

'Other' Royal Margaret Will Some Day Be Queen

By GAY PAULEY
UPI Women's Editor
Copenhagen, Denmark—(UPI)—European royalty has Mrs. Anthony Armstrong-Jones, and then there is that other Margaret.

Well, that "other Margaret" may not receive all the attention in the world's news papers that Britain's ex-spinsters since another Margaret (or Margrethe, as the Danes spell the name), ruled—as regent, not as sovereign—from 1937 to 1942.

This Margaret will succeed her father, King Frederik, because the 4.5 million Danes wanted it that way. There is no male heir, so in 1953, the Danes voted a change in their constitution to permit a female successor. No royal decree involved. Just popular wish.

What is she like, the 20-year-old heiress presumptive? "She is brought up to be a queen, but she's all girl," was the way one source close to the palace described her.

Margrethe is blue-eyed and blond, and a big girl, where Britain's Margaret is brunette and diminutive. Margrethe stands five feet and 10 inches. Her father recently assured a slightly concerned Queen Ingrid, his wife, that a reigning queen should be tall.

Margrethe would rather go on an archaeological expedition with her grandfather, King Gustav VI Adolf of Sweden than listen to rock 'n' roll. She collects stamps, glass animals, is a talented artist, a nationalist and member of the Danish Ornithological society, expert in judo, and a corporal in the Danish women's auxiliary air force.

But she is no square. Margrethe is an excellent dancer, skier, swimmer, rider and tennis player. She has a lively sense of humor and a lot of poise. But she does not have the interest in clothes that Margaret of Britain always has had, and once showed up at University of Copenhagen matriculation ceremonies with her slip hanging a couple of inches.

Jacksonville Club Meets

Jacksonville—Jacksonville Garden club opened the fall season with a meeting at the Community hall. Mrs. A. G. Motchenbacher presided.

The program included a discussion on table arrangements by Mrs. R. T. Nichol, Medford, a detailed report on the silk tree, sometimes called Mimosa, by Mrs. J. B. Noble, a discussion on birds by Mrs. Frank Janosky and a talk on the history of roses by Mrs. Alice Hibbert.

A study of roses is the garden club's project this year, and will be included on the program of each meeting.

Delegates elected for the district convention to be held at Central Point, September 28 are Mrs. Frank Janosky and Mrs. Paul Godward. Alternates are Mrs. C. O. Lack and Mrs. Glenn Tuttle.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Paul Godward and Mrs. Harold Reed, with Mrs. Paul Farley and Mrs. C. O. Lack pouring.

The hall was decorated with roses and the table with a centerpiece of fall colors of yellow and brown shades of flowers.

Robert Baccus, chairman of the Medford citizens committee which is coordinating activities for Medford's "sister city" program with Alba, Italy, is pictured here with a doll and two puppets which were used as prizes at a benefit brunch and style show held Monday at Mon Desir dining inn, Central Point. The doll and puppets were sent from Alba by Mayor Osvaldo Cagnasso for the party which was given by Medford Junior Service league to raise money for the kindergarten for hard-of-hearing children which the group operates.

Mrs. Jonathan Middleton, (pictured with Mr. Baccus) chairman of the event, plans to send the Italian mayor pictures and clippings and a letter expressing the league's gratitude for the gifts. The doll, it is explained, is "La Bella Trifolera," or the beautiful queen of the truffles, and is made in connection with Alba's annual Truffle Festival each October. About 200 guests attended the event Monday.

Scout Staff Reviews Day Camp

Members of the staff of the Rogue Valley-area of Girl Scouts met last Thursday at the Chuck Wagon for a report on the Girl Scout day camps of the area.

Mrs. Robert LeRoy, district director, who presided announced that attendance at the 1960 day camp was 823. The day camp at Ashland, held in upper Lithia Park, had an attendance of 44; Grants Pass, held at Reinhardt ranch, 275; Medford, held at Tomlin Forest, 290; Talent-Phoenix, held at Olson ranch, 102; Yreka, held at Burton ranch, 182.

