

Presbyterians Announce Coming Medford Events

Dr. D. Kirkland West will preach on "The Peace of Believing Prayer" Sunday at the 9:30 and 11 a.m. services at the First Presbyterian church. At the first service, the youth choir will sing "My Shepherd Will Supply My Need," featuring the double quartet. The chancel choir will sing "We Praise Thee, O God." The Rev. Robert Jacks will sing "The Penitent" at the 9:30 a.m. service. The Junior High Fellowship will meet at 5 p.m. Sunday in the Youth chapel room to see the filmstrip, "Battle on a Small Planet." Donna Marin will lead discussion afterwards. Youth Fellowship for senior highs will meet at the church at 7 p.m. The topic will be "Alcoholism - A National Narcosis and Our Christian Concern," and will be led by Jo Ann Johnson. Fireside will follow at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Snodgrass, 856 West 14th st.

Westminster
New members will be publicly welcomed at the 11 a.m. worship service of the Westminster Presbyterian church Sunday. The sacrament of baptism for infants will also be administered.

The Rev. John O. Reynolds will preach on the subject "Why Pray, Anyway?" and the church choir will sing the anthem "I Will Lift Up Mine Eyes."

At 9:45 a.m. the church has study in different departments from nursery through adult. The theme of "Jesus Christ" is currently being studied at all age levels. The adult class, under the leadership of the pastor, has begun a study entitled "How to Understand the Fourth Gospel." This group meets in the pastor's study.

The senior high fellowship will meet at 8 p.m. Sunday to hear reports on the officers training program being held at Reedsport Saturday. Fireside will be at the Van Gordon home, 1508 Stratford dr.

A Family Friendship dinner will be held at the church Wednesday, Oct. 12 at 6:30 p.m. Members and friends of the church are invited to attend.

Westminster Presbyterian church is a member of the United Presbyterian church in the U.S.A. and is located on Oakwood dr. between Barneburg and Grove lanes.

'Church Today' Is Sermon Topic

In recognition of the beginning of the "Week of the Ministry" the Rev. Frederick Ross Evans will preach at both services Sunday morning at the First Christian church on the subject, "Let's Talk About the Church Today."

The youth choir will sing the anthem "Every Moment of Every Day" at the first service. "Evening Prayer" will be sung by the chancel choir at the 10:55 a.m. service.

There will be a dedication of babies at the second service. Mrs. Cleo H. Young and Mrs. William Foley will be hostesses for the coffee hour following the second church service.

The Chi Rho Fellowship will meet at 8:30 p.m. The study "Use It or Lose It" will be led by Carol House. Sharon Tucker will be the worship leader.

The Christian Youth Fellowship will meet at 6:30 p.m. with Mark Lawrence leading the study on the subject "War Is Not Necessary."

Monday Mr. Evans will go to Roseburg to attend a state evangelistic training program meeting.

Tuesday night the elders of the church will have their regular monthly meeting.

Minister's Meeting
Postponed One Week
The Medford Ministerial association will meet Oct. 18 instead of the second Tuesday in the month, association officials announced. The meeting date was changed so Dr. Winston Purvine, director of Oregon Technical Institute, Klamath Falls, could speak at the Medford meeting.

WATCHTOWER TOPIC
"Awake Worshipers in the Time of the End" will be the Watchtower study topic Sunday at 6 p.m. at the Kingdom hall of Jehovah's Witnesses, 2402 Jacksonville highway. Tuesday at 8 p.m. the Bible study topic will be "Your Will Be Done on Earth."

Reese Creek Church Has New Minister; Building Started

Eagle Point - The Rev. Grover T. Calhoun is the new minister of the Reese Creek Community church located about one mile from Crater Lake highway on the Butte Falls highway north of Eagle Point.

Mr. Calhoun was born in Columbus, Ga., and served six years in the armed forces. He attended Southern California Bible college, Costa Mesa, Calif., and was graduated in 1956 with a bachelor of arts degree in English Bible.

He received his license from the Assembly of God church in 1955 and was ordained by that church in 1958.

