Medford Couple Married In Methodist Ceremony

Miss Marisue R. Anderson, daughter of Mrs. Rebecca Ashley Anderson, 1440 East Main street, and O. H. Anderson, Salem, became the bride of Perry E. Whitlock September 19. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Whitlock, 1624 Lenora drive.

The Rev. George Roseberry read the double-ring vows at 8 o'clock in the evening in First Methodist church before about 40 guests. Pink and white gladioli provided a setting for the wedding party.

Mrs. James Young was matron of honor and William Knorr attended the bridegroom. Carl Sieg and James Young seated guests.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin and lace gown, of ballerina length, with scoop neckline and three-quarter-length sleeves. She carried a wedding Bible belonging to Mrs. Fred J. Graten.

Mrs. Young wore a turquoise cotton dress with scoop neckline and a full skirt. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink gladioli on turquoise background.

The bride's mother wore a green print silk dress with pink and green accessories and a pink rosebud corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a beige knit suit with pink feather hat and a white rosebud corsage.

Mrs. Fr. Graten cut the cake at the reception, which followed at the home of the bride's mother. Miss Karen Paschke assisted. Miss Martha Anderson, the bride's sister, was at the guest book.

Roses and gladioli decorated the rooms.

The newlyweds traveled to southern California for their wedding trip, the bride wearing a gray wool sheath with gray and white jacket. They will make their home at 14 Hawthorne avenue.

The bride and bridegroom are graduates of Medford High school and he is a student at Southern Oregon college.

Ceremony Takes Place In Prospect

Trail - Miss Rose Marie Jantzer, Trail, became the bride of Harold Lee LaGrave, Shady Cove, in a ceremony held September 24 at Cascade George church in Prospect. The Rev. Doran Woods officiated at the 8 o'clock evening ceremony attended by 40 relatives and friends.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Georgia Jantzer, Trail, and Frank Jantzer, Medford. Mr. LaGrave is a son of Mrs. Paul Lozden, Shady Cove.

White chrysanthemums decorated the church and Miss Jill Hedgepath played the music.

The bride wore a ballerina length gown of Alencon lace over taffeta fashioned with fitted bodice. Lace appliques trimmed the front of the bouffant net skirt and ruffles cascaded down the back of the skirt. Her elbow length veil of silk illusion was held by a tiara of iridescent sequins and pearls. She carried white chrysanthemums.

Miss Nancy Blackman, Shady Cove, cousin of the bridegroom, attended the bride. Donald Sutile, Eagle Point, served as best man and seated the guests were Gordon Jantzer, brother of the bride, and Jerry LaGrave, Shady Cove, brother of the bridegroom.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the church by Mrs. Jantzer and Mrs. Lozden.

The couple is at home at 1132 1/2 Court street, Medford. The bride is a graduate of Prospect High school. Mr. LaGrave attended Eagle Point High school and is a logger.

Newlywed Pair Now Students At University

Applegate Valley—Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brook Castle left recently for Minneapolis where they have enrolled at the University of Minnesota, he as a medical student, and Mrs. Castle as a student of engineering.

Mrs. Castle is the former Miss Romelle Fossen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Fossen of this community.

The young couple were married at Zion Lutheran church at Oregon City August 9. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Dalton Castle, Salem. The double ring ceremony was performed at eight o'clock in the evening.

Mr. Fossen gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a ballet length dress of white taffeta and her veil was trimmed with pearls. She wore a diamond pendant, a gift of the bridegroom, and carried a sheaf of white flowers.

Mrs. Gilbert Rogers, Oregon City, matron-of-honor, wore a dress of pale blue taffeta. Gilbert Rogers served as best man.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Fossen wore a lilac colored dress with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of royal blue with a corsage of pink and white carnations.

A reception was held at the home of Gilbert Rogers. The bride is a graduate of Jacksonville High school and attended University of Oregon for two years. The bridegroom studied at the university for four years.

They were given by Mrs. McNeely and Mrs. Kenner at the McNeely home; members of Eastwood Baptist church, at the home of Mrs. Johnson, and one by Miss Heidemann and Miss Good at the Good residence.

Betrothal News Told at Party; Date Announced

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Carrara, 537 Mary street, announced the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Mary Kay, to William L. Petty at a party given for the couple September 26.

The couple plans to be married November 19 at Sacred Heart church in Medford at two o'clock in the afternoon.

The betrothal party was held at Mary's Casa, with more than 80 friends attending. The motif for the table setting was interlocking rings set in pink carnations and gladioli, topped by a white orchid. Hostesses for the party were Mrs. Carrara, Mrs. Sylvia Coggins, Mrs. Victor Eak and Mrs. Tom Hicks.

Miss Carrara was graduated from St. Mary's High school and is employed by Dr. H. H. Bresse as a dental nurse. Her fiancé, the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Petty, Kansas City, Mo., is employed in the Medford office of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railroad.

Miss Klatt will be based at Detroit Airport.

Acord-Heidemann Rites Held

Miss Sandra Kay Heidemann was the first member of Eastwood Baptist church to be married in the church when she became the bride of Sherman O. Acord in ceremonies there September 25. The Rev. Gilbert Myers, Grants Pass First Baptist church, who introduced the couple, and the Rev. Clifford Young of Eastwood Baptist, officiated at the 3 o'clock afternoon rites.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle J. Heidemann, 340 Cerritos avenue. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Acord, Wilderville, Ore.

Yellow and white garden flowers and greenery decorated the church for the wedding. John Lusk played the organ and wedding music and accompanied the bride.

Miss Jean Heidemann was honor attendant for her sister and bridesmaid was Miss Margie Good. They wore frocks of silk organza with matching veils and carried bouquets of white spider chrysanthemums. Miss Heidemann wore a mint green and Miss Good was in yellow. Candelights were Rodney and Cynthia Heidemann, brother and sister of the bride.

William Lee Melhoff, Crescent City, Calif. served as best man. Seated at the table were John Faux and Dennis Fryrear, both Grants Pass.

For her daughter's wedding and reception which followed at the church Mrs. Heidemann chose a plum colored sheath dress with royal blue accessories. Mrs. Acord wore a sage green dress with beige accessories. Their corsages were white carnations.

At the reception Mrs. Marvin Heidemann, aunt of the bride, cut and served the wedding cake and Mrs. George Robertson, another aunt, poured the coffee. Mrs. Myers, Grants Pass, presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Dixon Kenner and Mrs. Larry McNeely were at the gift table. Mrs. John Johnson, Mrs. Carl Jones, and Mrs. Paul Walker were in charge of the reception.

Rosiland Robertson and Pamela Heidemann, small cousins of the bride, passed rice.

The newlywed couple traveled to the Oregon coast on their wedding trip, the bride wearing a traveling brown tweed dress. The bride attended Medford High school and is employed by the Groceries Super Food Market.

Mr. Acord attended Grants Pass schools and is serving with the U. S. coast guard.

Prior to the wedding a rehearsal dinner was held at the Heidemann home given by Mrs. Denner, Mrs. Johnson, and Mrs. Marvin Heidemann. The bride-elect was also honored at three showers. They were given by Mrs. McNeely and Mrs. Kenner at the McNeely home; members of Eastwood Baptist church, at the home of Mrs. Johnson, and one by Miss Heidemann and Miss Good at the Good residence.
