Billy Graham Ignores Demand To Leave Area

Berlin—(UPI)—The Russians, in a new move to isolate West Berlin, announced today they will refuse to accept the West German passports of West Berliners in issuing visas for travel to the Soviet Union.

The announcement was made by the Russian Embassy shortly after East German Communists, bolstered by the support of their Berlin travel restriction, demanded that evangelist Billy Graham fold his tent and depart from the city's Iron Curtain border area.

Demand Ignored

The American evangelist ignored the Communist demand that Graham's two-acre tent just over the East Berlin border be taken down. Hundreds of East Berliners have been crossing the border to attend Graham's meetings in defiance of Red police efforts to stop them.

A spokesman for the West Berlin Senate dismissed the Communist demand as "ridiculous." A spokesman for Graham said "I am sure it won't even be considered."

Today's Soviet Embassy statement, reported by an East German news agency, ADN, said:

"Passports issued by the Federal Republic (West Germany) will in the future not be recognized as documents for the travel of West Berlin residents in the Soviet Union."

It said the new rule went into effect Sept. 15.

Protest Rejected

The Soviet announcement came weeks after East Germany refused to recognize the West German passports of West Berliners.

At almost the same time, the Communists began requiring West German visitors to have special visas to enter Berlin.

In another move today, the Soviet Union rejected a western allied protest over travel restrictions imposed in Berlin by the East German Communists.

National Visitors in Oregon Politics

United Press International

The pace of Oregon's political campaigning was being stepped up today by an increasing number of visitors from the national scene.

Republican National Chairman Thruston Morton spoke in Portland and Pendleton Tuesday and U.S. Attorney General William Rogers is scheduled to speak in Portland and Eugene Thursday.

Democrats plan a big fundraising dinner Sunday night in Portland at which Rep. Chester W. Bowles, (D-Conn.) will speak.

Rep. Walter Judd, (R-Minn), the keynote at the GOP national convention, is scheduled to be in Portland Saturday. And the GOP also has visits upcoming soon from Henry Cabot Lodge, the vice presidential nominee, and Labor Secretary James Mitchell who will be in the state Oct. 34. Lodge's visit has been tentatively scheduled for Oct. 6.

No schedule has been announced for a visit to Oregon by Lyndon Johnson, the Democratic vice presidential nominee.

Demos End Tour

Oregon's statewide Democratic candidates wound up a three-day tour of the coast Tuesday.

Mrs. Maurine Neuberger, nominee for the U.S. Senate, spoke today in Portland and aimed her verbal blows at what she called Republican high interest, tight money policies which she said cost Oregonians millions of dollars more for housing while hurting employment in the lumber industry.

"About 80 per cent of Oregon lumber goes for housing but high interest rates have discouraged home-building, thus depressing the market for Oregon lumber," she said.

Mrs. Neuberger said she favored a program of long-term, low-interest loans under the Federal Housing Administration and an accelerated housing program.

Elmo Smith, Mrs. Neuberger's Republican rival, also spoke on housing in a talk at Lebanon Tuesday.

He said if elected he would do something specific about needs for new homes and stabilization of Oregon's lumber industry by supporting legislation designed to ease the money market for housing.

Smith said America's housing was the key to Oregon's prosperity.

The battle for secretary of state warmed up again with Howell Appling Jr., the incumbent, taking a verbal swing at Democratic candidate Monroe Sweetland in a Portland Rotary Club speech Tuesday.

Appling said that if Sweetland had had his way in the 1957 special session of the Oregon Legislature the average working man's tax bill would be 23 per cent higher today. He said Sweetland tried to initiate legislation which would have raised taxes despite the fact that the special session was called to reduce taxes because of a surplus in the treasury.

Sweetland, speaking Tuesday night in Roseburg, called for improved and expanded re-education and training programs in Oregon's state hospitals and corrective institutions.

He said expenditures along this line were "sound" and could vastly reduce the cost of disability and crime. He said inmates released from Oregon's correctional institutions have a good record for staying out of trouble but that the number of "repeats" could be reduced even further.

Quoting the Candidates

By United Press International

Vice President Richard M. Nixon:

(In Memphis, Tenn.): A presidential candidate "has a responsibility to talk about civil rights the same way in the North, South, East and West. I regret that my opponent since his nomination has not done this . . .

"Don't believe this chatter and nonsense that America is not strong."

(In Charleston, W.Va.): "In the interest of the country, Kennedy should correct his false statement to the effect that 17 million people go to bed hungry every night in the United States . . .

"This statement has been grist for the Communist propaganda mill. Just last week the Chinese Communist paper 'The People's Daily' cited it as proof of the fact that in America, a land of plenty, millions of people are starving. The senator cannot remain silent on this issue."

The people of the United States "are the best fed, best clothed, best housed people in the world."

"This $13 to $18 billion needed to finance the Democratic platform isn't Jack's money, it's yours."

and federal government — can build the dams and highways and schools on which the strength of our free enterprise economy depends."

