtle sts. about 10:30 a.m. yesterday. Nancy Hinman was cited for failure to operate on the right side of the roadway, police said.

About 2:15 p.m., a car operated by Marilyn Jo Conner, 18, of 906 Newtown st.,

Medford, hit a parked car registered to Clifford S. Iverson, 115 Keenway dr., Medford. The incident occurred on Main st. between Academy place and Lindley st., police reports show.

Cars operated by Lester George Blocher, 47, Modesto, Calif., and Morton Keith Babcock, 3489 Forrest ave., Medford, were involved in a collision about 6:14 p.m. Tuesday. Blocher was cited by police for failure to yield the right-of-way.

The first steel square for carpenters was made at Shaftsbury, Vt.

Final Gresham Lecture Slated

Ashland—"Growing Theme in the History Plays," a forward look to "Henry IV" to be seen during the Festival's 1961 season, will be the subject of Thursday's Gresham Lecture at 3 p.m. in the Ashland public library.

Local and Personal

X-Ray Clinic—The chest x-ray clinic at Sacred Heart hospital, sponsored by the Jackson County Tuberculosis and Health association, will be open Thursday, Sept. 1, from 2 to 5 p.m.

Roseburg Death—Relatives here received word this morning of the death Tuesday of John A. Lyons, Roseburg. Mr. Lyons lived in the Medford area from 1924 until about 1940. Funeral services, to be held either here or in Roseburg, are pending the arrival of the family.

Juveniles in Custody—City police took two boys, ages 16 and 17, into protective custody Monday on charges of petty larceny. The boys, both from Central Point, were seen by a police officer siphoning gas from cars parked at the municipal airport. They were lodged in the juvenile detention home.

Grass Fires—A one-acre grass fire on the Engel Griffith property, Wilson and Table Rock rds., about 9:15 a.m. today was caused by a pickup truck's exhaust. The Central Point rural fire department reported. Rural firemen attributed a 1 1/2-acre grass fire on Gibbon rd. shortly after noon yesterday to youngsters playing with matches.

Car Rolls—A car operated by Stanley Keith Scheel, 17, of route 3, Medford, rolled over on Barnett rd. between Murphy rd. and Black Oak dr. about 8:50 a.m. Monday when Scheel applied the brakes to avoid a possible collision. The car received heavy damage. Scheel was not injured and no citations were issued, police said.

Probation Violation—City police arrested Lamar Archie Wilkinson, transient, for probation violation Monday at the request of the Oregon State Parole office. Wilkinson was arrested on a downtown street and offered no resistance, police said. He was confined in the county jail.

Postmaster Puzzled; Volunteer Too Late

Loveland, Colo.—Postmaster Fred Brewer was puzzled when he received a telephone call from a man who wanted to put in his bid to carry the mail on the star routes to Masonville, Pinewood and Drake. Finally, Brewer had the answer. The man was a half century too late. The Loveland Reporter-Herald had reprinted an advertisement in the paper's column, "50 Years Ago in Loveland."

Buyer Pays Quarter For Expensive Hat

Des Moines—Mrs. Robert Kurtz bought a hat at a rummage sale for 25 cents, then went to call on a friend who was in the hospital. "I don't like those fur things on it," Mrs. Kurtz told the friend, and started yanking at the little fur pieces. Just then another woman burst into the room, exclaiming: "That's my hat. I left it at the sale by mistake. I just paid $35 for it."