Directors reported that each camp chose a theme and had a variety of activities. The themes for the camps were: Ashland, "If it isn't fun, it isn't scouting"; Grants Pass, "Hands around the world"; Medford, "Our chalet in Little Switzerland"; Talent-Phoenix, "Camp of the singing birds"; Yreka, "United States."

Activities of the camps included nature craft, hikes, campfire programs, smoke-jumper demonstration, outdoor cooking, rattlesnake training, forest rangers speaking, work on badges, wading, rock collecting, bird watching, nature trails, bull-ying birdhouses, studying stars, labeling of trees and bushes, singing games, wide games, weaving and archery and overnight camp for the older girls.

Each day camp director reported that health and safety were stressed by holding fire drills and having firefighting equipment available and also having registered nurses and "first aiders" in attendance at all times.

Attending the meeting were Mrs. C. E. Woods, Madrona district chairman, and Mrs. James W. Allen, Madrona district program chairman, Ashland; Mrs. A. B. Smith, director, and Mrs. Harold S. Hyde and Mrs. P. A. Roby, assistant directors, Grants Pass; Mrs. Dean Eppinger, Medford Day camp director, and Mrs. David D. Dodge, Medford Day camp assistant director; Mrs. Jerry Gastineau, Medford area training chairman, Mrs. B. E. Cully, North Jackson district chairman, Mrs. L. M. Vonsel, Oakdale training chairman, Mrs. C. G. Fox, Oakdale neighborhood chairman, Mrs. Thomas Vance, South Medford chairman, Miss Ruth Kibbourn, executive director, and Mrs. Robert LeRoy, district director, all of Medford, and Mrs. T. M. Deter, Day camp director, from Yreka.

The Rogue Valley Girl Scout Council, Inc., is a member-agency of Ashland-Talent United fund, Josephine County United fund, the United Medford Crusade; the West Siskiyou district conducts a Girl Scout fund drive.

Institute Set Friday

Program arrangements for a mission institute, sponsored by the Medford Council of United Church Women, are completed according to Mrs. Melvin Hoover, chairman. She states that Mrs. D. S. Anderson will be at the organ for the morning.

This annual event is to be held in Eastwood Baptist church, Friday, September 23. An informal coffee hour at 9:30 a.m. will open the activities. At 10 o'clock Mrs. William Ricken will conduct the devotional period. Mrs. Hoover will welcome those attending and will present the program themes and also a musical sketch "Witnessing Through Music."

Departing from the usual form of procedure, books to be considered for fall and winter study in the several affiliated churches will not be briefed individually as has been the custom in other years but will be discussed in group arrangement for both adult and youth classes. Under the theme "Into All the World Together" Mrs. Robert Mayer will present the books for adult consideration and Mrs. Weldon C. Kline books under the same theme for youth and children.

Adult books on the theme "Heritage and Horizons in Home Missions" will be briefed by Mrs. John Hall and Mrs. Fred Daugherty will tell of the youth and children's books carrying a similar theme.

Mrs. Walter Higgins will tell of migrant work and the offering will be dedicated to the migrant program, it is stated.

Nursery care will be provided.

All interested are invited to attend.

Club Announces Annual Dinner

Medford Toastmistress club has set October 12 as the date of the annual public relations dinner. Mrs. Elmer Ness is chairman and it will be held at Ping's Gardens.

At the last meeting of the group it was announced that Mrs. James VanderSteen had been named to the by-laws and resolutions committee for the region, and on the program and education committee for International Toastmistress.

Guests for the meeting were Miss Ethel Todd, Miss Sanna Craig, Mrs. Lorraine Hall and Mrs. F. R. Faulkner.

Mrs. Richard Williams gave the invocation, Mrs. J. W. Poage was lexicologist and Mrs. Amy True, topmistress. Mrs. Roy Rolls presented the education topic.

Among the speakers was Mrs. Ethel McIntyre who talked on "People to People", telling about Medford's Sister City, Alba, in Italy. Mrs. J. D. Brummond and Mrs. C. A. Thatcher also spoke.