(In Mansfield, Ohio): "I don't think there has been any presidential election when the issues have been so serious . . .

"I don't want these years known later to historians as the years when the balance of power turned against the United States."

Stock Prices Turn Higher Following Cautious Opening

New York—(UPI)—Stocks rose on a groundswell of buying before noon today, following a somewhat cautious opening.

Electronics turned the tide with gains of nearly 4 in International Business Machines, more than 3 in Texas Instruments, around 2 in Motorola and around 1 1/2 in Zenith. Support spread thereafter to other sections of the list.

Steels inched higher with gains of a half or more in U.S. Steel, Youngstown, Republic and Bethlehem. Superior of California, a high-priced oil, spurted around 10. Autos and railroads firming tendencies after a dull opening.

DOW-JONES AVERAGES

New York—(UPI)—Dow Jones final stock averages: 30 industrial 374.91, off 2.33; 20 railroads 125.62, off 1.17; 15 utilities 81.70, off 0.87, and 85 stocks 192.41, off 1.17. Sales Tuesday were about 3.15 million shares compared with 3.93 million shares Monday.

Sen. John F. Kennedy:

(In Canton, Ohio): "We cannot meet that commitment (to defend freedom) with idle plants and idle men. We cannot meet it with a stalled economy. We cannot meet it by looking to past achievements rather than to the urgent need of the future."

If elected Kennedy would appoint a "Committee on National Economic Goals," consisting of leaders of labor, management, education and research, to find the best way to take advantage of "the untapped capacity of our free enterprise system in a great national effort to revitalize our strength to all Americans . . .

"Only the government — the combined effort of local, state

Polio Shot Clinics Scheduled in Area

The last series of clinics to provide polio shots for Jackson county residents will be held Saturday afternoon, Oct. 8, according to H. E. Haydal, committee chairman for the Medford Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The exact times for the clinics will be announced later. They are scheduled at Shady Cove, Central Point, Rogue River, Medford, Jacksonville, Eagle Point and Talent.

Charges will be $1 per shot with a maximum of $3 per family, Haydal explained. Those who cannot afford the fees will receive the inoculations free. Sponsoring the clinic will be the Medford, Central Point and Eagle Point Junior Chamber of Commerce with the help of the Jackson County Medical Society and the Jackson County Health department.

Relief Program Working Well

The county's work relief program for welfare recipients seems to be working well with a few men, and will probably take in more after the fruit harvest season ends this month, according to James Pullman, Jackson county public welfare administrator.

Twenty-five men have been referred to the program since it started Aug. 1. Five were working Friday and six Monday. All able-bodied men receiving general assistance from the welfare department are required to work in the program. The welfare department provides the money which the county pays on an hourly basis. In other words, instead of receiving flat grants from the welfare department the men are required to work it out.

"This program is useful in three ways," Pullman said. "Those who cannot meet the requirements of a competitive labor market can work. It provides useful projects for the men to work out the assistance given. And it eliminates assistance funds to those people who refuse to work."

Biggest problem with the work relief program is that while the men are working 40-hour weeks for the county they find it difficult to look for jobs which might provide them steady private employment. However, the program seems to be providing recipients into finding regular work. The longest any one person has worked for the county is nine days, the welfare administrator said.

SCREEN THE CALLERS

Concord, N.H.—(UPI)—Doves may be the symbol of peace to the poets — but to the politician they are a mere nuisance. While discussing improvements to be made on the Concord City Hall, Alderman William A. Stevens said, "And while you're at it, you might get screens. Even the doves are coming in."

DAZED BY DOG

Henderson, Tenn.—(UPI)—Freed E. Ellis thinks his dog "Snowball" is psychic. The 62-year-old Ellis, a widower, explained it thus: "When he's lying here on the floor and I get up to go out, he will continue to lie if I am just going into the yard and am coming right back. But if I am going to leave the place in the truck, or am going to walk over to my little farm, he will get up and leave the room with me."

In the same way that STERLING on silver signifies a standard of known value, so is the A.B.C. emblem a symbol of integrity for the circulation of newspapers and periodicals. It means that circulation so identified is measured according to the rules and standards of the AUDIT BUREAU OF CIRCULATIONS.

The A.B.C. is a cooperative and non-profit association of 3,450 publishers, advertisers and advertising agencies. Organized in 1914, these buyers and sellers of advertising brought order out of advertising chaos by setting up standards for paid circulation and establishing rules and methods for measuring, auditing and reporting circulations.

Therefore, the work of the A.B.C., of which this newspaper is proud to be a member, provides you with a direct and valuable service. You can buy advertising as you would make any other sound business investment — on the basis of well known standards, known values.

At regular intervals one of the Bureau's large staff of experienced circulation auditors makes a thorough audit of our circulation records. The results of this exacting audit show: How much circulation we have; where our circulation goes; how it was obtained; and many other facts that you need in order to know just what you get for your advertising dollars. This audited information is published by the Bureau in easy-to-read A.B.C. reports which are available to our advertisers on request. Ask for a copy of our latest A.B.C. report.
