

Paroled Killer Slays Three in Wisconsin Bar

Green Bay, Wis.—UPI—A paroled murderer shot and killed three persons in a crowded downtown bar Wednesday and then took his own life.

Police said it was "impossible to tell this early" whether the berserk shooting resulted from a personal feud or a love triangle.

Witnesses told police Walter L. Ferry, 45, killed owner-bartender Alfred Phillips, 31, with a single shot through the chest after telling him, "Red, you're going to get yours."

Ferry then fatally wounded Jo Ann Gilson, 31, believed to have been Phillips' girl friend, and Mrs. Patricia Meetz, 22, of Kaukauna, Wis., before turning the 30-30 rifle on himself.

Victim Believed Unknown
Green Bay Police Lt. Fred Paul said there was no indication Ferry knew Mrs. Meetz, a divorcee and mother of four young children.

Paul said "10 or 12 customers" in Red's Wander Inn said Ferry had several drinks at the bar earlier in the night, stalked out after an argument with Phillips and returned shortly before midnight with the rifle.

Ferry was a former resident of Marion, Wis., about 45 miles west of Green Bay, where police said he was convicted in 1950 of second degree murder in the fatal stabbing of his ex-wife.

Realtor of Year Named for Area

William Frohnmayer has been named Realtor of the Year for the jurisdictional area of the Medford Board of Realtors, Mrs. Mary Fasel, president of the Women's Council of the Medford Board of Realtors, has announced.

Frohnmayer was honored in recognition of his organizing earlier this year of a six weeks real estate study course for realtors and the public. The course received national recognition by the National Association of Real Estate Boards.

Mrs. Fasel said that Frohnmayer had also brought educational speakers to Medford for Realty Board meetings and has kept the local Board cognizant of current state legislative activities.

Frohnmayer will compete with other local Realtors of the Year from other Oregon communities at the state convention of the Oregon Association of Real Estate Boards in Eugene Sept. 25 to 28 for the state Realtor of the Year title.
