Pittsburgh — (UPI) — Danny Murtaugh pronounced his Pittsburgh Pirates ready "both mentally and physically" today and promised that the New York Yankees "won't scare" them in the World Series opening in Forbes Field Wednesday.

"We don't scare and we don't panic," said Murtaugh, who led the Pirates to their first National League pen-

Defense Advantage Could Swing To Yanks in Late Frames of Series Tilts

The following is the last of three dispatches comparing the World Series rivals, the New York Yankees and the Pittsburgh Pirates. Previous dispatches discussed offense and pitching. Today's dispatch compares their defense.

New York — (UPI) — At the start of each World Series game there will be little to choose between the Yankees and Pirates defensively — but the edge could swing to the Yanks in the late innings when Casey Stengel starts juggling that lineup.

Give it to the Pirates, if you will, at second base where Bill Mazeroski has more range than Bobby Richardson.

And by all means give to the used-to-be Smokey City boys in left field where Bob Skinner does a workmanlike job and Hector Lopez of the

Giants End Season 16 Tilts Back

San Francisco — (UPI) — "Wait 'til next year!"

The San Francisco Giants who had been a hot choice to win the National League pennant this year, closed out their disappointing season Sunday with an 8-2 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals. But it would have taken a revolution in the world of mathematics to jar them out of fifth place.

By the time the last out-of-control pitcher had ended his vigil at the clubhouse door, the final National League standings showed the Giants trailing champion Pittsburgh by 16 games.

Willie Mays cracked a three-run homer inside the park Sunday while finishing third to Dick Groat of the Pirates and Norm Larker of Los Angeles in the batting race. It was Willie's 29th of the season and it got the Giants and Mike McCormick (15-12) off to a good lead over the Cards. San Francisco added five more runs in the eighth.

Mays finished up the campaign with an unofficial batting average of .3193, somewhat behind the .3248 racked up by Groat and Larker's percentage of .3227.

But president Horace Stoneham still had reason to smile. The total home attendance in Candlestick Park this year was 1,795,346 an increase of 373,216 over the 1959 campaign at cozy Seals stadium.

Pittsburgh Players Cockey Lot on Close Of Loop Campaign

By RUDY CERNKOVIC

Pittsburgh — (UPI) — The Pittsburgh Pirates, the 1960 National League champions, are a cocky lot who figure they are going to beat the New York Yankees for the two best guys in the business—Manager Danny Murtaugh and owner John Galbreath.

"Only seven games to go," shouted one of the Pirates as they returned to the clubhouse Sunday after beating the Milwaukee Braves, 9-5, to close out the season.

"What do you mean seven?" asked third baseman Don Hoak.

"Our magic number is now four."

"Not for me," chimed in catcher Smokey Burgess as area relief pitcher Eloy Face started drumming on a banjo which catcher Hal Smith, Clem Labine, another relief ace in his heyday, and several other Pirates joining in the singing.

"What a Gang!"

"What a gang," said Smith between songs. "We'll take the Yankees like we took the National league clubs. Press clippings don't mean anything to this outfit, especially all that stuff you hear about that Yankee power."

"This gang doesn't even know how to spell the word quit."

About that time, Galbreath, smiling broadly, came in. He

Groat, Runnels Get Crowns in Batting

By JOE SARGIS

Don't try to tell Dick Groat of the Pirates and Pete Runnels of the Red Sox that "singles hitters" don't eat steak.

They chewed that theory right down to the bone today by wrapping up the batting titles in their respective leagues.

Groat, the gritty Pittsburgh shortstop, won the National league title with a .325 mark, while Runnels, the Boston handyman who plays almost any position, won the American league title with a .320 average.

Both marks were the third lowest ever in the majors. Only Ed Roush of the Reds

Mitchell Winner in UMC Golf

Ron Mitchell with an even par 72 was low gross winner Saturday in the United Medford Crusade golf tournament at Rogue Valley Country club.

Fred Johnson took low net with a 69.

Women's winners were Mrs. William Schei with low gross and Mrs. John Day with low net. Scores were not listed.

