

Happy Camp To Open 1st Season In 11-Man League

By HAZEL DAVIS

Mail Tribune Correspondent
Happy Camp-Happy Camp High school's football team will open its 1960 schedule when it travels to Hayfork in Trinity county on Sept. 24.

Remainder of the slate, all away games, includes Etna, Oct. 1; McCloud, Oct. 8; Fort Jones, Oct. 14; Yreka Jayvees, Oct. 21; and Butte Valley, Oct. 28.

The Etna and Fort Jones games will be six-man but all others will be 11-man. The Yreka game will begin at 3:30 p.m. but all others will be played in the afternoon.

Happy Camp in the past has played six-man football and the 11-man league. High School Principal James Foote said the league has not been completely formed but they hope to have six schools—Happy Camp, McCloud, Tulelake, Butte Valley, Hayfork and Etna—in it.

24 Boys Turn Out
Hayfork is the only school not in Siskiyou county but they chose to play in the new league since they are about the same size as the Siskiyou schools.

Twenty-four boys turned out for this year's team and practice has been held every afternoon under direction of Coach Carl Hamilton and Assistant Coach Robert Hokenson. A field near Buckhorn lodge is being used for practice.

School District 9 Holds Barbecue

Eagle Point—Approximately 175 teachers and their families attended the barbecue picnic at TouVelle State park Sunday afternoon in honor of the new teachers, administrators, and board members of School District No. 9 which includes Eagle Point, Shady Cove and Elk-Trail.

Guests of honor included Superintendent and Mrs. Glenn D. Hale; Eagle Point High School Principal and Mrs. Richard Traylor and family; Eagle Point Elementary Principal and Mrs. Robert Work and family; Shady Cove Principal and Mrs. Bill Shepherd and family; and Elk-Trail Principal and Mrs. Roy Nolan.

Board members and their families attending were Mr. and Mrs. John Reid, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Harnish, Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Stanley, and Mrs. Oscar Hansen.

This was the first social of the new year school year sponsored by the Eagle Point Classroom Teachers association. Most of the afternoon was spent getting acquainted with new members of the staff.

Happy Camp PTA Meets Tomorrow

Happy Camp—The first regular meeting of the Happy Camp PTA will be held at 8 o'clock tomorrow evening. President Mrs. Lloyd Westby will preside.

The budget will be adopted and a decision will be made as to whether a carnival or a turkey shoot will be held as the major money-raising event of the year. Also, Mrs. Frank Sellstrom and Mrs. John Ellis of Yreka, both Siskiyou county librarians, will be here to explain their plan to establish a branch of the Siskiyou county free library here.

Officers of the Log Cabin High School Memorial building are to be invited to hear them talk as this is where they would like to start the library when and if Dr. J. H. Renner moves his offices from the building.

Extension Unit To Hold District Meeting in GP

By MAUDE ZIEGLER
Mail Tribune Correspondent

Applegate Valley—A number of women of Upper Applegate extension unit will go to Grants Pass Wednesday to attend the annual district meeting of extension women from Klamath, Josephine, and Jackson counties, which will be held at the Grants Pass armory, beginning at 10:30 a.m.

Dorothy Sherrill, family finance specialist from Oregon State college, will be guest speaker, talking on "This Matter of Money."

There will be tours of new homes and other places of interest in Grants Pass. Extension members and all other women interested may contact Mrs. Roland Smith before Wednesday regarding transportation. Everyone is to take a sack lunch.

Discussion of leadership development in organizations was given at the first fall meeting of the local extension held last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Otis Buck. Other topics to be given during the club year will be oven meals, selection of children's clothing, study of calories, and arrangement of small electrical appliances. There will be special workshops on tailoring, and landscaping will be available.

Local unit officers are Mrs. Henry Mapston, chairman; Mrs. Mike Loftus, secretary; Mrs. Clarence Roloff, treasurer. A vice chairman will be elected to succeed Mrs. Glen Bailey, who is employed with a Medford bank.

Committee chairmen include Mrs. Roland Smith, hospitality; Mrs. Harley Hall, luncheon; Mrs. Edna Sawyer, reception; Mrs. Glenn Travis, 4-H club; Mrs. Otis Buck, finance; Mrs. Lora Scott, ACWW; Mrs. Forbes Brown, health and safety; Mrs. John Byrne, research, and Mrs. Lance Offenbacher, citizenship.

Every state in the union, with the exception of Vermont and Delaware, was represented on the museum's guest register last month.

Visitors also came from Washington, D.C., Canada, Mexico, British West Indies, England, Wales, Ireland, Germany, Bulgaria, Jordan, Arabia, Japan and Australia.

A group of students from Keio university, Tokyo, Japan; a theater group from Palo Alto, Calif.; the Southwest Oregon Chapter of the American Institute of Architects; employees of Field Enterprises, Portland and a party of travel editors were among the groups visiting the museum.

Interesting gifts donated to the museum during the past month included a bank note and coins from Jack Sutton, Grants Pass; a basket collection from Mrs. Artha Metz, Medford; letters and historical information from Mrs. Alice Applegate Peil, Ashland, and a doctor's kit, glasses and related items from Mrs. Helene Salade Donker, Central Point.

William Wright, Central Point, complained to state police that he was hit in the eye and hand by pears when he was driving his pickup truck on Table Rock rd.

Corvallis—UPB—Six lumber-loaded cars of a seven-car train were derailed about four miles west of here Saturday night on the Southern Pacific's Corvallis-Toledo freight line.

No one was injured. The train's locomotive, the caboose and one box car stayed on the tracks and five box cars and a flat car, carrying lumber and plywood from Philomath, were derailed. The derailed cars remained upright.

Family, newsmen, and a crowd of about 150 friends and high school chums were on hand to greet her when she landed at Portland International airport.
