

KEGLERS KALL

By DARLENE TOPE

Sunday evening Mixed league at the Medford Bowling lanes has chosen Andy's Mixed for its name. It got off to an enthusiastic start the second week of bowling with several high games, rolled by Jack Monroe of the Eight Balls with 221, Bud Fisher of the Sleepers with 208 and Jim Pettigrew with 202 and 200. Bill Hall of the Creepers had a 201 game and also high series for the men with a 597. The women were right in their bowling nice scores too, Edith Tuttle of the Creepers had a high game of 191 and high series of 539.

NEW BOWLERS

Ladies morning leagues is really getting under way with a lot of new bowlers. The Bowling Bags of the Blue Monday league won all four points, with the Strikers and the Strikers No. 2 winning three points each. Ellen Lamb had a game of 180 and series of 460, she bowls on the Four Nameless team.

Roxy Ann Rockettes report their team standings as follows, Stevens Auto Sales out in the lead with 10 wins, closely followed by Neely-Nelson with 9, Team 11 with 8. Sully's Drive-In has 7 and is also a new sponsor. With 6 wins each are Roxy Ann Lanes, Big Y Cleaners, and Team No. 3. Following close behind are Dyke's and Crosby's each with 5, Team 12 and Nortons each with 4. On the bottom at this time is Economy market. It seems some of these teams need sponsors and anyone interested can contact the Roxy Ann Lanes. Nellie Dyke converted the 5-8-10 split. High game was 203 by Gwen Slaven, who also had high series of 538.

UNION CLUB LEADING

Union Club team is leading the Ladies Classic league at the Medford Lanes with 11 wins. Kim's has 9 wins, Jorgensen's Dairy has 8 and Valley Music and Thunderbird market 7 each. Crater Inn has 6. Picks have 5, and with 4 points are, Beck's Bakery, Eastside Market, Security Ins., and Rogue Distributing Co. At the bottom is Team No. 9. High series was rolled by Helen Clarke with a 584, second with Shirley Daigle's 578. These ladies can really knock those pins down.

HIGH SERIES 2,409

I have very little information on the Evergreen league. High team series was by Barco Supply with 2,409, high individual series by D. Swan 580, and high game of 215 by Roy Colley. These games were rolled at the Medford Bowling lanes.

Timber Wolves sponsored by Timber Products are still leading the Independent league with 17 wins, following close behind are Ideal Cement with 13½ points, Tee Pee Plywood 11½ points, Baker's Moulding 11 points, Dale's Mobil (Red Pegasus) 10 points. A new team to the league, Harry & David, also has 10 points, finishing out near the bottom are C W A with 7 and Electric Supply with 4. Table Rock Lumber and Midway Meat postponed their game so their standings are incomplete. Jack Turk of the Tee Pee Plywood team took high game scratch and handicap honors with a 205 and 237. Also of the Tee Pee Plywood team Bob Albright had high series scratch 556 with handicap 640. This league is in its third season and many of the bowlers and sponsors are the same as the first year.

CHANGES NOTED

This week finds quite a few changes in the team standings of the Roxy Rockettes league bowled at the Roxy Ann Lanes. Three teams are tied for first place, they are Medford Tire, Krupp's Flying A, and Medford House Moving all with 11 wins. The Jaycees team have 10½ wins, Haupter Tractor 10 and Snider's Dairy 9. With 8 wins are Awkward Five and Whitwood and Stone. Following next are Van Lees with 7, Royal Oaks with 5, Pools Unlimited with 3½ and bringing up at the bottom is the Rogue Valley Bank with 2. Medford Tire's bowler Wes Fowler had high series of 562 and the Royal Oaks team have J. Kennedy who rolled a 217 high game.

THURSDAY POPULAR

There seems to be a lot of interest in the morning leagues and Thursday is a real popular day to bowl. Thursday morning the Early Bird league reported that high series went to Pat Braack 514, and Rosie Phipps 506. High games were rolled by Pat Braack 220 and Shirley Weiskamp 189. Rogue Valley Construction Co. and Valley Lockers are tied with 10 points each. Tally Ho and Mechanics Laundry have 8.

Van Lees 7. With 5 points each are Enlee Electric and Team No. 1. Tied for bottom position are Medford hotel, Richfield Truck & Auto, Red Barn Auction each with 2 points. These ladies bowl at Roxy Ann Lanes.

