Baer-Hanson Ceremony Held in Talent Church

Talent - Miss Julie Corine Hanson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hanson, 103 North Front street, Talent, became the bride of Gerald Dean Baer, son of Mrs. Lois Hill, Talent and Claude Baer, Crescent City, Calif., in a ceremony held Saturday, August 20.

The wedding took place at 8 o'clock in the evening at Talent Methodist church with the Rev. Ernest Bell reading the double-ring service.

Baskets of pink and white gladiolus decorated the church for the ceremony, attended by 100 relatives and friends. Miss Elaine Kroon, Central Point, played the wedding music and accompanied Jerry Holdridge, soloist.

The bride, whose father gave her in marriage, wore a white lace sheath dress with matching bolero jacket, and shoulder-length veil. Her corsage was of white stephanotis with a touch of blue.

Miss Leah Hazelton, Portland, served as maid of honor. She wore an aquamarine silk dress with matching hat and her corsage was of pink carnations with white stephanotis.

Cathy Sanders, Grants Pass, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. Her dress was of pale yellow and rust color, with a head band of yellow stephanotis.

John Walker, Ashland, served as best man. Seating the guests were Tom Baer, brother of the bridegroom, and Terry Hanson, brother of the bride.

A reception for the newlyweds followed in the church annex. For the occasion the bride's mother wore a beige silk sheath dress with brown accessories and a corsage of yellow carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a beige dress with matching accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

At the reception Mrs. Paul

Overfield, aunt of the bride, cut and served the wedding cake and the Misses Mary Kay Olsen and Priscilla Welch presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. John Walker and Miss Susan Boyd were in charge of the guest book and were at the gift table.

The bride is a graduate of Talent High school and attended Southern Oregon college. She was employed at La Pointe's Dress shop. Mr. Baer was graduated from the Talent High school and is employed at Evan's Products, Gold Beach, Ore.

Among the guests coming from a distance for the wedding were the bridegroom's father and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sanders and Jim, Grants Pass; Mr. and Mrs. Clement Baer, Bremerton, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Leo Whiting and daughter Joyce, Salem; and Mr. and Mrs. Don Walken, Eugene, Ore.

The couple traveled to the coast for their wedding trip and are now living at the Sea Breeze apartments, Gold Beach, Ore.

To Be Honored

A memorial to the late Dr. F. E. Townsend, founder of the Townsend club, will be read at a meeting of the local club Wednesday. The group has ordered a new 50-star United States flag which will be used at future sessions.

Four local members will attend a meeting of the fourth district council at Cottage Grove today. Mrs. Florence Boussum served as installing officer last week for the newly organized Townsend club at Grants Pass. Fifty members have joined the new group.

J. P. Graham, Medford, and Mrs. Ellen Townsend, Ashland, furnished musical entertainment at the last meeting.

The Medford club meets every second and fourth Wednesday of the month at Walker's Dreamland.

Italian Interlude Brunch To Benefit Kindergarten

Fabulous furs over slim suits, glamorous gowns for cocktail and evening parties, and sweaters and skirts for daylight hours will be seen at the style show the Junior Service League plans Monday, September 19 at Mon Desir. The fashion showing is a part of the Italian Interlude brunch, the League's first party of the 1960-61 social season.

Mrs. Robert Turner, Mrs. Fred Lewis, Mrs. Lawrence Ellis, Mrs. Edward Collins, Mrs. Richard Hensley, Mrs. Donald Jackson, Mrs. James Shaw, and Mrs. George Lewis, League members, are modeling the newest in fall and winter styles. The chic clothing is being shown by eight valley shops: Jean Hart's, Burelson's, Mann's, Leon's, Pick's Apparel, Hadley's, Town and Country of Eagle Point, and Frances' Furs.

The Italian Interlude brunch will begin at 11 a.m. in an atmosphere of rural Italy. Italian flags, posters, favors, and prizes will all be in the theme. Italian peasant costumes will be worn by Mrs. Collier Buffington, Mrs. Floyd Hart Jr., Mrs. Donald Herried, Mrs. Houston Pitts, Mrs. John Lynch, Mrs. William Barnum and Mrs. Philip Lowry, who will help with the party throughout the afternoon. Songs of Italy will be played by a musician.

Each guest will carry home at least one memento of the party, a gift from Alba, Italy, sister city of Medford. One special prize was designed and executed in an Alba doll factory, specifically for this party. A bridge prize will be given to each table of guests who wish to play after the style show and brunch.

Reservation will be limited to 200, and may be made by phoning Mrs. James C. Hayes at Spring 2-4014 and
