Debris Examined In Sea Mystery
San Francisco—UPI—A Coast Guard investigating officer today examined debris found 125 miles southwest of San Francisco to try to determine whether it was wreckage of the fishing boat Steelhead, whose skipper radioed that he had been 'shot' by another fishing boat.

Tax Auditors Are Sought by State

Salem—Tax auditor trainees are being sought to fill existing and future vacancies in district tax offices in Medford and other cities throughout the state, according to the state tax commission.

Persons selected will be trained in Salem prior to permanent placement. All applicants must have graduated from college with at least 12 semester hours in accounting, or have had at least four years of full-cycle, double-entry accounting, or have had an equivalent combination of experience and training.
