

Washington Among Favorites For Conflicts This Saturday

New York —UPI— Syracuse's defending national college football champions, Notre Dame, Northwestern, Washington and Pittsburgh all were established as favorites today for Saturday's leading games.

Syracuse, ranked No. 1 in the first weekly ratings of the United Press International Board of Coaches, was made a solid 8-point pick over Kansas in their big intersectional game which will be televised nationally.

Notre Dame was picked by a slim two points in its game against Purdue, Northwestern was made a four-point favorite over Iowa in their Big Ten game at Evanston despite the absence of star Dick Thorn.

Washington ruled a 10-point favorite over Navy and Pitt was a risky one-point pick over Oklahoma.

Three "pick - em" even games were listed by the odds-makers. They are Auburn-Kentucky, Nebraska - Iowa State and Louisiana State-Baylor. Miami (Fla.) was favored by three points over North Carolina in Friday night's leading game.

Army Choice
In other games of more than passing interest, Army was made a six-point pick over California, Ohio State was picked by 11 over Southern California, Penn State by four over Missouri and Rice by three over Tulane.

Here are the point-spreads on other leading games Saturday:

East - Penn 7 over Dartmouth; Boston University 1 over Holy Cross, Yale 17 over Brown.