His first church was the Assembly of God church in Gold Hill. He served the Shancreek Community church, Grants Pass, for three years before coming to the Reese Creek Community church three weeks ago. He is a salesman for Montgomery Ward during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Calhoun have a 20 months old daughter and are presently living at Butte Falls, Star Route 122. Mrs. Calhoun teaches a Sunday school class.

Guest Speaker
The Rev. Paul Raymond, California, will be guest speaker at the Reese Creek Community church Sunday morning for worship service.

Mr. Raymond and Mr. Calhoun both were graduated from the same class at Southern California Bible college.

Mr. Raymond teaches in the Red Rock Elementary school in California south of Klamath Falls.

The fill for the concrete of the new Reese Creek Community church sanctuary was started Tuesday by members of the church.

The new sanctuary is expected to be completed by the first of the year and will be 30 by 70 feet of pumice block. A spokesman for the building committee reported that the sanctuary will have a door at either end with a ramp instead of stairs at the doors to accommodate wheel chairs.

Mr. Calhoun said that the Sunday school attendance averages about 80 persons, which is its capacity.

Persons wishing to contribute labor, material or money may contact the pastor or a member of the building committee. Committee members include Al Johnson, Marshal Minton, Ralph Clemans, and Mrs. Waltermar Hammel.

Rally Day Planned In Central Point

Central Point - Rally day will be held Sunday in the Sunday school of the Church of Christ, Third and Oak sts., Central Point. Each class is competing against each other to try and win the banner for perfect attendance of all members.

In addition each class will strive to have the largest number of additional guests present, along with the most Bibles and the largest offering. The rally day events will start at 9:45 a.m. with worship service at 10:45 a.m. Results will be announced during the worship hour.

Mr. Jean M. Shelley, minister, will speak on "A Time to Think."

Three youth meetings will be held at 8:30 p.m. and followed by the evangelistic service at 7:30 p.m. Following the congregational sing led by Linda Dystinger and music by the orchestra, Mr. Shelley will speak on "The Price of the Harvest."

NEW AGE CHURCH

Dr. Dell E. Millard will speak Sunday at 2:30 p.m. at the New Age church, north of Eagle Point on Hammel rd., on "The Divine Presence."

Preceding the lecture there will be a fellowship dinner at 1 p.m. and a musical program at 2 p.m. The public is invited.

LUTHERAN TOPIC

"The New Covenant" will be the sermon topic Sunday at the 11 a.m. worship service at Ascension Lutheran church, 2501 Barnett rd. The Rev. Elvin S. Tollefson, minister, will speak. Infant baptism will be held during the service.

SATURDAY PROGRAM

Eagle Point - A Sabbath school program will be held Saturday, Oct. 8, at 9:30 a.m. at the Eagle Point Grange hall by the Eagle Point Seventh-day Adventist church. All Eagle Point residents and other interested persons are invited to attend. The books "Planet in Rebellion" and "Marked Bible" will be given to visitors it was announced.

THE REV. G. T. CALHOUN Moves from Grants Pass

Talent Church Sets Laymen's Sunday

Talent - Laymen's Sunday will be held Oct. 9 at Talent Methodist church. The laymen of the church will conduct the 11 a.m. worship service for the Rev. Earnest R. Bell, minister.

The day's events will stress the importance of participation by laymen in the life and work of the church, Mr. Bell said.

Clarence Holdridge, lay leader of the church, will speak on "We Would See Jesus."

Topics Announced For Unity Center

The Rev. Katharine Bosworth, minister of Unity Center of Medford, will speak Sunday at the 11 a.m. devotional service at the Pythian hall, Fifth and Grape sts., on "God, Our All-Providing Father."

Other topics during October will include "Twelve Powers of Man," Oct. 16; "Look Unto Me," Oct. 31; and "Your God-Given Mastery," Oct. 30.

The Center is open daily Monday through Friday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. For private consultation with the minister by appointment telephone SPRing 2-6902.

Jacksonville Church Announces Subjects

Jacksonville - The Rev. E. W. Irby, pastor of the Jacksonville First Assembly of God church, will speak on the subject "Man's Responsibility Today" Sunday morning.

