

Father Performs Ceremony

The wedding of Miss Rose Marie Beltz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Beltz, 1119 Niantic street, to John Louis Hayden took place August 28 in the Medford Seventh-Day Adventist church. The bridegroom is the son of Elder and Mrs. R. A. Hayden, Guayaquil, Ecuador, who flew to Medford for the event.

The bridegroom's father performed the ceremony at eight o'clock in the evening before an estimated 400 guests. Lighted tapers in spiral candelabra, with light and dark purple gladioli, decorated the church.

The bride, whose father gave her in marriage, wore a gown of taffeta, fashioned with a fitted bodice, long, tapered sleeves and full pleated skirt. Italian lace appliques decorated the round neckline and bodice. Her chapel-length train was of silk illusion, held by a crown of seed pearls. She carried ivory and pink cymbidium orchids encircled with ivy and stephanotis. The bride's gown was designed and made by her mother.

Miss Gloria Beltz was maid of honor for her sister. Bridesmaids were Miss Carolyn Hayden, Loma Linda, Calif., sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. Gerald Christensen, Sunnyvale, Calif., and Miss Kathy McCarty, classmates of the bride. They wore street-length gowns of blue taffeta, designed with round necklines, three-quarter-length sleeves and full pleated skirts with bows in back. Crowns of seed pearls held their matching tulle veils and their bouquets were of violet colored gladioli.

Flower Girl
DeAnna Ratty, cousin of the bride, served as flower girl. She wore a white nylon organdy frock lined with blue taffeta and trimmed with lace and applied nosegays. Miss Judy Beltz, sister of the bride, and Eugene Yost lighted candles.

Richard Hayden, Albuquerque, N. M., brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Forest Bigger and Leonard Yost Jr., Medford, and Gerald Christensen.

Mr. and Mrs. John Louis Hayden (Landis photo)

Sunnyvale, Calif. Other attendants to the bridegroom were Curtis Emery, Portland, a classmate; John Waterbrook, Green Bay, Wisc., and Jerry Yost.

Alvy Bowman and Miss Marilyn Hayden, Eugene, cousin of the bride, were vocalists, accompanied by Mrs. Maxine Yost, organist.

For the wedding and reception which followed, the bride's mother wore a blue lace dress with white accessories and a pink rosebud corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a black brocaded taffeta dress with black accessories and a white spider chrysanthemum corsage.

Miss Marian Park, Portland, classmate of the bride, was in charge of the guest book and Miss LaVonne Zipp, also Portland, another classmate, was coordinator for the wedding.

The bride's aunt, Mrs. Alford Taylor, Portland, cut the cake assisted by Mrs. Richard Hayden, the bridegroom's sister-in-law. Pouring were Mrs. Wayne Ratty, aunt of the bride, assisted by Miss Patricia Taylor, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. George Dahl, Richmond, Calif., her aunt. In charge of gifts were Miss Phyllis Vinnard and Mrs. Oren Wren, both Portland, classmates of the bride. A cousin, Mrs. Ray Barrow, was hostess at the reception.

The bride attended Rogue River academy and was graduated from Walla Walla college.

lege, where she received a bachelor of science degree in the school of nursing August 19. Her nurses training was at the Portland sanitarium and hospital.

The bridegroom received his bachelor of science degree in physical education and industrial education from Walla Walla college in June, 1958, after graduation from Laurelwood academy, and spent two years in the Army. He was discharged August 19.

The young couple will be at home in Portland at 5224 North Vancouver avenue and the bridegroom will teach at Portland Union academy. They traveled to Florence on their wedding trip, the bride wearing a traveling ensemble of beige knit with green and beige accessories.

Those coming from out of town for the event included Alford Taylor Jr. and Patricia Taylor, cousins of the bride, Portland; Dr. and Mrs. R. N. Carothers, uncle and aunt of the bride, Lakeview; Mrs. Curtis Emery, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Jess Hayden, uncle and aunt of the bridegroom, Eugene; and Mrs. Richard Hayden, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, Albuquerque, N. M.

Prior to the wedding, showers were given by women of the church. Classmates of the bride honored her at a shower earlier in the year.

October Wedding Planned by Pair

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Wright Blunt, 3945 South Pacific highway, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Nancy Lee, to James Edward Shopp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Shopp, 1025 North Central avenue.

Miss Blunt, an employee of Burelson's Ladies Ready-to-Wear, is a graduate of Phoenix High school. Her fiancé was graduated from Medford High school in 1956. He is employed by the Medford Mail Tribune in the circulation department.

An October wedding is planned.

