

FIRE SCENE—This sign, a project of Southern Oregon Conservation and Tree Farm association, points to possible cause of forest fires along Dead Indian rd. This side of the Jackson county line. At left is Dale Prentice, secretary-manager of SOCTFA, and at right is Glenn Duyen, Kogap, president of SOCTFA.

TIMBER REMOVED — Glenn Duyen (front), president of Southern Oregon Conservation and Tree Farm association, and Dale Prentice, secretary-manager of SOCTFA, look over signs along Dead Indian rd. The signs read "The Mature Timber Has Been Harvested... To Make Way For... Growing Trees for Forest Payrolls."

LOGGING AREA — This sign indicates a new logging area just this side of the Jackson county line along Dead Indian rd. Signs like these are among the projects of the Southern Oregon Conservation and Tree Farm association to help inform the public of what is taking place in the forests.

Winn Tuttle Named Wheat Official
 Portland - (UPI) - Morris Wilson, Condon, newly-elected chairman of the Oregon Wheat commission, announced Friday that Winn Tuttle, Enterprise, has been named administrator of the Oregon Wheat commission. Tuttle has been manager of the Willowa County Grain Growers for the past 10 years. He will take over his duties as administrator on Nov. 1 at the Oregon Wheat commission offices in Pendleton.

BRAINS OR BUST
 London - (UPI) - Actress Deborah Kerr was quoted Friday as saying, "Intelligence more than anything else makes a girl sexy. A big bust on an unintelligent girl looks ridiculous."
