Change in Divorce Law Recommended

Gearhart – (UPI) – In the final business session of the Oregon State Bar convention here Saturday, the bar voted to recommend amending Oregon laws to eliminate the six-month waiting period following divorce.

The bar stipulated, however, that both parties should be prohibited from remarrying during the appeal period.

The 26th annual convention also approved recommendation from criminal law and procedure committees recommending that Oregon laws be amended to authorize five members of the jury in justice and district courts to render verdicts of guilty or not guilty.

Earlier the board of governors elected Dean F. Bryson, Portland, as president of the bar for the coming year.

Pilot Killed In Nevada Air Crash

Wells, Nev. – (UPI) – One man was killed and three persons were hurt Saturday when their light plane crashed at the Wells airport.

The victim was the pilot, Dirk Aujewierden, Salt Lake City.

The others were rushed to Elko General hospital. Their names and extent of injuries were not known immediately.

Witnesses said the single-engine Beechcraft apparently had a power failure as Aujewierden, who sometimes shortened his name to Wierden, approached the runway. He was dead on arrival at Elko.

HOFFA SETS VISIT

Portland – (UPI) – James Hoffa is scheduled to visit Portland Sept. 30. It will be his first visit here since becoming president of the Teamsters Union.

EMPLOYMENT HIGH

Salem – (UPI) – The Oregon Employment department said 735,600 people were working in the state in mid-August, an all-time high. The previous high was in June when the total was 733,600.

NEW DeSOTO — The 1961 DeSoto emphasizes quality, and there are some new developments under the hood. The engine operates on regular gasoline with undiminished performance, according to the company. In styling, DeSoto has maintained the streamlined look of motion with sweeping fins, and all models will be two and four door hardtops. Local dealer for the DeSoto is the Dick Knight company, Medford.

COMPLETE LINE — The Valiant offers a more complete line of body styles for 1961 in the low-price, compact car class, in anticipation of even greater buyer demand for the most economical American - built cars. The 1961 Valiant has been improved in several ways for operating economy, durability, performance and smoothness of ride. It offers air conditioning for the first time as a dealer-installed option. The Valiant dealers in this area are the Hamlin Motor company and the Dick Knight company, both Medford.

TAP CHAIRMAN – Kathy Pennington, above, 17-year-old Beaverton high school student, has been named Oregon chairman of the National Foundation's Teen-Age Program. The Foundation's New March of Dimes program includes birth defects, rheumatoid arthritis and polio.

Senator Blasts Demo Candidates

Salem – (UPI) – State Rep. Robert White (R-Salem) said Saturday three staff members of legislative interim committees who became candidates for the Oregon Legislature should resign their positions immediately.

White added he felt a law should be passed prohibiting such candidacies in the future.

He named the three as Herbert S. Miller of the criminal law committee, Marion county, and Richard Eymann of the tax committee and James Weaver of the agriculture committee, both of Lane county.

White said that with deadlines for committee reports nearing "these well paid executives . . . are devoting their time to partisan political campaigning."

Salvation Army Slates Speakers

Major and Mrs. James Watt, Portland, divisional public relations secretary and League of Mercy secretary, respectively, for the Oregon and Southern Idaho division of the Salvation Army, will speak today at the Salvation Army, Fourth and Bartlett sts.

Rally day will be held during the 9:45 a.m. Sunday school.

Major Watt will speak at the 11 a.m. worship service and Mrs. Watt will attend a luncheon meeting of the League of Mercy visitors at the Camp White Domiciliary dining room.

At 6 p.m. Mrs. Watt will conduct the program for the Young People's Legion group. It will be followed by an open air station and the evening Salvation meeting.

The public is invited to attend the meeting at the hall.

Rabies Detected In KF Area Bat

Portland – (UPI) – The state board of health announced Friday detection of the second case of rabies in a bat from the Klamath Falls area.

No humans are known to have been bitten by the second bat, although a Montana woman visiting Klamath Falls was bitten by the first animal.

State Epidemiologist Grant Skinner emphasized that detection of rabies in the two bats "should not cause alarm," but he warned people not to try to pick up any of the animals showing signs of illness. He urged that people promptly call the county or district health department.

The new railway station at Johannesburg, South Africa, which cost $28 million and took four years to build, opened in April, 1960.
