

Queens and past queens of several Bethels, International Order of Job's Daughters, were in Medford last Sunday for installation of a new Bethel for the city, and conducted installation of the charter officers. Among those participating were (left to right) Miss Karen Johnson, queen, Bethel 13, Grants Pass; Miss Betty McDonald, queen of the

Shady Cove Bethel Has Official Visit

Shady Cove-Trail - Mrs. Ralph Nelson, Portland, grand guardian, made her official visit to Shady Cove Bethel, International Order of Job's Daughters, September 15 at the Veterans of Foreign Wars hall, Shady Cove.

Three candidates were initiated into the Bethel during the evening. They were Dawn Cherie Oliver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Oliver; Donna Weitman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Weitman; and Shirley Minor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Minor, all Shady Cove.

Also attending the session was L. R. Manning, Medford, associate grand guardian.

Escorted and introduced were Mrs. Nelson, Mr. Manning, Miss Susanne Rogers, junior past honored queen; Miss Susan Eastin, grand representative to Arizona; Mrs. Harold Gordon, Medford, grand chaplain; and Mrs. W. K. Sult, Medford, vice grand guardian. Also a group of Bethel officers and officers of other Masonic groups who attended.

Installed as members of the guardian council were Mrs. Rick Eastin, guardian; Mr. Minor, associate guardian; Mrs. Weitman, secretary; Mrs. Frank Sheppard, treasurer; Mrs. Dale Ackerman, music; Mrs. Arthur Hume, sociability; Mrs. Walter Blackman and Mrs. Minor, paraphernalia; Mrs. Carroll Watson, publicity; Mrs. Rafe Anderson, finance; Mrs. Heidi Frost and Mrs. Russell Stelle, hospitality; Mrs. Jack Schauble, epochs; Mrs. Max Hawks, philanthropy and good will; and Wyles Berry, fraternal relations.

The installing officers were headed by Mrs. Nelson and Mr. Manning.

Gifts were presented and an addendum was held following the meeting. Refreshments were served.

Prior to the evening's ceremony a potluck dinner was held.

Symphony Choir Accepts Singer

Mrs. Peter Koegel (nee Kathleen Barr) has been accepted into membership in the Portland Symphony choir, valley friends learned last week.

Mrs. Koegel, a graduate of Medford High school class of 1938, is a lyric soprano and was a student of Mrs. Effie Kurtz in Medford. She is a daughter of Mrs. Patsy Marble, Portland, and granddaughter of Mrs. Ernest J. Smith, 6 Newtown street, Medford.

The Portland choir in conjunction with the Portland Symphony orchestra presents several concerts during the winter season. In Portland Mrs. Koegel is a pupil of Mrs. Dagny Gustafson. She was accepted into membership following an audition September 11 in Portland.

Daughters of Job Honor State Officers at Event

Two Bethels of the International Order of Job's Daughters, 14 and 55, joined to give a state-wide reception in honor of four officers of the order in the Oregon state organization. It was held Saturday, September 17, in the Medford Masonic temple and honored were L. R. Manning, associate grand guardian; Mrs. Harold Gordon, grand chaplain, and the Misses Vickie Ann Ingram and Laurie Beth Buonocore, grand Bethel representatives. All are of Medford.

Guests were welcomed by Honored Queen Carla Borrough of Bethel 14, who introduced the four honored guests. From Portland came two past grand guardians, Mrs. Carl Ehler and Mrs. Ernest Yeo; and three past associate grand guardians, Carl Ehler, Leroy Farmer and A. E. Stevens. Mr. Ehler also serves as supreme inner guard.

Other grand officers included Mrs. Ralph Nelson, Portland, grand guardian; Mrs. Kenneth Gildner, grand marshal; Mrs. William Harris, grand librarian; Mrs. S. Hogg, grand musician, all of Portland area, and Mrs. W. K. Sult, Medford, vice grand guardian.

The grand Bethel honored queen, Miss Jean Isaacson, Gladstone, and her mother were introduced. She is from Bethel 57. Also honored were Mrs. Ralph Thomas, Morris Boughner, Medford, worthy grand patron, Order of the Eastern Star; Mrs. Roy V. Nordwick, worthy matron, Reames chapter, OES; John Eddy, worshipful master of Medford Masonic lodge, and Ross Gilkison.