Carol June Slater Leaves for School

Miss Carol June Slater, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson G. Slater, 3405 Jacksonville highway, Medford, leaves by automobile this week end to enroll at Whitworth college near Spokane, Wash., for her freshman year. She will be an education major.

This summer she has been a full time student at the Robertson School of Business and has been also active in the Geneva Fellowship program of the First Presbyterian church.

Mrs. Danny Vance Nolita (Pratt photo)

Nolta-Retherford Rites Read by Bride's Father

Mr. and Mrs. Danny Vance Nolita are making their home in Medford following their wedding Saturday, September 3, in the Friends church, Newberg, Ore. The bride is a daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. John M. Retherford, Wabash, Ind., and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Harold Slates, Central Point, and Vance Nolita, Willows, Calif.

The bridegroom is assistant pastor of the Medford Friends church.

The bride's father performed the double-ring ceremony, assisted by Paul Mill, professor of religion at George Fox college. Baskets of white gladioli and pink snapdragons, flanked by tapers, decorated the church. Traditional music was played by Jerry Pierce, organist; Miss Dorothy Oppenlander, harpist; and Mrs. Geneva Wheeler, flutist. Larry Smith sang the prayer song.

The bride sang "I Come To Thee" pausing as she approached the altar. Her gown was of Chantilly lace, with basque bodice and a billowing skirt. Sequins accented the scalloped square neckline. The sleeves were long and tapered and her shoulder-length veil was held by a tilla decorated with sequins. A white orchid, encircled with pink rosebuds, was carried on her mother's Bible, which had been purchased in Bethlehem.

Miss Patsy Retherford, who was maid of honor for her sister, wore a street-length dress of pink plum Chantilly-type lace over taffeta. It was designed with a Sabrina neckline, fitted bodice and fully gathered sleeves and skirt. Her hat and pumps were also of pink plum color and she carried a nosegay of pink and white carnations.

Miss Dixie Retherford, also a sister of the bride, and Mrs. Elmer Weitzel were bridesmaid and matron. Their gowns were of pink shades, identical to the maid of honor's, and they carried nosegays of deep pink and white carnations.

Lighting candles preceding the ceremony were Miss Nancy Craven and Mrs. Stanley

Wedding Day Set By Valley Couple

Central Point-Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Burton, 125 Bush street, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Barbara Jean, to Ron Peery, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Peery, 508 Hershey street, Ashland.

Miss Burton is a graduate of Crater High school and is presently employed by Bear Creek orchards. Mr. Peery is a 1958 graduate of Medford High school and attended the University of Oregon. He is employed by the United States National bank, Medford branch.

Their wedding is planned for November 11.

Another Shipment Artificial Flowers Just Arrived!

Wide-Wide Choice of Varieties and Greens Too!

"No Water, No Weeding, No Fuss Required"

On the Main Floor at

Swem's Books - Gifts - Records 217 E. Main Medford

Betrothal News Of Interest Here

Of interest to valley residents is the recent announcement in California of the engagement of Miss JoAnne Carmen Clifton, to William Lawrence Miller, both of Sacramento, Calif. He is a son of Mrs. Nell Vosburgh (nee Lucille Lowry), Tacoma, Wash., and Col. O. W. Miller, U. S. Army.

Mr. Miller is a grandson of Bert B. Lowry and nephew of David B. and Philip B. Lowry, all of the Rogue valley.

The announcement was made at a dinner party at the Forest Inn, Homewood, Lake Tahoe, by Miss Clifton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Clifton, Sacramento, Calif.

The bride-elect is a graduate from C. K. McClatchy High school and Sacramento City college. She is a member of Kappa Theta sorority and Phi Theta Kappa honor society. She was vice president of her freshman class and president of the sophomore class at Sacramento City college. She plans to enter the University of California this month.

Mr. Miller attended Falls Church, Va., High school, Sacramento Junior college and Iowa State university, Ames, Iowa. He is a member of Beta Theta Pi, social fraternity, Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity, and the American Institute of Chemical Engineers. He is employed by Aerojet General corporation in Sacramento.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Mrs. Jack Goodman

Lana Salyers Is Bride of Jack Goodman

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Goodman are making their home in Medford following their wedding September 5 in Mendocino, Nev. Mrs. Goodman is the former Miss Lana Salyers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Salyers, 16 Lincoln street, Medford. Mr. Goodman, 303 North Fir street, apartment 4, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Burl Goodman, 113 Lozier lane.

The double ring ceremony was held at 3:15 p.m. Accompanying the couple to Nevada, were Mrs. Elaine Cardwell, Grants Pass, and Melvin Jones, of southern California, who made his home in Medford this summer. They attended the couple at their wedding and were also married during the ceremony.

