Gilhausen-Sparks Wedding Announced in Rogue Valley

A wedding of interest in the Rogue valley was held in Carmel, Calif., when Miss Silver Elaine Sparks, a descendant of the Oregon pioneer, Jesse Applegate, became the bride of Jan Igo Gilhausen, son of Mrs. John Sprague, Amman, Jordan, and Al Gilhausen, Camp Baker road, Medford.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Sparks, Eugene, and great granddaughter of the late Daniel and Virginia Applegate.

The wedding was held August 21 in the Church of the Wayfarer, Carmel, with the Rev. K. Filmore Gray officiating. White gladioli and chrysanthemums decorated the church for the 4 o'clock afternoon rites. Connell H. Carruth played the organ music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of silk organza fashioned with fitted bodice and flared full skirt which ended in a chapel train. The bodice was trimmed with applied flowers of Guipure lace and bands of narrow tucks in scallops encircled the skirt.

Her elbow length veil was held by a wreath of waxed orange blossoms which were originally worn by Virginia Estes in 1866 when she married Daniel Applegate. The flowers have been worn by several brides in the Applegate family. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis, bouvardia and white roses.

The bride was attended by Miss Lauree Roberts, Eugene. She wore a light blue frock of jersey and blue and white flowers were in her hair which held a blue veil. She carried a nosegay of pink roses and white carnations. Flower girl was Mary Evelyn Jenrick, Los Altos, Calif., cousin of the bride, who wore a white nylon frock and carried a nosegay of pink roses and white carnations.

Al Gilhausen Jr., Pasadena, served as best man for his brother, Dan Sparks, brother of the bride, seated the guests.

A reception followed in the Oak room of the Mark Thomas hotel in Monterey. Mrs. William F. Jenrick, Los Altos, aunt of the bride, cut and served the wedding cake and Mrs. Gilhausen Jr. was in charge of the guest book. Also on the bride's table was a bride's candle.

The newlyweds spent their wedding trip at Carmel, San Francisco, and Lake Tahoe. For traveling the bride wore a dark blue tweed suit with black accessories. They returned to Eugene prior to leaving for Altus, Okla., where the bridegroom is employed by a construction firm and where they will make their home.

Among the out of state guests attending the ceremony was Mrs. Earl Schmaudt, Olympia, Wash., grandmother of the bridegroom.

June Gradute Enters College

Miss Laine Donker, daughter of Mrs. Helene Donker, and granddaughter of Mrs. Lillian Salade, Route 1, box 15, Central Point, left the valley August 28 for the Midwest where she will enroll as a freshman at Milwaukee-Downer college, Milwaukee, Wis.

Miss Donker, a June graduate of Crater High school, attended the Tri-State Yacht races during the Labor day week end as the guest of a friend aboard their private yacht. The races are held between Benton Harbor, Mich., and Chicago, Ill.

Miss Donker will visit with her aunt, Mrs. Marjorie Pitts, of the Rogue valley and Sawyer, Mich., and her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Wescott, Chicago, prior to the opening of classes September 19.