Uniting with the Assemblies of God churches in the United States, the Jacksonville Assembly of God church will emphasize "Global Conquest" on this monthly Missionary Sunday.

The aim of "Global Conquest" is to increase the effective use of Christian literature, bolster the national leadership training program, encourage mass evangelism, and to work for world evangelism, Mr. Irby said.

At the 7:30 p.m. evangelistic service Pastor Irby will continue the series from the Book of Revelation, "The Seven Churches." The sermon title will be "The Church at Sardis."

The junior choir will sing during the morning worship service.

'Teach Us to Pray' To Be Sunday Topic

Gold Hill - "Teach Us to Pray" will be the title of the sermon subject by Miss Jean Cunningham, minister of the Gold Hill Christian church, Sunday at 11 a.m. This is the second in a series of sermons on this topic by Miss Cunningham.

The midweek Bible study and prayer meeting will be held Thursday, Oct. 13 at 8 p.m.

METHODIST TOPIC

Ashland - "The Power to Forget" will be the sermon topic Sunday by Dr. P. Malcolm Hammond, minister of First Methodist church, North Main st. and Laurel sts., Ashland at the 11 a.m. worship service. A coffee hour will follow. Monday a group from the church will attend the Methodist Expansion Fund rally in Medford.

SUNDAY TOPIC

"The Exit and Return of Noah" will be the lecture title Sunday at the Chapel of the Star, 89 Janney lane by the Rev. Marie Headlee. The service will be held at 3:30 p.m.

Congregationalists Plan Meeting Monday Evening

The sermon by the Rev. Thomas McCamant at the Congregationalist church Sunday will be on "God in a Mechanical Age." The worship hour is 10 a.m., with the church school meeting at the same time.

The church school is now staffed and new members may enroll in any of the classes at any time. Nursery care is provided in the parsonage for infants and toddlers.

The Pilgrim Fellowship meets Sunday at 7 p.m. The topic will be "Love Roulons to Murder." Carol Foulon and Martha Bullard of the faith commission will be in charge. This group plans to carry out "Work Day for Christ" on Saturday, Oct. 15.

Monday evening the church will have a potluck supper followed by a congregational meeting to be presided over by the church moderator, Gatewood Smith. The meeting is called to take up two items of business, the Constitution of the United Church of Christ and the hours of service in the local church.

The constitution has been approved by the General Synod of the United Church of Christ and provides for the merger on the national level of the Congregational, Christian Churches and the Evangelical and Reformed Church. This constitution will go into effect when it has been approved by two thirds of the synods of the Evangelical and Reformed Church.

Approval of the constitution by the local church automatically makes the church a member of the United Church of Christ.

The other item of business is to find out the desires of the congregation regarding hours of service.

Since the decision on these matters affects the program and work of the church as well as the convenience of its members ample opportunity will be given for discussion of the various alternatives.

1957 Award of Merit Winner CHURCH NEWS National Religious Publicity Council

Four Churches Tell Events for Week

Central Point - Grandmother's Day will be observed at the Central Point Presbyterian church Sunday.

In honor of this day publicly proclaimed as such by Gov. Mark Hatfield, the Crater chapter, Grandmother Clubs of America, Central Point, will attend the church's 11 a.m. service as a group. Following the morning worship service a coffee hour will be held in the social hall.

Saturday, several members of the Westminster Fellowship Senior High group will travel to Reedsport for the fall meeting of Southwestern Oregon Youth Presbytery.

Sunday evening the Senior Highs will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Kilbourn, 1720 Beall lane, at 7 p.m. The evening program will be highlighted by the film "Battle on a Small Planet" which will be followed by a discussion.

The board of deacons will meet at the church Tuesday at 8 p.m.

Jacksonville - The Rev. King K. Jones Jr., minister at First Presbyterian church, Jacksonville, will speak Sunday at the 11 a.m. worship service on "Measuring Up." The choir will sing.

The Jacksonville Westminster Fellowship will meet at the church at 7 p.m. This will be the second in the October series of meetings on "The Christian Speaks Out."

All high school young people who are interested in taking advantage of this opportunity for developing skill in speaking are invited to attend.