Jay Cornell had low gross and Ed Setzler low net for men playing under the Calloway system.

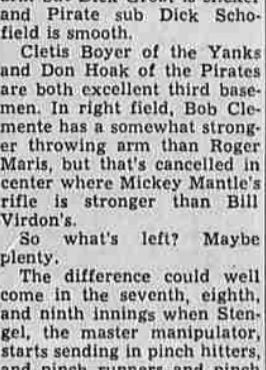

Dr. D. C. Boals had long drives for low handicappers and Curt Butterfield long drive for high handicap players. Mitchell won closest to the pin for low handicap men and Dick Whiting took the KP prize for high handicappers.

Prizes may be picked up at Van Lee's store.

RVCC and Medford Active 20-30 club sponsored the tourney and proceeds went to the UMC fund drive. Kathleen Kandung and Lorretta Carpenter, Southern Oregon college coeds, ran the hole-in-one contest.

GORDON RESIGNS—Joe Gordon resigned today as manager of the Detroit Tigers of the American league.

Art Dittmar, Yankees pitcher, led the Yankees to their first National League pennant in 33 years.

OTI Noses Portlanders

United Press International

Oregon Tech scored in the final period to edge Portland State, 19-14, and Oregon College of Education shut out Eastern Oregon, 34-0, in opening Oregon Collegiate Conference football games Saturday.

Southern Oregon, the other OCC team, defeated Whitman, 26-23, in a non-conference game.

Dick Olivias plunged over from the one-yard line to give OTI its narrow victory. The fourth quarter touchdown erased a 14-13 Portland State lead.

Bob Pennel led OCE to its decisive win. Pennel scored his team's first three touchdowns to provide a 20-0 half-time advantage.

Southern Oregon run up a two-touchdown lead in the first half and held off Whitman in the second half in gaining its victory.

McLoughlin 8th Beats Ashland

Art Lee ran three punts back for touchdowns Saturday afternoon when the McLoughlin Junior high eighth grade football team defeated Ashland 47 to 0 at Ashland.

His runs were two of 40 yards and one of 45.

Greg Dippel tallied twice for the Bulldogs on 10 and 35-yard runs and Frank Toews got the other touchdowns on 30 and 20-yard romps.

Don Young and Lee each scored two extra points and Rick Templeton one. All were on runs.

McLoughlin simply had too much squad depth for the Lithians. The Bulldog fourth unit played most of the last quarter. Coaches Bob Radcliffe, Marion Jack and Gordon Bradshaw joined in commending excellent play by the whole team. Good blocking sprang Lee's runners loose.

Quarter margins were 7 to 0, 28 to 0 and 40 to 0.

Chargers Trim Buffalo Bills

Los Angeles — (UPI) — One week ago Los Angeles Chargers head coach Sid Gillman was a miserable man.

His team had taken its second straight defeat. By his reckoning his offense looked ineffective, his defense looked horrible and his No. 1 quarterback Jack Kemp was scheduled to be sidelined with an injury.

But Sid's smiling today. The Chargers, underdogs at kickoff time, smashed the Buffalo Bills 24-10 Sunday at Buffalo and Los Angeles goes into its game against the Boston Patriots in the Coliseum Saturday evening with a 2-2 league record.

The Charger pass defense, porous as the proverbial sieve, suddenly slammed shut and intercepted four Buffalo passes to send a crowd of 15,821 rain-pelted fans home wet and wondering.

A newly signed quarterback, Bob Clatterback, playing in his first pro game in three years, directed the team with precision.

Despite working with the team in only one intrasquad game, Clatterback passed for one touchdown and directed the team to two others and a pair of field goals.

Oakland Raiders Give Too Much

Denver, Colo. — (UPI) — The Oakland Raiders of the American Football league don't take much stock in the old adage, "It is better to give than to receive."

The Raiders gave the ball to Denver four times Sunday — and the Broncos converted the "gifts" into four touchdowns, as Denver beat Oakland, 31-14.

A crowd of 18,372 persons turned out to see the Broncos for the first time since the team was organized. They weren't disappointed, as the Denver team cashed in on two interceptions and two Oakland fumbles.

