

Mr. and Mrs. William Curtis Backes

Miss Day Is Bride Of Navy Man

Miss Ruth Marie Day, 1025 Court street, became the bride of William Curtis Backes, 308 East California street, Jacksonville, in a ceremony at West Main Church of Christ September 3. The Rev. Rosse V. Long officiated at the 7:30 o'clock ceremony attended by more than 60 relatives and friends.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Wallena Day, 1025 Court street, Medford, and Grant Day, Central Point. Mr. Backes is a son of Mrs. Ruth Lathranger, Hawthorne, Calif., and Arthur Backes, 308 East California street, Jacksonville. White and purple gladioli decorated the church for the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length dress of Alencon lace over taffeta. The sweetheart neckline was embroidered with pearls and sequins and the full tulle skirt had an overskirt of scalloped lace. Her fingertip length veil of silk illusion was held by a cap of lace embroidered with pearls and sequins. She carried a bouquet of white carnations encircling red roses.

Miss Mary Elin Burkhardt, Central Point, was maid of honor and Miss Teresa Thorman was bridesmaid. They wore pink and white frocks with tiered skirts and carried pink and white carnations.

Glenn Backes, Central Point, served as best man for his brother. Seating the guests were Roscoe Day, brother of the bride, and David Neet.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mrs. William Wendell Bateman, 1657 1/2 Kings highway. Mrs. Edith Pitts, Portland, grandmother of the bride, cut and served the wedding cake. Mrs. Charles Green, San Francisco, aunt of the bride, presided at the punch bowl. Miss Charlotte Green, cousin of the bride, was in charge of the guest book.

The couple traveled to southern California and visited Disneyland on their wedding trip. For traveling the bride wore a white suit with white accessories. They are making their home in San Diego where the bridegroom is an airman in the U.S. Navy. He was graduated last month from the Aviation Machinist's Mate school at the Naval Air Technical Training center, Memphis, Tenn. The bride attended Crater High school. Mr. Backes is a graduate of Jacksonville High school.

Couple Leaves For Washington

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Clark left Thursday to make their home in Raymond, Wash., after visiting here with Mr. Clark's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Clark, 825 Park street.

The young couple was married in July at Roseburg. She is the former Donna Schulze, Roseburg. He recently returned from the Mortimer L. Schiff Scout reservation, Mendham, N. J., where he completed a six-week course in professional scouting.

The young man will serve as district Scout executive in Raymond and surrounding area. He was graduated from Southern Oregon college last June and had worked at Lake of the Woods Scout camp for several summers.

Linda Lillian Nelson Wed To David Michael Bollweg

Central Point—The wedding of Miss Linda Lillian Nelson to David Michael Bollweg took place Saturday, September 17, in Sacred Heart Catholic church. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Nelson, route 1, box 324, Central Point, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bollweg, Clackamas, Ore.

The Rev. John Hig read the double-ring nuptial mass at 12 o'clock noon before a small number of relatives and friends. Arrangements of pink and white gladioli decorated the altar.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a traditional wedding gown of lace over satin, with fitted bodice, long sleeves and a scoop neckline accented with pearls. The skirt was bouffant, with chapel train. A crown of pearls held her fingertip veil, and she carried a white bouquet of miniature roses, carnations and an orchid.

Attendants were Miss Judith Nelson, sister of the bride, who was maid of honor, and Miss Judith Whaley and Miss Karen Wolk-Laniewski. They wore white lace gowns over taffeta, with pastel cummerbunds and matching small veiled hats. Their bouquets were of pink carnations.

Another sister of the bride, Stephanie Nelson, was flower girl. She wore a frock of white lace over taffeta, with a small white satin hat, and carried a basket of pink carnations. Michael Shaw, cousin of the bride, was ring bearer.

Donald Bollweg, Clackamas, was best man for his brother. Ushers were Jack Peterson, Gold Hill, and Roger Higgins. Bruno Pellegrini was at the organ.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Nelson wore a pale blue sheath dress with white accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore a blue lace dress with matching jacket and white accessories.

A reception was held at Girls Community club, where a buffet luncheon was served to about 30 guests. Pink and white asters decorated the tables.

Mrs. Malvin G. Leverette, Santa Maria, Calif., the bride's maternal grandmother, cut the wedding cake. Mrs. Walker Shaw, Phoenix, was at the punch bowl. Miss Judy Wolk-Laniewski were at the gift table and Miss Judy Nelson was in charge of the guest book.

The young couple traveled to Phoenix, Ariz., on their honeymoon and the bridegroom will attend electronics school there. Both the bride and bridegroom attended Crater High school.

Coming from out-of-town for the wedding, in addition to those taking part in the ceremony and reception, were the bride's grandfather, Malvin G. Leverette, Santa Maria, Calif.; her uncle, Walter Shaw, Phoenix; Mrs. Brower and daughter, Diane, Ashland; and the bridegroom's parents and his brother, Joseph Bollweg Jr., all of Clackamas.

Patricia Greb, Richard Davis Wed in Arcata

Central Point—Mrs. Aletha Gertrude Greb, 737 Laurel street, announces the marriage of her daughter, Patricia Ann, to Richard E. Davis, Arcata, Calif. Their wedding was an event of Saturday, September 17, in the Arcata Presbyterian church.

The bride, a graduate of Medford Senior High school, attended Southern Oregon college and is teaching in Eureka, Calif. The bridegroom attended Michigan schools and is employed by the United States government at Arcata airport.

The newlyweds are making their home in Arcata. Among those attending the wedding were Mrs. Greb and the bride's sister, Mrs. Ellis Feinstein, Medford.

To Dedicate Rose Garden

Jacksonville — Dedication ceremonies will be held at 3 o'clock this afternoon at the Jacksonville Old Rose Garden, across the street from the Jacksonville museum.

Speaker for the occasion will be Mrs. Daniel Heffner, Portland, Pacific Northwest director of the American Rose Society.

It is believed that the garden is the first in the United States devoted exclusively to old fashioned roses.

The public is invited to the dedication.