Phoenix - The Rev. William Saladin will speak on "Do You Have to Go to Church to be a Christian?" for the 11 a.m. Sunday service at Phoenix First Presbyterian church.

Following the regular services a congregational meeting will be held to review the budget for 1961 and to elect a nominating committee for church officers.

The youth group will meet at the church at 7:30 p.m. Sunday and will have refreshments and games at a church member's house. Twelve young people turned out last Sunday. The group reports more homes are needed and no youth group leader has as yet been found.

Communicants classes will meet at 9 a.m. Sunday at the church. Fourteen young people attended the classes last Sunday.

A film about youth violence in Philadelphia which killed a Korean student will be shown during the Oct. 28 family night program.

Wednesday is choir practice, from 7 to 8 p.m. and Bible study at the Manse follows from 8 to 9 p.m.

Rogue River - The Hope Presbyterian church, Rogue River, will have a family potluck dinner on Saturday, Oct. 8, at 8:30 p.m. in Barnett hall.

Immediately following the dinner, Miss Virginia Mackenzie, retired missionary educator from Japan, will speak to the group. Miss Mackenzie was born on the Island of Lewis in Scotland.

When she was 14, she came with her parents and brothers to Pendleton, where her grandfather owned a sheep ranch. She was graduated from Reed college, Portland, and in 1918 went to Japan as a teacher. From December, 1940, through 1947 she was executive secretary for an area of 22 states in charge of women's work of the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions, with headquarters in Chicago.

After the war she returned to Japan. She retired in 1959 and is now living in Portland. Everyone is invited to the dinner and to the meeting to hear Miss Mackenzie speak. Those attending should take their food and table service. Coffee, rolls and butter will be furnished.

IMPROVEMENTS

Cave Junction - A number of improvements have been noted at the Seventh-day Adventist church on the Caves highway. Redwood post have been erected to mark off the parking area and plans are being made for stairs and a cement walk. Fill dirt has been hauled to the church yard and leveling is currently underway for a new lawn and shrubbery. During the week the church is used as the Seventh-day Adventist school.

Missionaries To Speak at Central Church Tuesdays

The Central Church of Christ, North Central ave. at Jackson st., will meet Sunday for Bible study at 9:45 a.m. and for worship and gospel preaching at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m.

John V. Heberling, minister, will speak at both services on the fourth chapter of Philippians. His theme for the sermons will be "The Adequate Man," part one in the morning and part two in the evening. A message in song will be provided at the morning worship hour by the ladies trio; Mrs. Brenda Greb, Miss Lynda Bennett, and Miss Linda Aubrey.

Discussion groups for grade school, junior high and high school youth meet at 8:30 p.m. at the church. The high school group will meet at 6 p.m. Sunday to plan coming activities.

Central Church will host this week the first of five consecutive Tuesday evening sessions of the Northwest School of Missions. This program is conducted in co-operation with other churches of Christ and Christian churches in Oregon and Washington.

Schools are being held in 25 areas throughout the two states, with five missionaries touring the areas to give the messages and report on their own work.

Offerings will be received at each session and the total giving will be divided among the participating missionaries.

Tuesday, Oct. 11, at 7:30 p.m. Central Church will host churches from Ashland, Phoenix, Central Point, Gold Hill, Prospect and Medford to hear Lew Cass of Brazil speak on "The Challenge of Unentered Fields."

St. Luke's Church Announces Subject

"The Fulfillment of a Seeking Heart" will be the topic of the sermon to be preached by the Rev. Melvin Dixon during the 11 a.m. worship service at St. Luke's Methodist church, 2940 Siskiyou blvd.

The choir will sing the anthem, "Just For Today." Supervised nursery is provided for pre-school children during the service.

Church school begins at 9:45 a.m. with classes for all ages. The high school class will have charge of the preliminary exercises in the youth-adult division.

Junior High Methodist Youth Fellowship meets at 5 p.m. at the church with Martin and Jane Grier, counselors. There will be an installation of the new officers at the meeting. The High School MYF will meet at 7 p.m. with Counselor, Al Cole.

