Nuptial Rite Read Saturday For Couple

Miss Janice Josephine Butts became the bride of James Theodore Reneau in a marriage ceremony and nuptial mass held September 10 at Sacred Heart Catholic church. The Rev. John Lig officiated at the double ring rites held at 10 o'clock in the morning.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice L. Butts, 3320 Bellinger lane. Mr. Reneau is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Reneau, Rapp lane, Talent.

Miss Connie Adams played the organ wedding music for the ceremony attended by 31 close friends and relatives of the couple. Baskets of pink gladioli and white chrysanthemums decorated the church.

The bride wore a white nylon lace over satin gown fashioned with basque bodice, round neckline and long sleeves. The full skirt was ballerina length and her shoulder length veil was held by a white satin and seed pearl crown. She carried a white Bible, a gift of the bridegroom, with a white orchid and pink sweetheart rosebuds.

Following the ceremony a reception was held. Baskets of pink gladioli and white chrysanthemums decorated the room for the event. Mrs. Kenneth Murray cut and served the wedding cake. Miss Stephanie Ball was in charge of the guest book and Miss Sandra Boese was at the gift table.

The newlywed couple are making their home in Mountain Home, Idaho, following a wedding trip along the Oregon coast. For traveling the bride wore a white linen suit with orchid corsage.

The bride is a graduate of Medford High school. Mr. Reneau is a graduate of St. Mary's High school and is an airman second class with the U. S. Air Force and is stationed at the Air Force base in Mountain Home.

Prior to the wedding the bride-elect was honored at a shower at the home of Miss Stephanie Ball, 1025 Ingrid avenue. Cohostess was Miss Sandra Boese, 3160 Roberts road.

Medford Woman Hostess For Tea on Wednesday

Mrs. H. M. Chadwick was honored at a large tea given Wednesday, September 14, by Mrs. E. A. Littrell, her sister-in-law. The event was held at the Littrell home on Greenway circle.

About 120 guests called between three and five o'clock. Pouring tea were Mrs. R. A. Mischke, Mrs. Hugh Coleman, Mrs. Warren Olson and Mrs. Martin Luther. Mrs. Robert W. Shepherd and Mrs. Robert J. Keeney served punch, and greeting guests at the door were Mrs. W. A. Graff Jr., and Mrs. Carl E. Wimberly Jr. Assisting were Mrs. Joseph W. Burba and Mrs. Philip B. Lowry.

The tea table was centered with a silver and crystal epergne filled with pink verbenas.

Mrs. Chadwick divides her time between Medford and her home in Phoenix, Ariz. She planned to leave today with her brother and sister-in-law for the trip south. The Littrells will stop in Petaluma, Calif., to visit Mrs. Littrell's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. David Brainerd, and Mrs. Chadwick will continue to Arizona.

While in Petaluma the Littrells plan to attend a ceremony of the Order of Rainbow Girls during which Miss Lyn Brainerd will be installed as one of the officers of the group.

Mrs. E. A. Littrell (right) was hostess for a large tea Wednesday afternoon which honored her sister-in-law, Mrs. H. M. Chadwick (second from right), who spends her summers in the Rogue valley and the winter months in Phoenix, Ariz. Among the 120 guests at the tea were Mrs. Burton B. Lowry (left) and Mrs. Martin Luther. Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Littrell entertained about 60 women at her home for another tea, the first party being for women visitors in the valley during the 26th annual tournament of the Oregon Senior Golfers' association.
