New York—UPI—Syracuse, picking up where it left off last year, gained a narrow lead over Mississippi today in the first weekly major college football ratings of the United Press International Board of Coaches.

The defending national champions from upstate New York, who opened their season with a 35-7 victory over Boston University last Saturday, totaled 326 points to 311 for Ole Miss.

Mississippi, with two easy victories under its belt, garnered more first place votes than Syracuse. The Rebels were the No. 1 pick of 16 of the 35 coaches while the Orangemen had 14 first place votes. Syracuse, however, took the early season lead by outpolling Ole Miss, 19-12, in second place balloting.

Washington, the defending Rose Bowl champion, was third with three first place votes and a total of 233 points. Illinois followed with 163 points and Arkansas was fifth with 134.

Other Five
Northwestern, a 19-3 victor over once-mighty Oklahoma in its opener last weekend, was sixth with one first place vote and 130 points. Rounding out the top 10 in order were Ohio State (67), Iowa (61), Georgia Tech (52) and Clemson (48).

A total of 32 teams received votes in the season's first balloting but Syracuse and Mississippi were the only teams named on all 35 ballots. The points are distributed on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis for votes from first through 10th places.

The first three leaders capped their 1959 seasons with bowl victories and look equally as strong this year. Syracuse whipped Texas in the Cotton Bowl last New Year's Day. Ole Miss downed former champion LSU in the Sugar Bowl, and Washington upset Wisconsin in the Rose Bowl.

Huskies Impressive
Washington, like Mississippi, has won its first two games in impressive fashion. The Huskies opened with a 55-6 triumph over College of Pacific and then clobbered Idaho, 41-12. Ole Miss turned back Kentucky, 21-6 last Saturday after swamping Houston, 42-0.

The opening ratings also indicate good strength in the Big Ten conference with Illinois, Northwestern, Iowa and Ohio State occupying berths among the top 10.

Tennessee headed the second 10 group and was followed in order by Minnesota, Michigan State, Alabama, Texas, UCLA, Arkansas, Navy, Notre Dame, Michigan, and Missouri.

Syracuse faces a major test next Saturday when it meets fifth-ranked Kansas in a nationally televised game. Another major clash involving members of the top 10 pits sixth-ranked Northwestern against eighth-ranked Iowa.

Dry Pellet Fish Food Pays Off At Hatcheries

Portland—A recent report of the game commission's fishery division has somewhat disproved the old adage that you get just what you pay for. At the game commission's Oak Springs hatchery on the Deschutes river, records kept by Andy Smith, hatchery superintendent, on a certain lot of cutthroat trout pointed out some surprising facts. According to Smith, this lot of young trout started out weighing 26 pounds when they were put on dry pellet food. When released as fingerlings, the fish had increased to a poundage of 328 pounds for an overall gain of 302 pounds.

Now this in itself is not particularly startling, but the records kept on the food supplied these fish showed that to produce this 300 pounds of trout only 279 pounds of food were used.

9 to 1 Ratio
This is expressed as a conversion ratio of 9 pounds of food to produce 1 pound of fish. Less than 10 years ago, using the soft, ground diet, the normal conversion ratio was about 5 to 10, wherein it took 5 to 10 pounds of food to produce 1 pound of fish.

Of course, the low conversion ratio by the use of pellet feeds can only be attained in fingerling size fish. When the trout are held until they are legal sized before release, the ratio is considerably higher at around 2 pounds of food per pound of fish.

Chris Jensen, chief of the game commission's hatchery production, said that the use of dry pellets in feeding has been the major reason for the increased efficiency in producing fish.

CROWD CHEERS—Pittsburgh Pirate Manager Danny Murtaugh and his wife are shown waving to an exuberant crowd as they pass a reviewing stand in Pittsburgh's Golden Triangle Sunday. Partisan crowds cheered Murtaugh and the Pirate team during a giant torchlight parade, held to welcome home the 1960 National league champions. The Pirates are celebrating their first pennant victory since 1927.—(UPI Telephoto)

Saxons of South Salem Next Rival for Medford

It's strictly non-league football activity this Friday for all five high schools of the Class A-1 Southern Oregon conference, although two members of the loop will meet each other.

Only counting contention among teams in prep leagues of this area is in the Class A-2 Rogue loop. Winner in one of those games will be favored to go on to the crown.

A-1 program will have Medford as host to the South Salem Saxons, Crater as entertainer of Ashland, Klamath Falls at home to Eureka, Calif., and Grants Pass going to Crescent City, Calif., to meet Del Norte High.

Ashland, which plucked Klamath Falls clean in a conference skirmish last Friday, will aim only to boost its prestige this week at Central Point. It's league brush with the Comets won't be until Nov. 4. This is the second year the Grizzlies have slated two games with Crater.

OSC, Oregon Land Prep Grid Stars

United Press International
Oregon State landed basketball star Mel Counts of Marshfield and Oregon got football ace Mel Renfro of Jefferson among freshman athletes enrolling at the two schools.

Counts, 6-11, is considered one of the best big men ever to play prep basketball in Oregon. Renfro was rated as one of the best prep backs in Portland in recent years.