The defeat left the Raiders in last place in the western division with a record of one win and three losses.

Hesperia Open Won by Casper

Hesperia, Calif. — (UPI) — Bill Casper Jr., one of pro golf's biggest moneymakers, threatened to run away with first prize money of $2,000 today in the final round of the 72-hole Hesperia Open.

Casper had an 11 under par 205 after three rounds. The 1959 National Open champion was two strokes ahead of Bob Rosburg former Stanford University golfer.

In third place with 209 was Tom Nieport, the former intercollegiate champ from Ohio State University.

New York — (UPI) — Art Dittmar, New York's leading pitcher this season with a 15-9 record, was named today to open the World Series for the Yankees against the Pittsburgh Pirates Wednesday.

Manager Casey Stengel, who indicated Sunday that Whitey Ford would get the assignment, said he decided upon Dittmar late Sunday night.

Dittmar, 33, said he was just going to relax every day and get the job done.

He refused to predict a Pirate World Series triumph, excusing himself on that score "because we haven't seen the Yankees play since spring training."

"But then," he grinned, "they haven't seen us either."

When Murtaugh heard that Manager Casey Stengel of the Yankees was leaning toward Whitey Ford, long New York's clutch hurler, to pitch the opening game, he said he wasn't too concerned about the Yankee starter, and added that Vernon Law would be his first game pitcher with Bob Friend going in the second.

"After those two I haven't any pitching plans for the third game in New York on Saturday." But he was reported inclined toward one of his two southpaws, Vinegar Bend Mizell or Harvey Hadjix.

Law Pulled Tendon

Law pulled a tendon in his right ankle when he slipped on the clubhouse floor during the Pirates victory celebration last Sunday. The 20-game winner was clobbered for eight runs and 10 hits by the Milwaukee Braves in 3 1/3 innings last Friday night.

"I feel I'll be ready to go Wednesday," Law said.

"That's good news," smiled Murtaugh, "and I sure am happy about the way Dick Groat has come back, too."

Groat, the 1960 National League batting king, broke his left wrist in Milwaukee but by a pitch by Milwaukee pitcher Lew Burdette on Sept. 3. It was thought then that he would not be able to play in the Series at all, but he returned to the Pirate lineup as a pinch hitter Friday night and started Saturday's and Sunday's games.

Murtaugh Plans Platooning

If Ford goes for the Yankees, Murtaugh will play Gino Cimoli in center, have Hal Smith catch and long-ball hitting Dick Stuart on first. All are right-handed hitters.

"I'll definitely platoon Cimoli and Hal Smith with Bill Virdon and Smokey Burgess," Murtaugh said, "but I may not platoon Stuart and Rocky Nelson. I might go with Stuart all the way."

Virdon, Burgess and Nelson are southpaw swingers but the Pirates manager may want to keep Stuart's big bat in the lineup although Nelson is a better fielder.

Ford pitched two innings as the Yankees closed the season with the second best September stretch drive in history, the Chicago Cubs won 21 in a row in 1955 — winning their last 15 games.

Sunday, they beat the Red Sox, 9-7, with Ford allowing two singles, walking one and

Gordon resigned today as manager of the Detroit Tigers of the American league. Gordon took over the Tiger baseballers toward the end of the season in a "saw" that sent former Tiger skipper Jimmy Dykes to Cleveland and brought Gordon from the Indians. Bill DeWitt, Detroit general manager, made the announcement that Gordon had asked to be "relieved of his contract for 1961 and his request has been granted."

The general manager said that the announcement was being made "now so that Joe and the club can be free to negotiate for 1961."

striking out two in two innings.

"I liked the way he pitched," said Stengel, shooting for his eighth series title in 10 tries.

Before Ford's Sunday showing Casey had not been too high on him because he was not too sharp against Washington in his last outing.

Stengel was leaning toward right handers Art Dittmar and Bob Turley as his starting pitchers for the first two games, holding Ford back for the third game in New York.

Bookmakers here were quoting the Yankees 6 to 5 favorites to win the Series while other cities reported the American league pennant winners as high as 8 to 5 favorites.
