Los Angeles - (UPI) - Beverly Aadland, former protegee of the late Errol Flynn, became 18 years old today - but still remained a ward of the juvenile court.

Miss Aadland was made a ward of the court after an accidental shooting in April which proved fatal to actor William Utanciu. She had been in the custody of Evan-

Fortune Found Pinned Beneath Woman's Clothes

Seattle - (UPI) - Mrs. Mamie Beck, 78, liked to keep her valuables close to her. In fact she wore her life savings pinned to her petticoat.

Mrs. Beck's body was found Monday by a niece, Mrs. Frank Muesberger, when she stopped by for a visit. Later in the day, an undertaker discovered that under Mrs. Beck's old-fashioned winter dress was a petticoat to which more than $8,000 in old bills and gold certificates had been pinned.

Also carefully stitched into the undergarment was a savings book showing a Mary Donovan had a balance of $6,912 in a Bremerton bank. Mary Donovan was Mrs. Beck's maiden name.

Bills Outdated
The Federal Reserve Bank here said nearly all of the $100, $50 and $20 bills in the petticoat have been outdated since 1940. They included two dozen 1928 gold certificates of $20 value each which had been called out of circu-

Boots Pleasing To Teen-Agers

Boots are moving up and down again in teen-age fashions this fall - moving up in popularity, and moving down below the ankle to give a boot look to the newest casual flats, reports Shoe Fashion Service of Leather Industries of America.

The teen-ager find a great variety of colors in brushed and smooth leather boots, with some boot styles also featuring grained leather. Deep and golden browns, olive greens, graphite grays, bright reds and yellows attract the teen-age eye.

Smartly styled boots feature side closings that may vary from small strap clasps through huge buckles on wide straps to buttoned effects. Some boot-styled casuals show sored throatlines that rise high over the vamp.

Flat heels and higher vamp and topline create the boot look. Soft leather uppers and thin, flexible leather soles give these beauties a light, lithe look and a "walking on air" feeling afoot.

Toes continue to point in a high fashion direction to give shoe-boots and other dress and casual styles versatile personality. Shell and ball casuals, featuring softer detailing and an understated look, point the toe, and even squared-off moc-type casuals taper off. Ties, ranging from one to three eyelets, strike a natty tailored look. Many tie shoes sport novel vamp stitching; others have black edged soles emphasized with white stitching.

There's a textured look in basketweave leather flats, in black, brown and green leathers. Some shoes use two contrasting finishes - such as smooth and grained or brushed and smooth - for a textured effect.

SCANNING ANTENNA

Washington - (Science Service) - An antenna to provide scientists with a new tool for the study of the earth's reflecting layer of radio waves, the ionosphere, has been developed at the National Bureau of Standards.

Without benefit of electrical or mechanical moving parts, the antenna scans an arc of 42 degrees and can determine immediately the direction of radio signals received from a "forward scatter" transmission. In this type of very high frequency radio propagation, radio waves are scattered from cloud-like concentrations of electrons in the lower ionosphere and may arrive at the receiver site from many directions.

STRIPES - Eye-catching stripes dress up a fashion for young party givers and goers. By Petite Fleur, with Scotch Guard stain resistant finish.

Rapid City, S. D. - A total of 1,045,698 persons visited Mount Rushmore National memorial in the South Dakota Black hills during 1959.

There were 39 days during the year when more than 10,000 visitors viewed the likeness of Presidents Washington, Lincoln, Jefferson and Theodore Roosevelt. The highest total for a single day was 15,276.