Bowling Queen league, also at Roxy Ann Lanes, is rolling right along with Highway Ready Mix, leading with 17½ points. Port O'Call and Medford Hotel are tied for second with 15 wins. Reter Fruit with 14 and Medford Stationery with 13 closely follow the leaders. First National bank with 11½ noses out Copco's 11 by a bare one-half point. Rest of the teams are in this order, Charm Collage 9, GMAC 8, and Hilton Lumber 6. High series went to Helen Clark who rolled a 554 and Cappy Lindquist with a 537. High game honors went to Helen Cully 219 and Dell Christianson 203.

JOIN FORCES

Here's another league at Roxy Ann Lanes. The ladies and men join forces in the Ball and Chain Mixed league and bowl Thursday evening. John Dickinson of the Hot Toddlers team rolled high game of 211. Old second high series for the men with a 569. Other top honors went to David Baylor with second high game of 202 and high series of 579. He bowls on the Convicts team. Dorothy Jantzer of the Woodchoppers rolled high series for the ladies with a 473. Team standings have the Woodchoppers tied with the K-Medleys each with 11 wins. Hot Toddlers and Convicts have 9. With 6 wins are the Toppers and Chuck's Market has 5. The Pills and the Four Squirts have 5 each. Those with 4 are the Pin Pickers, Black Kats, and the Kay Meds and with 3 wins each are the Hi Lo's and the Queen Ann Chumps. In bottom position are the L&M's.

JOKERS HAVE 1,742

These leagues all bowl at Medford Bowling lanes. Thursday morning the Valley Rollers see what they can do to those tenpins. The Jokers took first place with a 1,742 scratch series. They bowl 4 ladies to a team. High series was rolled by Doris Harris with a 506. She also had the second high game with a 198. High game honors went to Erika Goff with a 199. Some of the ladies prefer to bowl at 3 p.m. so joined the Rambling Rollers league. They bowl three ladies to a team. High game scratch was rolled by Nina Hollenbeck with a 190 and high game with handicap by Florence Stickney with a 218. High series scratch was 489 by Madeline Legg and high series with handicap was 600 carded by Carlene Pratt.

LARGEST LEAGUE

The Bartlett Belles were all there bowling even if their husbands were off deer hunting. They were real short of scorekeepers because of this. This league is the largest ladies league with 16 teams participating and leading the league again after going to second place is the Faber Stration Insurance team with 12 wins. Ruby Fein on this team converted two splits Friday evening, the 2-7-10 and the 6-7-10. There are three teams tied for second place with 10 wins each, Faber's Market, Alexander's Music, and Swem's. In next spot by a bare one-half point is Crystal Meats with 9½. Lininger's (the gals with those new shirts) have 9. Also with 9 points is one of this league's new teams and also a new sponsor, Alexander & Brown. It has some new ladies who have never bowled in league before. Sy's Place and Memory Garden each have 8 points, Baker's Moulding, Red Blanket Lumber, and Eagle's No. 1 have 7 each. Next is Eagle's No. 2 with 6½. Bringing up the last of the list with 5 points each are Stauffer Studio, Ead's Allied and Highway Furniture. Donna Sparling had high game honors with a 205. She bowls for Stauffer Studio. High series was rolled by Geneva Mang, a 508. She also had second high game of 199. Second high series was by Doris Tracy of the Lininger's team with a 497.

THURSDAY POPULAR

There seems to be a lot of interest in the morning leagues and Thursday is a real popular day to bowl. Thursday morning the Early Bird league reported that high series went to Pat Braack 514, and Rosie Phipps 506. High games were rolled by Pat Braack 220 and Shirley Weiskamp 189. Rogue Valley Construction Co. and Valley Lockers are tied with 10 points each. Tally Ho and Mechanics Laundry have 8.

Huskies Dumped by Navy 15-14

Seattle - UP - Right end Greg Mather kicked a 32-yard field goal 14 seconds before the end of the game today to give Navy a 15-14 upset victory over third-ranked Washington before 57,000 fans, largest crowd ever to see a football game in Husky stadium.

Mather's field goal was set up after reserve center Bob Dunn made a bad snap to Husky quarterback Bob Schloredt on a fourth-down kicking situation and Navy got the ball on Washington's 24.

A Navy touchdown four plays later was nullified by an illegal shift and the Mid-dies called on Mather's toe, which had kept Washington in the hole throughout the second half with towering punts.

Mather did not fail his teammates as his kick went right between the goal posts for three big points.

Stopped Short

Washington missed two scoring opportunities in the first half - once when Schloredt was stopped just short of the goal line while trying to score from 5 yards out and again when the halftime clock ran out on Washington with the ball on Navy's five.

