

Presbyterian Groups Schedule Church Dinners

Central Point - Christian Education will be Sunday's theme at the First Presbyterian church, Central Point. Recognition will be given the church school teachers during the 11 a.m. worship service along with promotion exercises for the children.

The Rev. Robert W. Olmsted will speak on "Children, Parents and Christian Education."

Beginning Sunday, junior church will be held during the worship service. The parents will take their children into the sanctuary and at a special place in the worship service the children will be dismissed to their own service. Junior church will include all children up to 12 years of age.

A congregational meeting will follow the close of the morning worship. At 1 p.m. a church wide potluck dinner will be held in the church social hall.

Those attending are to take their own table service and potluck dish.

A combined meeting with the Senior High group at the Medford Westminster Presbyterian church is scheduled for the Westminster Fellowship. All who are planning to make the trip are to meet at the church in Central Point at 6:30 p.m. Transportation will be provided.

Phoenix-The Rev. William Saladin, Phoenix First Presbyterian church, will speak on "Why Church School?" for his Sunday morning sermon topic to mark Christian Education Sunday.

Regular family night potluck supper will be held Thursday, Oct. 6, when Miss Virginia McKenzie, Presbyterian missionary to Japan, will speak.

Tonight the Kings' Men will have a hamburger feed for the church. Proceeds will send a delegate to the western area meeting in Sacramento.

King's Men will not meet Tuesday but on Thursday, Sept. 29, instead, when Dr. D. Kirkland West, Medford, will speak.

Saturday from 12:30 to 4 p.m., a curriculum review will be held at the Rogue River Presbyterian church for all interested in Christian education.

Communicants' classes begin Oct. 2 for children 12 years or older.

Persons who have the names of church members, who have not been attending services recently or former members who might be encouraged to renew their membership, are asked to send such information to Box 386, Phoenix, so the session may arrange some visitations. Choir practice will be held at 7 p.m. Wednesday at church. Child care is available. More men and women are needed, it was announced. A junior choir may be started later.

Jacksonville - Saturday at 6:30 p.m. the Church Night Fellowship potluck dinner will be held at the Jacksonville First Presbyterian church. Following the dinner a film on the Congo will be shown.

Sunday will be Rally Day in the Sunday school. A program will be presented which will include promotions, recognition of members with outstanding attendance records, and a brief talk by the pastor. The goal for the day is the highest Sunday school attendance on record.

The sermon title for Sunday by the Rev. King K. Jones, minister, will be "How to Handle Your Discouragements." The music will include a presentation by the choir entitled "Go Forth Strong Word of God."

The Jacksonville Westminster Fellowship will meet in the church at 7 p.m. under the leadership of its new officers. The new officers, elected following a progressive dinner last Sunday, are Dale Ma theny, president; Mary Ann Hein, program chairman; Joyce Johnston, social chairman; John Sullivan, refreshment chairman.

Tuesday at 6:30 p.m. the Session and their wives will be guests in the manse for dinner. Following dinner, the regular Session meeting will be held.

Wednesday at 6 p.m. the Jacksonville Westminster Fellowship officers and sponsors will be guests in the manse for a dinner and planning session.

The Southwest Oregon Presbyterian will meet at the church next Thursday morning. The opening session will be at 9 a.m. All women interested in the work of the Presbyterian church are invited to attend.

State Pay Hikes Said Not Enough

Salem - Oregon Civil Service Director Melvin Cleveland said Thursday state department heads think latest proposals for pay increases for state employees don't go far enough.

The pay increases are designed to make state salaries more competitive with private industry.

Cleveland said the recommended increases may be revised upward or downward in specific instances before the final plan goes to the 1961 legislature.
