

Returns Home—Leroy Cameron has returned to his home on West Evans Creek from the Josephine General Hospital, Grants Pass, according to relatives in Gold Hill.

Stove Overheats—Firemen were dispatched about 8:20 a.m. today when an oil stove reportedly overheated at the residence of Ray Reid, 1850 Barnett rd.

Recovery—Medford police recovered a car stolen in Klamath Falls Wednesday. The car was found abandoned on a downtown Medford street.

Burns Out—An automatic washer burned out causing smoke at the Koin-O-Matic laundry, 512 West Main st., at 7:25 p.m. yesterday, according to firemen.

Local and Personal

Emergency Message—Medford police have an emergency message from Stockton, Calif., for Carl Nicholas. Police believe Nicholas to be in this area and said that if located he should contact the Medford police department.

To Erect Duplex—The city building department recently issued a building permit to J. B. Lynch to erect a $10,500 duplex on Western ave.

Shoplifters Caught—Two boys, ages 10 and 13, were turned over to city police Wednesday by an employee of a local hobby shop after they were apprehended in the act of shoplifting several toys. The boys were released to their parents, police said.

Chair Fire—Considerable damage resulted to an overstuffed chair about 8:40 p.m. yesterday in a fire at K and C motel, 1240 North Riverside ave. Firemen reported that an occupant had left a cigarette on the chair. Smoke damage occurred to the unit.

Rummage Sale—A rummage sale, sponsored by the Home Economics club of the Central Point Grange will be held at the Grange hall Wednesday, Sept. 21, instead of Sept. 14 as previously announced. HEC officials have announced.

Desk Entered—Frank Hope, well, route 1, box 305, Eagle Point, notified sheriff's deputies yesterday that the desk in his office at Hopewell dairy near Eagle Point had been entered during the night. Missing was a coin collection worth about $100, mainly in Canadian coins.

Theft From Car—Ella Lucile Wilson, 3915 South Pacific highway told city police Thursday that someone took numerous articles having a total approximate value of $100 from her car Wednesday afternoon while it was parked on South Riverside ave., between Main and Eighth sts.

Patients—A surgery patient at Crater Osteopathic hospital is Mrs. Otis Curtis, 4857 Table Rock rd., Medford. Medical patients there include Royal P. (Bud) Wolf, Mobile Village, Highway 99, Medford, and Roy Hilderbrand, Butte Falls star route, box 20, Eagle Point.

Window Broken—Blair Donovan Crosby, 1305 Stewart ave., told city police that someone broke a window, apparently with a brick, at Crosby's Mobil Service, 843 West Jackson st., sometime Wednesday night or Thursday morning. He said no attempt was made to break into the building itself.

Car Hits Pole—A sports car operated by Keith George Border, 45, Redondo Beach, Calif., hit a power pole Thursday about 1:43 a.m. on North Riverside ave. just north of East Jackson st. Border told police he had taken his eyes from the road for a minute when the accident occurred. No citations were issued.

Projectors Gone—Raymond Wilson Anders of Anders Photo shop, 232 East Main st., told city police Thursday that a woman took two slide projectors, having a total value of $200, home for a week's trial last month and he has not heard from her since. Police have been unable to locate the woman.

Grass Fire—Firemen blamed small boys for two grass fires yesterday. They said that two boys set fire to a four-foot play shed resulting in a blaze which covered one-third acre of dry grass at Aloha st. and Sunrise ave. about 2:35 p.m. A fire which burned a 10-foot square area on the Fred Sabler property, 141 Clover lane about 12:50 p.m., was attributed to two other boys playing with matches.
