

Paris—Marc Bohan, 34, married and a father, has been named top designer at the House of Christian Dior. Yves Mathieu Saint-Laurent, who has been head designer for the firm, recently entered the French Army. Bohan is reported to be a calm, steady artist, in marked contrast to Saint-Laurent, who suffered a nervous disorder soon after his Army induction. Bohan is shown with some designs at his desk in Paris. (UPI Telephoto)

Canadian Tour Is Described For Travel Club

A program, "Canadian Tour," was presented by Mrs. Clay M. Lee at the first fall meeting of the Travel Study club of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs. Mrs. Lee is first district president of the federation.

The group met Tuesday at the Girls Community club. Guests attending included Mrs. Ralph Foster, president of Ashland Civic club, second vice-president of the first district and a board member of the Oregon federation, and Mrs. Mae Russell, secretary of the Ashland club.

Mrs. Jack D. Brummond, president, was in charge of a short business session. She announced that a first district institute will be held October 20 at First Methodist church, Medford.

Mrs. Norman Wade explained the proposed legislation which would prohibit signboards on Oregon highways.

Mrs. Lee described the trip she and her husband took this summer via Greyhound bus. They journeyed to Canada via Seattle and made many stops in the neighboring country.

Highlights included visits to the Columbia ice fields, the Elizabeth gardens in Vancouver, and the Butchart gardens near Victoria.

Hostesses at the meeting were Mrs. Koute Lindgren and Mrs. Carrie Walters.

The club has planned a "Care" tea for the benefit of Latin American countries November 14. The next regular meeting will be Tuesday, October 25, at 1 p.m. in the fireplace room of the community club.

Meeting

Members of Tullis Temple, Pythian Sisters, will meet Tuesday, October 4, at 8 p.m. at the Knights of Pythias hall. There will be a short entertainment. Serving on the refreshment committee will be Mrs. Renne Grosh, Mrs. Polly Offutt and Mrs. Don Anderson.

Thanks to the United Medford Crusade, there is a way that we can: Help Medical Research vanquish disease; Turn cries of pain and fear to happy laughter; mend shattered minds; make homes for the homeless or provide well staffed youth organizations for Medford. Your gift to the United Medford Crusade is an expression of your humanity—everybody gives—everybody benefits. Open your heart and give the United Way where you work or through any U.M.C. representative. Keep up the good work U.M.C. We're all proud of you and your vital work with people.

Bethel Plans Candy Sale

Bethel 14, International Order of Job's Daughters, will meet Wednesday, October 5, in the Masonic temple at 7:30 p.m. All choir members will attend a practice at 6:30 p.m., according to Clarence Smith, director.

The annual candy sale of Oregon Job's Daughters opened Saturday, October 1, and will continue through October 17. Funds from the sale will be used to continue the philanthropic projects of the organization, according to Mrs. Ralph Nelson, Portland, grand guardian. These projects are Leukemia Fund, scholarships, Asthma Foundation in Arizona, and support of two children through the Save the Children Foundation.

Each Bethel will also receive an amount from the sale of the candy to finance their projects. Reports will be given at the meeting of progress of the sale.

Meetings Set By Garden Club

Members of the board and all chairman of the Medford Garden club will attend a meeting at the home of the president, Mrs. Dayton DePue, 1019 Murray avenue, October 3, at 1:30 p.m. to make plans for the club year.

The next regular meeting of the club will be held Thursday, October 6. The morning workshop on corsage making will begin at 9 a.m. The instructors will be Mrs. W. H. Dyer, Mrs. Ray Cyr, Mrs. Ira Fitzgerald and Mrs. Charles Cushman. Any woman interested in the instructions may contact the chairman, Mrs. Dyer, for information regarding materials to take.

The business meeting will be at 1:30 p.m. The program will be lily culture for the home garden by B. C. Kline. The talk on horticulture, the shrub of the month, will be given by Mrs. H. L. Ekerson. Mrs. Thomas Cardona will be tea chairwoman.