Schloredt's attempt to buck over from the 5-yard line followed a touchdown pass to end Pat Clardige that was nullified by offsetting penalties.

Washington scored first when Schloredt completed a 31-yard pass to halfback Don McKeta, capping a 48-yard drive.

Navy bounced right back when halfback Joe Bellino paced a 12-play drive that ate up 70 yards and ended with Bellino crashing over from the 1.

Washington scored again in the third period when fullback Ray Jackson bulled into the end zone from the 3-yard line.

Four Plays

Again Navy bounced right back. Quarterback Harold Spooner loosened his passing arm and moved the Middies 70 yards in just four plays. The score came on a 26-yard pass to right halfback Al Hughes.

Navy went for the two point conversion and failed, leaving the Middies behind 14-12.

That was the way the score remained until Mather's field goal.

Washington was able to contain Bellino most of the time, limiting the Navy star to an average gain of 3.6 yards on 14 carries.

Reserve fullback Joe Jones was Washington's best ground gainer with an average of 6.2 yards in 12 efforts.

Washington outplayed Navy on the ground 193 to 69 yards, but Navy had the edge in passing yardage, 138 to 82.

MEN'S INFO SOUGHT

There are several of the mens leagues that no information was available for. Maybe they all went hunting.

Pro-Am Tourney Won With 129

Portland-UP - Professional Al Mundle and amateur Lou Stafford of Portland wrapped up the two-day Northwest Pro-Am golf tournament here Friday.

Mundle and Stafford shot a 66 to go with Thursday's 63 for a 129 total. Pro Ed Vanderberg and Bob Patterson of Portland took second with a 131 and Bob McKendrick of Oswego and amateur John Hedlund of Portland won third place honors with a 133.

IN DRAGS FRIDAY—Roadster entry in today's charity benefit drag races at White City will be George Hunt from Medford driving his "B" modified orange speedster powered by a fuel-injected Oldsmobile engine. The Hunt-Misek entry has been a consistent winner on both the Medford and Redding, Calif., drag strips during the summer racing season. Today Hunt expects to gain faster speeds because of recent improvements to the machines engine. Time trials are slated to begin this morning at 9 a.m. with the elimination races being held after lunch. The Southern Oregon Timing association sponsored affair is being held at the drag strip in west White City. All proceeds from today's meet will go to the coffers of the United Medford Crusade and the Ashland Talent Youth Fund.

SPORTS

Talent Eighth Tips EP 13-7

Talent-Talent eighth grade football team tipped Eagle Point 13 to 7 on Thursday in a contest at Eagle Point.

Jim Consruck touchdown for Talent on 15 and 75-yard gallops and also ran one extra point. EP scored on a 12-yard line play.

Tally at halftime was 7-all and Consruck's long run for the winning TD came with four minutes left in the game.

Ohio State Rips USC Defenses for 20-0 Win

Columbus, Ohio - UP - added two more on runs of 19 and 1 yards. Two of the Ohio State touchdowns were set up by pass interceptions which kept Southern Cal rocked back on its heels all day.

Halfback Bill German picked off a passy Trojan quarterback Al Prukop in the second period on his own 22 and set up a 15-play, 88-yard drive which ended when Ferguson crashed into the end zone from one yard out.

Pass Interception

In the last period, little Jim Herbstreit, a 160-pound defensive halfback and co-captain, snared a Trojan pass on the Ohio State nine and returned it to his own 29 yard line to start Ohio's third touchdown drive. Ferguson capped that drive with a 19-yard burst into the end zone. Ben Jones, Ohio's kicking specialist, converted after the last two touchdowns but his first attempt was blocked.

USC, which lost its third straight game, never seriously threatened the Ohio State goal line, moving only to the Buckeye 26 late in the game.

Ohio, which opened last week with a 24-0 shutout over Southern Methodist, gained 352 yards in the game to only 174 for the Trojans from the West Coast. It was sweet revenge for Woody Hayes, Bucks who lost 17-0, to USC in Memorial coliseum last year.

Buckeye quarterback Tom Matte, a daring gambler, kept the Trojan defense off stride with his rollout passes and keep plays. He completed six of 13 passes for 78 yards and had one intercepted.

Slops Drive

Southern California center Dave Moigan stopped another Buckeye touchdown threat early in the second period when he intercepted Matte's pass intended for end Chuck Bryant on the USC 12.

