

Ceremony At Home Weds Pair

Ashland - Miss Donna Rae Conley, daughter of Ray V. Conley, Ashland, became the bride of Arthur Cottini, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Cottini, Mt. Shasta, Calif., in rites held September 15. The Rev. Lawrence May of the Church of God, Ashland, officiated at the double-ring ceremony held at 7 o'clock in the evening at the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon W. Conley, 662 A street.

Miss Carol Anne Phelps, Ashland, attended the bride and John Burke, Mt. Shasta, was best man.

The bride wore a gown of white nylon organza with an elaborately embroidered overskirt and carried pink carnations. A reception followed. Arrangements of pink roses and dahlias decorated the rooms of the Conley home.

The bride attended Ashland High school and the bridegroom was graduated from Mt. Shasta High school with the class of 1958. The newlyweds will make their home in Mt. Shasta where the bridegroom is assistant manager of the Safeway store.

Church Ceremony Weds Couple

September has been a popular month for weddings, and among the newly married couples are Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Leon Reisinger. The bride is the former Velma Elaine Jennings, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Jennings, 1605 Ridgeway drive, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Reisinger, 719 West Second street, Medford.

The marriage ceremony, using two wedding rings and the bride's engagement ring, took place by candlelight September 9 at First Christian church, with the Rev. Glenn McKerrow officiating. The eight o'clock rites were followed by a reception at the church for about 125 relatives and friends.

White and lavender gladioli and ferns provided a setting for the bride and groom. The bride wore a gown of heavy white crystalline with a fitted bodice, scoop neckline outlined with lace and pearls and full skirt with train. Her short veil, styled by her sister, Mrs. Ronald K.

Wisdom, Medford, was decorated with pearls and held by a hat of crystalline and pearls. The bride carried carnations and pink rosebuds on a white Bible, the Bible being a graduation gift from the Rev. and Mrs. D. D. Randles, Medford.

Mrs. Wisdom was honor attendant for her sister, and Mrs. Ray Greeninger, the bridegroom's sister from Norwalk, Calif., was bridesmaid. Miss Mimi Jones was bridesmaid. They wore matching taffeta frocks varying from dark to light blue and carried bouquets of gladioli and small chrysanthemums in pastel shades.

Miss Roslyn Reisinger, the bridegroom's sister, and Fred Jennings, the bride's brother, lighted the candles. Miss Reisinger wore a pink taffeta frock. Sharon and Karen Greeninger, nieces of the bridegroom, also wore pink taffeta dresses. Small Charles Wisdom, nephew of the bride, carried the rings.

Mr. Jennings gave his daughter in marriage and Lauren D. Hardy was best man for Mr. Reisinger. Ray Greeninger, Norwalk, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and Sam W. Jennings, the bride's brother, were ushers.

For the reception, Mrs. Robert Cunningham, Miss Loretta Ayers and Miss Linda Wicker poured punch and coffee. Miss Jerilyn Smith took charge of the guest book and Miss Roxi Windscheffel was at the gift table. Mrs. Everett Huffman, Medford, and Mrs. Norene Manzer, Eugene, twin aunts of the bridegroom, cut the wedding cake.

Reception decorations were of gladioli in a variety of colors and the handmade white candles were decorated with pearls.

For the wedding and reception the bride's mother wore a gown of raspberry pink with corsage of white carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of light blue and her flowers were also carnations.

Mr. Reisinger and his bride spent their honeymoon in central Oregon, the bride wearing for traveling an aquamarine blue and grey plaid suit with black accessories. The bride is a graduate of Medford High school with the class of 1958 and is employed by Pacific Northwest Telephone company as an operator. The newlyweds are at home at 619 1/2 Palm street. The bridegroom was graduated from Medford High school in 1958 and is employed by Donald M. Drake company, contractors for the Rogue Valley manor.

Jake E. Whitlatch, Central Point, grandfather of the bride, was among the wedding guests.

Preceding the wedding, the bride was honored at three showers. One was given by the Misses Jerilyn Smith and Nancy Becken, another by the Misses Linda Wicker and Loretta Ayres, and the third by Mrs. Everett Huffman, aunt of the bridegroom, and the bridegroom's mother.

Charter Members To Be Honored

The Woman's Society of Christian Service will honor charter members at a meeting September 27 at First Methodist church. All charter members are especially invited to attend.

A prayer group will open the meeting at 9:30 a.m., followed at 10 a.m. by the business meeting with Mrs. Milton Snow presiding.

Mrs. Charles Adamson, program leader, will show slides and Mrs. Harry Meyers, Mrs. Glen Dusen and Mrs. Omar Bacon will represent older, younger and new members of the Woman's Society in a panel discussion reviewing the present day challenge to Christian women's groups.

Mrs. W. R. Peabody will present the worship service. Circle 6, with Mrs. Kenneth Blair as chairman, will serve luncheon at 12:15 p.m. Child care will be provided in the church nursery through out the meeting.

Members are asked to bring to this meeting an "attic treasure" and a package decorated for the Christmas Gift Festival.

Medford Junior Women Announce Calendar Sale

The 1960-61 appointment and social calendar prepared each year by the Medford Junior Women's club will be available September 29. General chairman for the calendar preparation is Mrs. James A. Wells; advertising, Mrs. Eugene W. Ingram; calling committee, Mrs. Robert J. Hercher; publishing, Mrs. J. W. Grigsby; sales, Mrs. F. D. Nelson; promotion, Mrs. Robert L. Haworth.

Those desiring sales information may call Mrs. Nelson, telephone SPring 3-3577. The calendar sales provide support to the clothing pool, civic and philanthropic project of the club. The pool was originated by the group in the fall of 1959 to provide school children with necessary wearing apparel. The pool is housed in the Lincoln Elementary school and recently has been assigned larger quarters. Work on the new location was done by the husbands of club members and school officials have been most cooperative in aiding the program, it is stated.

Mrs. Martha Donohue, school district nurse, distributes the clothing at the Lincoln school dispensary. Persons wishing to donate clothing may contact Mrs. Wayne M. Allen, telephone SPring 3-5092. The clothing is picked up, sorted, repaired and displayed in attractive condition by club members.