Tuesday at 8:15 p.m. the official board will meet for the October session.

The chapel choir rehearsal is held Wednesday at 7:30 p.m.

Missionary To Speak Tonight

Harry Atkins of the Sudan Interior mission who is currently stationed at Macra Eritrea, Africa, will speak at Grace Bible church, 3310 North Pacific highway, tonight at 7:30 o'clock.

Mr. Atkins is a graduate of Westmont college and took graduate work at Multnomah college, Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Atkins pioneered work among the Moslems in Ethiopia in the first year of their missionary tour. They are now engaged in educational service in elementary schooling and also teach Bible schools. They are currently in the United States on furlough.

'In Our Care' Films Available

Salem - The "In Our Care" series of 12 films on Oregon institutions is being offered for loan to the public, the state board of control has announced.

The motion pictures, each 30 minutes in length, review the facilities and programs of Oregon state penal, mental, medical institutions, and the special schools for the handicapped and problem child.

First Presbyterian Church

Eighth & Holly • Phone SP 2-2830
Sermon: "Is Faith Without Works Possible?"
Dr. D. Kirkland West

A cordial welcome awaits you Sunday morning. Services 9:30 and 11:00 a.m. Church School classes for all ages 9:30 and 11:00 a.m.

Evangelist, Singers To Hold Nazarene Services

The Rev. James C. Crabtree, Springfield, Ohio, and the Keller-York party, evangelist and musicians, will hold a ten-day series of services beginning Thursday at the First Church of the Nazarene. The meetings will continue through Oct. 23 with services held each week day at 7:30 p.m. and at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. on Sundays.

Mr. Crabtree for a number of years has been an evangelist with his denomination.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Keller and Mrs. Mrs. Charles York make up the "Keller-York Party." They will present in each service various vocal and instrumental combinations. They use such instruments as the piano, organ, accordion, bass viol, vibrascope and guitar. Recordings of their music will be available throughout the campaign.

The public is invited to the services at the church at 520 North Holly st.

Sunday will be a day of preparation in First Church for the revival services. Sunday a special commitment by the people toward visitation and prayer will be made during the morning and evening services.

The pastor's messages will follow the commitment Sunday theme. His subject for the 11 a.m. service which is broadcast over KDOV is "The Ministry Given to Us" and his message theme for Sunday evening will be "Partakers of the Inheritance."

Christian service training classes currently being held in the church will conclude this week. Sunday at 6 p.m. a training class has been held on "Our Protestant Heritage" with Mrs. Lowell Shepard as instructor. The class on "The Church - Winning Souls," which has been held Wednesdays at 7:30 p.m. will conclude Oct. 12.

Dr. Roseberry To Speak at Eastwood

At Eastwood Baptist church Sunday Mrs. Delores Smith will continue her 9:45 a.m. class of senior high students as they consider "How It All Began."

For the Sunday worship at 11 a.m. Rev. Clifford Young, pastor, will give a message on "Vindication of the Gospel," using Galathians 1:1-12 as the scriptural background. The chancel choir will sing, "Cherubim Song."

At 6:30 p.m. the Baptist Youth Fellowship will meet. Also, the Pastor's class will continue its study of the new life with the session on "Declare the New Life."

At the 7:30 p.m. service on the final Sunday of the Loyalty Crusade, Dr. George Roseberry, pastor of First Methodist church and president of the Medford Ministerial association, will give the message.

Monday at 7:30 p.m. the men will meet for a work night. Tuesday at 8 p.m. the Women's Missionary Society meets at the church.

At the mid-week service of Oct. 12 the film "God's Word in Man's Language" will be shown.

October 13 to 15 a number of delegates from Eastwood plan to attend the Oregon Baptist convention to be held in Salem.

Priests To Attend Deanery Meeting

The Very Rev. Carl Mai, pastor of Sacred Heart Catholic church, will go to Roseburg Tuesday to preside over the annual fall meeting of the Medford Deanery of the Archdiocese of Portland in Oregon.

The Rev. Eunan Buckley, O.F.M., pastor of St. Joseph church in Roseburg, will be host to the priests of Ashland, Medford, Grants Pass, Myrtle Creek and Roseburg who will convene there for the meeting.

