Lone Pine — Sherman Simmons, 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Simmons, 606 Valley View dr., last week was awarded the first place trophy of the novice obedience class and for perfect attendance, for his dog, Spotty.

Sherman has been training his dog since the class began last July 7. The obedience classes are conducted by Mrs. Margaret Jones, of Phoenix. Sherman spends approximately 15 minutes each day training Spotty.

The class began with five attending the first class but all, for one reason or another, failed to attend later except Sherman and Spotty.

Spotty is a one-year-old Springer spaniel that Sherman decided to train because of his wandering, and need of some type of training. He has proved to be a one-man dog, and can only be managed by Sherman.

Inmate Escapes Prison To Attend Son's Funeral

East Los Angeles, Calif. — They bury 5-year-old Joseph F. Cordova today.

His stepfather, who escaped from prison to attend the funeral, will be at the graveside.

Joseph died at General Hospital last Tuesday—18 days after he was injured in a fall at his Pomona, Calif., home. His mother, who had expected him to recover, spent all 18 nights as close to her boy as she could. Unable to afford a hotel room, she slept each night on a waiting room bench in the hospital.

Rolando R. Lopez, 27, heard of his stepson's death the next day in his cell at the California Institution for Men at Chino, 40 miles away.

Rules forbade his attending the funeral. He escaped. Local police were alerted that he might return to the Los Angeles area to attend the funeral.

Lopez, convicted of robbery in January, did return. He was arrested by police officers Tuesday in a Pomona hotel. Accompanied by two detectives, he will be allowed to attend the services.

Authorities said Lopez will be returned to Chino where, at the time of his escape, he was being held as a minimum security prisoner serving a five-year-to-life term.

A new class will begin as soon as 15 people have signed up. Mrs. Jones states. The classes will be held at the Phoenix community club. Anyone interested should contact a kennel club member or Mrs. Jones, 1469 Pacific rd., KE 5-2243
