Harvey-Watkins Service Held in The Dalles

Miss Phyllis Karen Watkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis L. Watkins, Wasco, Ore., became the bride of Delbert Leon Harvey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Walsh, Los Angeles, Calif. The ceremony was held September 4 at The Dalles First Methodist church.

The Rev. Larry Eddings, Wasco, officiated at the double ring rites held at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The wedding was held on the 22nd wedding anniversary of the bride's parents.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of silk mist taffeta. The scalloped neckline and long sleeves were trimmed with Swiss guipure lace embroidered with sequins and rhinestones. The full floor length skirt had inset panels of lace. Her veil of illusion fell from a seed pearl and rhinestone crown. She carried a cascade bouquet of feathered carnations, stephanotis and white roses.

The bride carried an heirloom handkerchief that was first carried by her maternal great grandmother, Andrea Rasch, when married July 15, 1887 in Bornholm, Denmark. It was also carried by the bride's grandmother and her mother.

Maid of honor was Miss Shirley Watkins, sister of the bride. Her dress was of blue taffeta. She wore matching accessories and blue headpiece and carried a cascade bouquet of white gladioli encircling white roses.

Miss Beneva Bader, Portland, was bridesmaid and the junior bridesmaid was Miss Sandra Foss, Wasco, cousin of the bride. Both girls wore blue taffeta frocks and carried crescent bouquets of white chrysanthemums.

Gene Harvey, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man. Groomsmen were Robert Jones, Myrtle Creek, and John Connolly, Medford. Ushers were Don Wilson, Medford; Orville Blaylock, Grass Valley; Lee Kaseberg, Terry Kaseberg, Michael Foss, all cousins of the bride, and Robert Hastings, Wasco. Candelighters were Mrs. Sherry Jacques Sullivan, Alpha Omicron Pi sorority, sister of the bride, and Miss Gwen Merrifield, both Portland. They wore white sheath dresses.

Miss Sandra Reed, Portland sorority sister of the bride, was soloist.

The church was decorated with white gladioli, chrysanthemums, and roses.

Mrs. Watkins wore a sheath dress of pale almond color with matching accessories. Her brasso orchid corsage was in shades of gold. Mrs. Harvey's frock was of beige lace with neutral accessories and she wore a corsage of cypripedium orchids in green and white.

A reception in the fellowship hall of the church followed the ceremony. Cutting and serving the wedding cake were Mrs. John Foss, Wasco, the bride's aunt, and Mrs. Hazel Simpson, Portland, her great aunt. Presiding at the tea and coffee service were Mrs. Paulen Kaseberg, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Melvin Walsh, Los Angeles, Calif. Mrs. Leonard Fields and Miss Alice Kaseberg, Wasco, cousin of the bride, served the punch.

Assisting with the reception were Miss Barbara Brooks, Portland, sorority sister of the bride; Mrs. Larry Kaseberg, Wasco, Miss Sylvia Baker and Miss Gwen Kirkland, Medford. Miss Sharon Roberts, Medford, played the accordion during the reception.

Mrs. Sally Fields Brown, The Dalles, was in charge of the guest book.

The bride is a graduate of Sherman High school, Northwestern School of Commerce, Portland, and attended Oregon State college two years. She is a member of Alpha Omicron Pi sorority and Annie Fulton chapter, Order of Eastern Star. She was employed at the Sherman Co-operative Grain Growers association this past summer.

Mr. Harvey was graduated from Medford High school and Modern Barber school, Portland. He is a member of Order of the Arrow, De Molay, Southern Oregon Timing association, and the Medford Accordion club. He is employed at Dave's Ye Olde Barber shop, Medford. The couple will make their home here following a honeymoon trip.

For traveling the bride wore a charcoal colored suit with black and white accessories. Her corsage was of phenopsis orchids.

Grandparents of the bride attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Everett Watkins and Mrs. Ethel Strong, all The Dalles, and the bridegroom's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Nettie McKenzie, Bieber, Calif.

Among the out of town guests was Tom Harvey, Medford.

Desavedo-Cook Wedding News Announced Here

Of interest to Medford and Ashland residents is the wedding September 1 in Fairbanks, Alaska, of Alma Cook, formerly of Cedarville, Calif., and Max C. Desavedo, long time rancher and owner of the Box D ranch in the Green Springs area.

The wedding was held in the First Methodist church in Fairbanks. The bride wore a blue lace frock in afternoon length with matching accessories. Her corsage was a pink Cymbidium orchid.

The couple plan to return to Medford in the late spring and will divide their time between their home on Oregon terrace in Medford and the Box D ranch.

Mrs. Desavedo, who is doing advanced work in journalism, will attend the University of Fairbanks while Mr. Desavedo is employed by the U. S. government at Ladd Field.

Mr. Desavedo is the son of Mrs. Rose Desavedo, who is making her home with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Vern E. Rose, 3390 Jacksonville highway.

Marriage Takes Place In Ashland

Ashland — The Fire Baptized Holiness church, Ashland, was the setting September 3 for the wedding of Miss Frances Helen Palmer and Cecil C. Clifton.

The bride is a daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Franklin Palmer, 583 Normal avenue, Ashland. The bridegroom's mother is Mrs. Charles Clifton, Garfield, Ark.

The bride's father officiated at the 7 o'clock evening wedding and gave his daughter in marriage.

The bride wore a white embroidered taffeta frock. Her veil of illusion was held by a net band and she carried a white Bible with pink rosebuds and stephanotis.

Miss Ann Palmer was honor attendant for her sister and Mrs. Richard Bratcher was bridesmatron. They wore cotton satin frocks of orchid and blue.

Gene Allen served as best man and Richard Bratcher was groomsmen. Ronald Acuff seated the guests.

Mrs. Clifton Perrel sang two selections and was accompanied by Mrs. Jean Cruse and Mrs. Gene Allen, sister of the bride.

Mrs. Palmer wore a pink cotton satin dress for her daughter's wedding. Her corsage was of white carnations.

Mrs. Ronald Acuff, sister of the bride, was in charge of the reception which followed. Mrs. Dean Wilson served the wedding cake she had baked and decorated. Miss Mary Duiby was in charge of the guest book.

The couple traveled to Crater Lake on their wedding trip, the bride wearing for traveling a two piece dress. Her corsage was of rosebuds. The bride is a graduate of Ashland High school. The bridegroom is employed by the Happy Camp Lumber Mill, Happy Camp, Calif., where they will make their home.
