Goodroad-Linn Ceremony

An event of Saturday, September 17, was the wedding of Miss Penny Linn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn L. Linn, 119 Washington street, to Irvin Ross Goodroad, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Goodroad, 2909 Madrona lane.

Their wedding took place in St. Mark's Episcopal church at four o'clock in the afternoon. The Rev. George R. V. Bolster read the double-ring ceremony before approximately 200 guests. White gladioli decorated the church and white satin bows were attached to the pews.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina-length gown of Italian lace, styled with long sleeves and a high neckline. Her shoulder-length veil was held by a crown of seed pearls. She carried a large, single pink hibiscus encircled with lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Arthur Nichols was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Cheryl Linn, sister of the bride, and Miss Arlis Buttner. All three attendants wore silk taffeta sheath dresses with overskirts. Each wore a bandeau hat of flowers and carried a pink and white bouquet of wood fiber appleblossoms made by the bride.

Arthur Nichols was best man. Barry Goodroad, a brother of the bridegroom, Harold Bailey, Ray Bellevue and James Fredenburg seated guests. Mrs. Ernest Conrad was organist.

For the wedding, Mrs. Linn wore a blue silk sheath with blue accessories and a pink and white corsage made by the bride. Mrs. Goodroad wore a blue afternoon dress with blue accessories and a corsage made by the bride.

The bride's parents gave a reception in the Parish House, which had been decorated by the St. Elizabeth's guild. Mrs. Bolster is president. Bouquets of pink and white gladioli decorated the punch table and the room. Pink carnations and fern were arranged on the bride's table.

Mrs. Ira Canfield and Mrs. John Deaver cut the cake. Mrs. Jack Clark and Mrs. John Jensen poured. Mrs. George Linderman was in charge of the gift table and Miss Marian Parsons was at the guest book.

The bride and bridegroom are graduates of Medford High school and he attended Southern Oregon college. The newlyweds traveled to Portland and the Oregon coast on their honeymoon. The bride wearing a charcoal colored suit and a white rose corsage. They will make their home in Portland, where the bridegroom will be employed as an accountant.

Prior to the wedding, the bride was honored at a number of events.
