

Kennedy Calls for More Production To End Unemployment

Atlantic City, N.J. — (UPI) — Sen. John F. Kennedy called today for greater production rather than a shorter work week to conquer unemployment and meet the Communist economic challenge to America.

The Democratic presidential candidate made the appeal in a speech prepared for delivery to the United Steelworkers' convention. He also planned to speak before the Chemical Workers Union here before flying to Charleston, W. Va., tonight for a conference on distressed areas.

Kennedy, who spent Sunday in Washington with his wife and young daughter, told reporters he was encouraged by the public reaction to his first 15 days of campaigning. But he conceded he was in a "very close" race with Vice President Richard M. Nixon. He said that while there was "still a great deal of concern" over his Catholic religion, he was gratified that many people were moving on to other issues. He said he was heartened by recent Protestant disavowals of anti-Catholicism.

In his address to the steelworkers, Kennedy took note of union President David J. McDonald's proposal for a 32-hour week as the solution to the problem of unemployment in the steel industry.

Looks To Shorter Hours

"I, too, look forward to the day when the working men and women of this country can reduce their efforts and enjoy greater leisure," Kennedy said. "But in the face of the communist challenge which confronts us in the world today — a challenge of economic as well as military strength — I believe that we must meet today's problem of employment by greater production rather than by sharing the work."

"I would rather create abundance than ration scarcity — and I promise you an administration that believes in building abundance."

U.S. Steel Rail Strike Settled

Pittsburgh, Pa. — (UPI) — The first rolling stock since Aug. 18 moved over tracks of the Union Railroad today following week end settlement of a strike by the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen.

The railroad, U. S. Steel Corp.'s major plant carrier in the Pittsburgh area, and the BRT reached agreement on a new two-year contract Saturday night. The pact was substantially the same as that reached between the BRT and four other U.S. Steel subsidiary railroads last Friday.

Leverett Edwards, a member of the National Railroad Mediation Board, and Q. C. Gabriel, vice president of the BRT, announced the settlement which sent 2,000 union railroad employees back to work.

The contract calls for two wage increases, improved pensions, insurance plans, vacations, and paid holidays. It runs until Nov. 1, 1962.

The Union Railroad began to roll its first equipment Sunday morning, the first since nonoperating personnel struck the carrier Aug. 18.

Republicans View Film of Nixon Trip

A television film of a tour made by Vice President Richard Nixon was viewed simultaneously in 750 homes throughout the state Thursday morning, it was reported by Jim Ragland, Jackson County chairman of the Volunteers for Nixon organization.

In Jackson county, more than 80 individual parties were held, with guests convening for a social hour followed by the telecast on a half-hour film of an official tour made by the vice-president. Hostesses for the "TV-Coffees" were precinct committee women and other Republican leaders who invited a dozen guests each, and were provided with special kits from the state headquarters.

Ragland announced that the Volunteers for Nixon headquarters in Medford is at 8 North Riverside ave., and that volunteers to help staff the office would be welcome. Interested residents could contact him at SPring 2-7184 for details, the chairman said.

SOCTFA Schedules Meeting Sept. 23

Art Roberts, education director, West Coast Lumberman's association, will be the guest speaker at the meeting of the Southern Oregon Conservation and Tree Farm Association, Friday, Sept. 23, at 7:30 p.m.

Roberts will report on the progress being made by lumber associations to include more forest conservations in school curriculums. He will also discuss ways in which forests products can meet the challenge of non-wood competition in consumer goods.

Glenn Duysen, SOCTFA president, reminded members that it is the first meeting of the fall season. Included on the agenda will be a report by a member of the local Hoo-Hoo club on plans for observance of National Forest Products Week, Oct. 16 to 22.

The dinner meeting will be preceded by a social hour starting at 7 p.m. and will be held at the Rogue Valley Country club.

Nixon Says Nikita To Be Two-Faced During UN Session

Washington — (UPI) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon said today that Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev will try to pose during the United Nations session as the advocate of policies which the Russian leader actually opposes.

The Republican presidential candidate said that Khrushchev will talk about "peace, freedom, independence, anti-colonialism and all the other things the Communists really oppose."

Another Major Swing

Nixon spoke at a meeting of 250 members of the American Nationalities for Nixon-Lodge committee which will wage a campaign for support among 20 million Americans of foreign origin. Later in the day, he will start off on another major campaign swing.

The Republican presidential candidate told the nationalities group that "one of the insidious appeals of the Communists is that they do not come as dictators or conquerors, but as partisans of anything the people want."

"They talk in one way very effectively and act in another," he said.

Nixon warned the nationalities leaders, assembled from various parts of the country, that "an aggressive idea like communism cannot be countered by purely defensive tactics."

He also said the Communists believe that the greatness of a nation lies in military strength and industrial production, but that "to us a nation is only as great and only as strong as its adherence to lasting ideals."

Nixon's date with the nationalities group kept him in Washington during the early part of the day. His schedule

Mysterious Object Seen Over California, Texas

BY UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL

An unidentified flying object was sighted Sunday night over the San Fernando Valley, Santa Ana, Calif., and San Antonio, Tex.

The first reported sighting was made by moonwatchers at Trinity University in San Antonio. Bob Jernigan, head of the team, said there were no U.S. satellites due over the area when the object was seen. The team did not believe it was a meteor.

At least a dozen persons reported seeing an object in the sky over California around 8:30 p.m.

K. E. McCusker, an engineer, described it as an "enormous glowing thing arching across the sky from horizon to horizon."

U. S. Air Force officials in Washington said their early warning radar network had reports of an object in the sky. The report from San Antonio said the object appeared in the north sky and was moving southwest to northeast. No estimate of speed was given.

Don Smith, reporter on the Santa Ana Register, said it appeared to maintain a constant velocity and was visible for about five minutes.

"It was round and seemed to wink like a star," he said.

called for a midafternoon return to airborne campaigning, however.

For his second week of full scale campaign activity, Nixon scheduled stops in 11 states with emphasis on the Midwest. He promised to unveil the second installment of his farm program in a speech at a Sioux Falls, S.D., plowing contest Friday.