Ferguson ran for a total of 157 yards on 20 carries, 88 yards more than the entire USC team's 60 net yards rushing. He was thrown for only one loss and that was for only one yard.

Linebackers Jim Lindner and Mike Ingram also intercepted passes for Ohio making seven interceptions for the Buckeye defensive unit in two games.

The game was the 11th between the two schools and it was Ohio's sixth win. The last time Ohio defeated the Trojans was in 1955 when the two teams met in the Rose Bowl game at Pasadena, Calif.

Resigns as Field Head

Portland - UP - G. A. "Arch" Kingsley, president of the Portland baseball club announced Friday afternoon that he received Tommy Heath's official resignation as Portland Beaver general manager about 4 p.m. Friday.

Kingsley added that the resignation was voluntary.

Portland finished fourth, sixth and eighth in PCL standings since Heath came here from Sacramento in 1958.

A report in the Oregon Journal Friday indicated Heath may return to Sacramento and manage that city's PCL entry next season.

But Friday Heath said the job had not been offered to him.

Toronto Takes Lead in Series

Loisville, Ky. - UP - Toronto to Maple Leafs of the International league took a 2-1 lead in the Little World Series of baseball when they defeated the Louisville Colonels of the American Association 6-2 on Friday night. Steve Demeter smashed two home runs and a double to spur in the Toronto victory.

Nieporte Leads Hesperia Open

Hesperia, Calif. - UP - Billy Johnston of Provo, Utah lost his hold on second place in the $20,000 Hesperia Open Saturday when he shot a par-72 in second round play.

Johnston, who was tied in second place Friday with a 69, fell five strokes off the pace. He has a 36-hole total of 141.

Tom Nieporte, Bronxville, N. Y., is leading at the halfway mark with a 70-66-136.

RR JAYVEES WIN

Rogue River - Rogue River high junior varsity gridmen opened their season last week with a 6 to 0 nod over Illinois Valley JV. Galya Knight tabulated for the Chiefs on a fake reverse. On offense for RR Bob Stiehl and Jim Slowman opened good holes for backs Knight and Dick Middleton, Randy Bradshaw, Jim Moorman, Bill DeMerseman, Gust Schefstrom, Lanny Parsons and Tom Williamson received defensive commendations.

Stanford scored its only touchdown in the second period on a 11-yard run by back Gill Dowd, and in the same period added three points on a 33-yard field goal by fullback Skip Face.

The Air Force hit first on Quinlan's handoff run and halfback Mike Rawlins kicked.

Air Force Comes Down To Earth, Wins 32 to 9

Denver - UP - The Air Force Academy wilted Stanford with a speedy and surprising first half ground game today, then came back with the passing of quarterback Rich Mayo to down the West Coast team, 32-9, before 20,194 persons.

The game had been billed as a passing duel between Mayo, the fourth leading college passer in 1959, and Stanford quarterback Dick Norman, who was the nation's best last year.

But the Cadets surprised fans and Stanford alike with a tough ground game spearheaded by halfbacks Monte Moorberg and Don Baucum. The Air Force led at halftime, 21-6, on three running touchdowns.

The Air Force scored in the first period when Mayo faked an expected pass and handed off to halfback Mike Quinlan, who ran 29 yards for the touchdown.

In the second half Mayo began the anticipated aerial warfare, after Stanford had adjusted its defenses for a ground attack. In the fourth period he passed 19 yards for a touchdown, after an Air Force field goal.

Stanford scored its only touchdown in the second period on a 11-yard run by back Gill Dowd, and in the same period added three points on a 33-yard field goal by fullback Skip Face.

The Air Force hit first on Quinlan's handoff run and halfback Mike Rawlins kicked.

ed the first of three conversions.

In the second period, Moorberg scored on the first series of downs, from the two, and Rawlins again kicked.

After Stanford's touchdown, the Cadets took over on their 38. On the fourth play, halfback Bob McDonough went over from the 39 on a beautiful cutback run through most of the Stanford defenses. Rawlins' kick again was good.

Face scored his field goal to end the first half. Neither team scored in the conversion, but its wearing effect showed upon Stanford. Stanford lost every time it gained possession of the ball, either by fumbles or pass interceptions.

When the Air Force was stalled on the Stanford 17, Rawlins kicked a field goal in the fourth period. Then, after the Cadets had recovered a fumble, Mayo passed to Baucum for 20 yards and the touchdown. Mayo also passed to Baucum for the two-point conversion.

Air Force — 7 14 0 11—32