Honored queens, Miss Betty McDonald, Bethel 22, Ashland; Miss Beverly Sowell, Bethel 36, and Miss Sandra Smith, Bethel U.D., Portland, were presented. Two supreme representatives, Miss Pat Harris and Miss Susan Gildner, were also present.

Salad Making Tips Given in Bulletin

Corvallis - A master salad maker in every Oregon home is the theme of a new Oregon State college extension circular "Adventures in Salad Making."

The new bulletin is for cooks who want to use imagination in creating easy new salad combinations from ingredients already on the pantry or refrigerator shelf.

Many tricks of the trade have been listed by author Mrs. Ruth Klippstein, OSC extension nutritionist. For example, pierce the big end of an egg shell before hard-cooking to reduce cracking. Suggestions for handling greens so they reach the table fresh and crisp are also listed. Recipes for blue cheese, low calorie and low cost dressings fill the last three pages of the bulletin. It is punched for easy insertion into looseleaf cookbooks. Copies are available at county extension offices.

Luncheon Held By Auxiliary In Jacksonville

Jacksonville - The Jacksonville Lions auxiliary met for luncheon last week at the home of Mrs. John Keavney, Heumers lane, following a summer vacation from club activities. Guests included Mrs. Frank Christian, Talent auxiliary member and state Lions auxiliary president; Mrs. Edward Stevens, Phoenix auxiliary and state secretary; and Mrs. Merle Blair, Medford.

A report was given on the recent district workshop which was held at Rogue River. The auxiliary is working toward a junior high school age entertainment program. A program is planned for twice a month, on Fridays from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m., depending on the availability of the community hall.

A nominal fee will be charged for admission and a refreshment bar is planned to help defray expenses of hall accommodations. Auxiliary members will act as chaperones. Any local junior high age boy or girl interested in the program is invited to contact any auxiliary member for further information. The programs will be announced to the public. The auxiliary will meet the first and third Mondays of each month, except in July and August. Social programs are on the first Mondays and meetings are held in members' homes.

Planning committee members for the event included the honored queens of Bethels 14 and 55, the Misses Carla Borrough and Teresa Six, Bethel guardians, Mrs. C. D. Elhart and Mrs. Charles Turner, and Mrs. Raymond Reter.

Fall Schedule For Center Now Available

The Senior Activity center, 601 E. Jackson street, will start this week's schedule with the showing of colored slides of Mexico for the Arm Chair Travel group. The slides, both of the interior and the larger cities, will be shown by Mrs. Edwin Gebhar at 1 p.m. Monday, September 26.

The slides will be a re-showing on request, because so many of the group missed the meeting during the hot weather when Mexico pictures were featured.

The newly organized beginner's Spanish class will hold its second session Monday at 7:30 p.m. with Mrs. Victor Birdseye as teacher. Sixteen entered the class last week. Books will be available for additional members even if they register late, it was announced. This is the first evening class tried at the Center.

A request for lessons in Italian was received by the committee and will be considered.

The fall schedules are now available at the Center. The schedule includes in addition to the two Monday classes mentioned, the Tuesday oil painting session from 1 to 4 p.m. taught by Mrs. Victoria Staley; Wednesdays, drama, 10 a.m. to noon, and woodcarving (to start October 5), taught by Glenn Van Winkle; Thursdays, 10 a.m. to noon, conservation Spanish with Mrs. Charles Furnas, instructor, and 1 to 3 p.m., orchestra, Edward Root, teacher.

Fridays the Center is closed with the weekly social meetings of Medford Fifty Plus club held at the St. Mark's Episcopal church, guild hall, Fifth st. and Oakdale avenue. Shuffleboard playing starts at the Center Saturdays at 10 a.m. under the direction of William Jones.

Newcomers to the valley are welcome at the Senior Center which exists for the benefit of men and women over 50 years of age who wish to develop new skills or hobbies, games, music, drama, use of the 500 book library, or just visit with their contemporaries.

Classes and activities will be offered by the committee

Freezing Advice
New York - Pre-packaged self-service fresh meats can be frozen in the original storage package for one to two weeks, says the American Meat Institute. Before freezing, check the wrapping film and board or package tray to make sure there are no breaks. Keep the meat at zero degrees or lower.

To combine beaten egg whites with other mixtures, fold—don't stir—using a light under-and-over motion.

on request to use the Center. Run by volunteers, it is open only when activities are in progress.
