Hutchinsons Take Canadian Tour

Mr. and Mrs. Ansley E. Hutchinson and Miss Peggy-ann Hutchinson, all 912 South Holly street, returned Sunday from a two week vacation trip to Prince Rupert, British Columbia.

The trio drove north through the Fraser River gorge and while in Prince Rupert toured the fish cannery, cold storage, and fish smoking facilities in the area.

En route east from Prince Rupert they visited in Kitimat where the Canadian Aluminum company recently built the town and the smelter. Side trips out of Vanderhoof were to the Kenney dam and Fort St. James.

Traveling south from Prince George they took side trips to Barkerville, scene of the gold rush in the 1860s and to Lillooet, returning to Medford via Kamloops, and Salmon Arm, B.C., stopping at Grand Coulee dam and the Maryhill museum.

Mrs. Harry Danielson (at left) was hostess for the annual picnic of Medford League of Women Voters held last week at her home on Siskiyou boulevard. Pictured with Mrs. Danielson are Mrs. James Mann, Oakland, Calif. (right), who was a guest at the event of Mrs. Thomas Goff (center). Mrs. Mann is a member of the Oakland League of Women Voters. During the program members and guests heard the program of the league outlined and coming events were announced, including the annual Candidates' Fair set for October 20.

Voters' League Holds Annual Event

The terrace and swimming pool at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Harry Danielson, 2316 Siskiyou boulevard, were the scene of the new member picnic-luncheon given Wednesday, August 31, by the Medford League of Women Voters. Table decorations, programs and name tags in the form of pink spike-heeled pumps carried out the theme of the day – "Watchdogs in High Heels."

Mrs. Dunbar Carpenter, league president, acting as mistress of ceremonies, introduced the officers and committee chairmen. Each chairman gave a brief description of her part in the league program for the coming year. Highlight of the afternoon was presentation by the voters service chairman, Mrs. Thomas Rutter, of her committee's plans for the Candidates' Fair to be held October 20 at Hedrick Junior High school. Mrs. J. R. Porto and Mrs. Rutter presented a skit about county home rule.

Arrangements for the luncheon were made by Mrs. John Raapke, membership chairman, and Mrs. Richard Schwahn, social chairman. Their committee was Mrs. A. E. Piazza, Mrs. John Weisel, Mrs. Frank Wilson, Mrs. Norman Capsey.

At the conclusion of the program, league members and their guests played bridge, took a swim in the pool, and visited on the sunny terrace.

Officers of the Medford League of Women Voters introduced at the luncheon included Mrs. Ogden Kellogg, Gold Hill, first vice president; Mrs. Kenneth H. Baker, second vice president; Mrs. Donald K. Bradshaw, Central Point, secretary; Mrs. Charles Walker, treasurer.

Directors are Mrs. A. H. Schmechel, Mrs. John McLaughlin, Mrs. Raapke, Mrs. Fred T. Burich, Mrs. E. E. Meeker, Mrs. Rutter, Mrs. Schwahn, Mrs. Irving S. Thomas, Mrs. Lynn Valentine, Jacksonville, Mrs. Robert D. Hiatt, Mrs. Margaret Philips and Mrs. John Ousterhout.

Chairmen are Mrs. Burich, national program; Mrs. Hiatt and Mrs. Thomas, state program; Mrs. Kellogg, local program; Mrs. Valentine, national continuing responsibility; Mrs. Philips, state continuing responsibility; Mrs. Rutter, voters service; Mrs. Raapke, membership; Mrs. Meeker, units; Mrs. McLaughlin, publications; Mrs. Schmechel, bulletin editor; Mrs. Baker, public relations; Mrs. Schwahn, social; Mrs. Ousterhout, nominating.

Buttermilk Waffles

Buttermilk waffles are a flavorsome change for a favorite standby: Dissolve ¼ teaspoon soda in 1¾ cups buttermilk. Add to 1¾ cup pancake mix, 1 egg and ¼ cup melted butter in mixing bowl. Beat with rotary beater until fairly smooth. Bake on hot waffle iron until steaming stops. Accompany the 4 servings with melted butter and syrup or sour cream and fresh-frozen berries.

Activities Planned by Auxiliary

Plans for a year of welfare and community projects and social events were made at the first fall meeting of the board of directors of Medford Lady Lions. Officers met at the home of Mrs. Anthony Cappello, president, August 31.

Mrs. Edward Ashton is the new vice-president; Mrs. James Warinner, secretary; and Mrs. John Henson, treasurer.

Mrs. Cappello appointed Mrs. Eston Humphrey historian; Mrs. J. A. Dollarhide, ways and means chairman; Mrs. James Dziarmaga, parliamentarian; Mrs. Lee Mellish, membership chairman; Mrs. Earl Miller, hospitality; Mrs. Ray Barnett, publicity; Mrs. L. J. Ruhl, social and decoration; Mrs. Ashton, program; Mrs. H. L. Endersby, and Mrs. Humphrey, telephone; Mrs. Dziarmaga, welfare, assisted by Mrs. Ashton, Mrs. Alan Jewett and Mrs. Joseph Tomjack.

Mrs. Edward Setzler, Mrs. Jewett, Mrs. Henson and Mrs. Dziarmaga were appointed to the budget committee.

The club's first meeting will be September 14 at the home of Mrs. Ruhl, 2500 Capitol avenue. Mrs. Dollarhide reported that a rummage sale will be held September 24 at the Fehl building, with proceeds to be used for Christmas gifts for needy children.

Anyone wishing to donate rummage for the event may contact Mrs. Endersby, SPring 2-4733, or bring donations to the Fehl building the evening before the sale.

Happy Camp PTA Honors Faculty

Happy Camp – Members of the executive board of the Happy Camp Parent-Teacher association were hosts to the faculty of the elementary and high schools at a teachers tea last Monday. Mrs. Floyd Cantrell, hospitality co-chairman, was mistress of ceremonies.

Stanford Alumni Organize

Alumni of Stanford university have formed a club, with membership to be drawn from southern Oregon and northern California. A group met at the Medford hotel here recently to make first plans for organization of the group.

Stanford alumni living in Jackson, Josephine, Coos, Curry and Douglas counties in Oregon, and in Del Norte and Siskiyou counties in California will be invited to become members.

Among those attending the recent meeting were Sam H. Bellah, Rogue River and Paul Blanchard, Grants Pass attorney, and Mr. Bellah was elected temporary chairman.

Mr. Blanchard was one of the organizers of the original Stanford club of Chicago in 1923. The club now has more than 600 members, he reported.

Four Medford women were named to a secretarial committee. They are Mrs. William K. McLaren, Mrs. Don K. Auxier, Mrs. Robert K. Hood and Mrs. Bark Boyden. Mrs. Boyden, 2541 Sandy Terrace, Medford, will serve as secretary.

First meeting of the new organization will be held Saturday, October 8, in Medford, and the group will watch the television broadcast of the Stanford-Washington football game.

Interested Stanford alumni not receiving a notice of the meeting are asked to contact one of the secretarial committee.

Family Leaves

Mr. and Mrs. Ron Negles and two daughters, Debbie and Denise, left Sunday for their home in Burns, Ore., after spending a week here with Mrs. Negles' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Fletcher, 23 Lindley street, and other relatives and friends.

Townsend Auxiliary Announces Meeting

Townsend Club auxiliary will meet Wednesday, September 7, at 12 noon at Walker's Dreamland for a potluck luncheon and business meeting.
