

The question of which twin brother should escort Miss Pauline Jones down the aisle at Medford Friends church for her marriage to Philip Charles Stevens was settled in a manner satisfactory to everyone in the family. The brothers, Donald and Ronald, shared the honor, one walking at either side. The bride, a daughter of Mrs. Paul Jones of Central Point, was attended by her two sisters and so it was that all five of Mrs. Jones' children were in the wedding party.

Twin Brothers Escort Bride

Central Point—Miss Pauline Jones, daughter of Mrs. Paul Jones, 235 Laurel street, and the late Mr. Jones, became the bride of Philip Charles Stevens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Lester Stevens, 98, Freeman road, September 2.

The single-ring ceremony was read by Clynton Crisman at Medford Friends church at seven o'clock in the evening before about 100 guests. Baskets of pink and white gladioli decorated the church and white satin bows with pink gladioli tips marked the pew ends.

The bride was escorted down the aisle and given in marriage by her twin brothers, Donald and Ronald Jones. Her ballerina-length gown was fashioned with white nylon net over satin. Her shoulder-length veil was held by a crown of white satin and pearls and she carried a bouquet of pink and white gladioli centered with a corsage of pink lilies. Mrs. Kenneth Robertson and Mrs. Jerry Barrett, sisters of the bride, were her attendants. They wore white sheath dresses with cummerbunds of pink taffeta and headpieces of pink net. They carried nosegays of pink and white gladioli.

Wendts Leave After Visit Here

Mr. and Mrs. Warren C. Wendt and children, Thomas, Daniel and Susan, San Diego, left the valley Sunday after a two-week visit with relatives. They were guests of Mr. Wendt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chester H. Wendt, 1653 Old Stage road, and his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Lon Skinner, 30 Portland avenue.

They spent some time at Diamond lake and at the Skinner cabin at Lake of the Woods, before continuing to Klamath Falls to visit with Mrs. Wendt's parents.

Warren Wendt is an astronautical engineer associated with General Dynamics, a division of Convair Aircraft.

"Suds In Your Eye" Opens Tuesday at Little Theater

Medford Footlighters, little theater group, will present "Suds In Your Eye" September 13-18. The farce-comedy by Jack Kirkland, which starts at 8:30 p.m. Tuesday, has a cast of 21 persons and all are character roles.

These characters include policemen, Irishmen, shipyard workers, a Swede, a Chinese, a teacher, sailors and, naturally, a tax collector.

The character with the fewest lines is the wooden Indian who stands (until stolen by a drunk) amidst the chaos in Mrs. Feeley's junk yard, where the play action takes place.

During the production, theatergoers will see such action as mayhem committed on a tax collector, and a pair of nylons auctioned for $90. The play has everything—even the kitchen sink.

Tickets for the comedy are available from any Footlighter members, or at Purucker's Music house, or at the theater door.