Among the other athletes enrolled at Oregon State were football players Mike Wyborney and Herb Washburn of Jefferson, Rick Nelson of South Salem, Dick Fulwiler of Vale, Bruce Rideinger of Albany and Kent Waggener of Coquille.

Benner to OSC
Oregon State got basketball ace Lynn Baxter of Roseburg, Rex Benner of Grants Pass, Stan Harkey of Longview and Jim McKillop of Silverton.

Oregon got football players Gordon Pathmann and Lowell and Calvin Dean of Medford, Buck Corey of La Grande, Clyde Hendrickson of Coos Bay, Larry Hill of Astoria and Bill Youngmeyer of North Bend, among others.

The Webfoots also landed basketball aces Jerry Anderson of Medford, Ken Berg of Beaverton, Paul Bishop of Klamath Falls, Jay Brock of South Salem, George Hawes of Bend, Sandy Noller of South Eugene and Jerry Riley of Porterville, among others.

Hudson Cup Tourney Set For Tualatin
Portland—UPI—The Northwest 10 ranking professionals go up against 10 amateur golfers Saturday and Sunday in the annual Hudson Cup competition at the Tualatin country club.

The pros currently lead in the series, 8 to 2. There has been one tie.

Crater's Harriers Practicing

Central Point-Crater high's cross-country team is slated to open its season on Tuesday, Oct. 4, in a meet against Douglas high of Winston.

Coach Ed Knapp, whose 1959 harriers swept through 10 meets unmarred, for top honors in southern Oregon, has seven lettermen on his squad.

The returnees are Dennis Fisher, Bob Garrison, Nathan Olson, Jim Hogue, Mike Swanson and Gary Barber. Barber has missed workouts because of an infected throat.

Women's Golf

Rogue Valley Country club lady golfers play for Sept. 22 was on the board of directors trophies. Mrs. T. A. Culbertson was winner of the trophy in the 18-hole group after playing off a three-way tie with Mrs. Lloyd Brooks and Mrs. Galen Sanner. Mrs. Dorothy Dowson won the trophy in the nine-hole group.

Group winners for medal play were: A group, Mrs. Lloyd Brooks; B group, Mrs. Kenneth Teeter; C group, Mrs. Galen Sanner; D group, Mrs. L. T. Anderson; and 9-hole group, Mrs. Dorothy Dowson.

Medford Tops EP Eleven In Junior Varsity Fray

Medford High, manufacturing touchdowns the first four times it got possession of the ball, defeated Eagle Point 34 to 6 here last night in a junior varsity football conflict.

The junior Tornado tallied on its second scrimmage play of the tussle with Frank Van Pelt slipping over the left side of the line and running 32 yards to the end zone. On the fifth Medford scrimmage try Dan Miles hurried the ball to

Beavers Shorthanded In Game With Iowa

Corvallis—UPI—Oregon State isn't blaming its loss to Iowa on it, but the Beavers had only 10 men on the field in two plays against the Hawkeyes last Saturday.

Don Kasso, who plays mostly on offense, came out of the game when Oregon State failed to recover its inside kick after its third period touchdown. Iowa made 32 yards in two plays before the gap was filled.

OSC Statistics Led by Baker

Corvallis—UPI—Terry Baker, the sophomore southpaw who has been alternating at tailback with Don Kasso, leads Oregon State in individual offensive statistics after two games.

Baker has gained 149 yards passing and 96 on the ground for 245 yards. He also has punted twice for a 47.5 yard average.

Kasso had carried the ball 124 yards for a 4.9 yard average, and also has scored twice.

Art Gilmore leads in pass receiving with 54 yards on three catches.

Huskies Prepare For Navy Test

Seattle—UPI—Two undefeated pigskin eleven's face off against each other here Saturday. They are Washington and Navy.

Monday, the Huskies got a long look at the Midwestern offensive formations in a routine practice session. But for the rest of the week, coach Jim Owens is expected to take his purple and gold chargers behind closed doors to work out.

Gilmore Said Player of Week

Portland—UPI—Art Gilmore, wingback who saw 50 minutes of action for Oregon State against Iowa last Saturday, was named by the Linebackers club today as Oregon's college football player of the week.

Runners-up included backs Bob Light and Dennis McCaron of Pacific, Terry Baker of OSC and Bill Parrish of Linfield.

In other business the group named Harold De Vos as publicity chairman and accepted a sign that was donated to them by the Pepsi-Cola Bottling company, Medford. The sign will be erected at the Academy's new quarters on Fourth st., in Phoenix.

Trojans Resume Contact Work
Los Angeles—UPI—Southern California's Trojans returned to contact work today with Bob Levington replacing Lynn Gaskill at the starting right halfback position.

Coach John McKay made the move Monday as the Trojans, preparing for their Saturday meeting with Big Ten power Ohio State, drilled lightly in sweat suits.

yards for Medford. A Lowery to Eric Koellner pass got 31 yards and put the ball on the five, from which point on the next play, Lowery went over the goal.