District Nurses Name Delegates

Delegates to attend the convention of Oregon Nurses association in Eugene October 12-14 have been chosen by District 4. They are Mrs. Jane Anders, Mrs. Maureen Buettner, Miss Frances Clink, Mrs. Lila McDowell, Mrs. Eleanor Ramsey, and Miss Loretta Costello. A member from Ashland will be chosen later.

Miss Clink announced an institute entitled "Strike Back at Strokes" to be presented by the Jackson County Public Health department in October.

Dr. Donald McGeary spoke on "Emphysema" at the last meeting of District 4 members.

Mrs. Erwin Gray Gold Hill Visitor

Gold Hill—Mrs. Erwin Gray and son, Jerald, Long Beach, Calif., visited in Gold Hill last week with Mrs. June Jones, scenic avenue, Mrs. Melvin Johnson and Mrs. Oliver Conrad.

Mrs. Gray is the former Lorraine Wright of the Willow Springs area and it had been several years since the friends had been together.

While in southern Oregon Mrs. Gray and her son were guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Wright, Talent.

Clubs Set Date Of Flower Show

Twelve women from the Howard, Roxy Ann, and Crater Garden clubs met September 7 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Messal, 1464 Orchard Home drive, Medford, to discuss and plan a fall flower show.

The flower show will be held in the Crater High school gymnasium October 8. Theme of the show will be potpourri and will feature fall flowers and dried materials.

Careers Topic For BPW Club

Special music by Mrs. Carolyn Chamberlain and Miss Laura York opened the first fall meeting of the Medford Business and Professional Women's club held Thursday evening at the Girls Community club.

Pointers on parliamentary procedure were given by Mrs. Ellen Williams. Miss Voda Brower commented on interesting highlights of the August field trip to sections of Rogue Valley National Forest as guests of the U.S. Forest Service.

"My Career" was the theme of the program selected by the membership committee. The chairman, Mrs. Caroline Lovness introduced Mrs. Dorothy Holberton, Miss Gladys Durand, Mrs. Vivia Redmond and Mrs. Harriet Watson who spoke briefly on their careers.

A report of activities for National Business Women's Week, October 2-9, was outlined by Mrs. Billie Preston, chairman. Now in its 32nd year, the Business Week was established for the purpose of calling attention to the achievements of women in business and the professions, to give the community at large an opportunity to become better acquainted with the program of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, and to attract local women to membership in the organization. Plans for Medford's participation in the week will be announced later.

The president, Mrs. Nell Faulkner, announced that a special meeting will be held at the Jackson Hotel on September 29 for the reading and adoption of the new bylaws.

Special guests for the evening were Mrs. Maxine Stone, Mrs. Edna Tengwald, Mrs. Alice Saunders and Mrs. Zola Sims.

WHAT DOES THE BIBLE SAY?

ROMANS 15:12

We have no way of knowing completely what took place in the Garden of Eden because of the sin of man, but we do know that man was changed from a higher estate to a lower state. In this change they suffered a spiritual and physical death. By this disobedience, sin and death came into the world.

In substance God told man that he would not receive into himself man's spirit after death, until some time in the future. We know now this was to be through Christ. We should take note that in the very beginning when God gave man a command, he expected it to be obeyed completely, and if it was not, man was punished for it. Man has always had to pay for his disobedience to God.

Y To Resume Family Nights

John Eads will present a program of magic at the first fall family night program at the Medford YMCA Friday, September 23 at 7:30 o'clock. Mr. Eads is a local business man whose avocation as a magician has made him a popular performer. His show is considered especially suitable for family night as it is of interest to both children and adults. As this is a special attraction all families are invited whether YMCA members or not.

Each family is asked to bring either a cake or punch for potluck refreshments.

Programs of special interest such as this will be offered once a month on family night in addition to the usual family use of the gymnasium and pool every Friday night, it is announced.

Program Planned By Garden Club

The Little Garden Club of Medford held its first fall meeting of the season at the home of Mrs. Charles Hurst, 765 Sunrise avenue. Business and plans for the year were discussed.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Herb Vallee, 724 Alder street, October 12.