The new Mrs. Goodman is a graduate of Medford High school and is employed by Kogap Lumber Industries, Inc. Mr. Goodman attended Prospect High school and served four years in the U.S. Navy. The two men are employed by the Northwest Swimming Pool company in Medford.

Dinner Honors Newlywed Pair

A dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Gustison, 3264 Forrest avenue, September 8 honored Dr. and Mrs. Warren G. Bishop who were married September 6 in Reno, Nevada.

Mrs. Bishop is the former Myrtle Gustison Gates, who is widely known in Seattle, Wash. social and business circles. She is the aunt of Mr. Gustison and was a valley visitor this summer.

Six persons attended the family dinner. Next month the newlywed couple will be at home at 2425 Niles Way, Medford.

high, wide and then some...

BUBBLE SHAPES

Here is global news that's bubbling over with excitement... chic new shapes to make you see yourself in a positively fascinating new light. Come view the news at Mann's now.

22.50

Miss Keating To Enroll at Eastern School

Ashland — Miss Marianne Keating will be among this year's freshmen at Wellesley college, Wellesley, Mass. Freshmen week activities will begin Monday, September 19.

Miss Keating is a daughter of Rodney Keating, 148 East Valley View road, a former county judge of Jackson county. She prepared for college at Anna Head school, Berkeley, Calif.

During the three days before classes begin, the 487 freshmen will take part in an orientation program during which they will have an opportunity to meet Miss Margaret Clapp, president of Wellesley, and other college officers.

Roxy Gardeners

First fall meeting of Roxy Gardeners will be held on Wednesday, September 14, at the home of Mrs. F. W. Fogelquist, 1312 Queen Anne avenue. Mrs. E. J. Lathrop will be co-hostess.

Fall care of gardens will be discussed.

Women who are interested in joining the group are invited to contact Mrs. J. J. Pyle, 2480 Roberts road, SPRing 2-8832.

PREFERRED READING...

Our Bridal Registry Book

Our Bridal Registry is, it seems to us, the most popular book in town! So many brides list their sterling "dreams" in it, and so many of their family and friends refer to it to see their selection. This eliminates guess work and duplication of gifts. Come in now—you'll find our Registry is to your advantage.

The patterns illustrated are just a few of many more in our COLLECTION OF FINEST STERLING SILVER 3-pc. setting—from $20.75 and up.

LAWRENCE'S
YOUR FRIENDLY FAMILY STORE
100 East Main Est. 1908

Convenient Terms If Desired

Specializing in Fine Silver, Diamonds & Watches

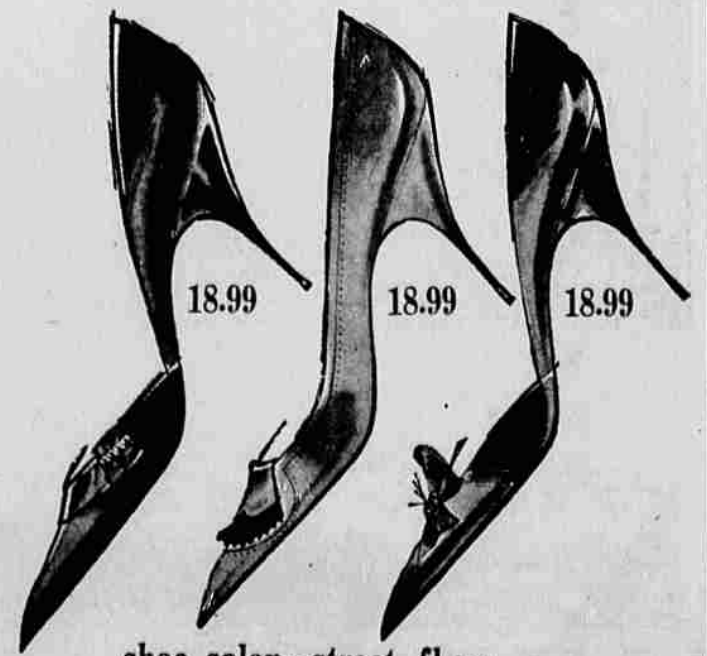

OPEN MONDAY NIGHT TILL 9

Our Show of Shoes

will start you scheming like a woman! You'll see all the appealingly soft shapes of shoe that flatter the most 'neath Fall '60's fluent, fitted-easy fashions. Needle-y slimness prevails... trims hug close... and the softness is delicious... From the chic of black in suede or calf... here's just a hint of the seen-in-Vogue, spike-your-wardrobe styling that's yours from

MARQUISE 18.99

shoe salon - street floor