Other priests from Medford who will be attending the Deanery gathering are the Rev. William McLeod and the Rev. John Iig, assistants in Sacred Heart parish and the Rev. Rudolph Gerhart, chaplain at Sacred Heart hospital.

Meetings of all the Archdiocesan deaneries are held regularly in the spring and again in the fall, according to Father Mai, for the purpose of discussing theological problems. Each priest is required to prepare a paper on a problem of moral theology for submission to the chancery office. Some of these may be discussed at the meeting.

Father Iig will prepare and read a paper on the subject of sanctifying grace to the group. Such a paper on some phase of dogmatic theology is also a requirement at each meeting, Father Mai explained.

MISSIONARY

Gold Hill - The Rev. Danial Maser and his family will speak at the Gold Hill Assembly of God church, Fifth st. and Eighth ave. Sunday at 7:30 p.m. Mr. Maser recently completed a term in Cuba and is now en route to Honduras.

First Church of Christ, Scientist

100 Windsor Avenue, Medford
1 block south of East Main
Sermon: "Are Sin, Disease and Death Real?"
You are always welcome
Church and Sunday School Services at 11:00 a.m.
Nursery facilities available

Protestant Church To Have Two Events

Jacksonville - The Rev. Karl Gettmann, New Tribes Missionary from Venezuela, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. C. Smith and David Grove, missionary candidates, will give a program of music, testimonies and show colored slides of their work tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the Old Protestant church, Jacksonville.

Saturday, Oct. 8, at 7:30 p.m. the Rev. Lester Foster, New Tribes Missionary from Bolivia, will give a similar program at the church on Bolivia. He will be accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. M. Scoone and Ray Williams, missionary candidates.

ASHLAND SERMON

Ashland - "Christians You are Being Watched" will be the worship service sermon topic Sunday at Grace Lutheran church, Frances lane, Ashland, by the Rev. Albert R. Nickodemus, pastor, at 11 a.m.

Family Day Set By First Baptist

The Rev. Edward C. Stauffer has chosen a prophetic theme for the subject of the message at the 11 a.m. worship hour at First Baptist church Sunday. The subject, "Satan's Man - the Anti-Christ" will be considered in the light of Bible prophecy and current world happenings.

Sunday is also Family day at First Baptist church with family groups attending services together.

Music for the morning will be directed by Maynard Hadley, who has recently been secured as minister of music for the church. Mr. Hadley will also sing a solo during the worship program.

Included in the youth program for Sunday will be a meeting at the Jackson County Farm home conducted by the senior high and college age young people at 2 p.m. Regular Baptist League meetings will be held at 6:30 p.m., and the fireside following the evening service will be held at the Carl Wilson home, 895 Casino rd.

"A Prepared Place for the Prepared People" will be the subject of Pastor Stauffer's message at the evening gospel hour, which begins at 7:45 p.m. The youth choir will participate in the musical portion of the service.

Monday, Oct. 10, at 7:30 p.m. the First Baptist church has charge of the service at the Medford Gospel Mission.

Priests To Attend Deanery Meeting

The Very Rev. Carl Mai, pastor of Sacred Heart Catholic church, will go to Roseburg Tuesday to preside over the annual fall meeting of the Medford Deanery of the Archdiocese of Portland in Oregon.

The Rev. Eunan Buckley, O.F.M., pastor of St. Joseph church in Roseburg, will be host to the priests of Ashland, Medford, Grants Pass, Myrtle Creek and Roseburg who will convene there for the meeting.

Other priests from Medford who will be attending the Deanery gathering are the Rev. William McLeod and the Rev. John Iig, assistants in Sacred Heart parish and the Rev. Rudolph Gerhart, chaplain at Sacred Heart hospital.

Meetings of all the Archdiocesan deaneries are held regularly in the spring and again in the fall, according to Father Mai, for the purpose of discussing theological problems. Each priest is required to prepare a paper on a problem of moral theology for submission to the chancery office. Some of these may be discussed at the meeting.

Father Iig will prepare and read a paper on the subject of sanctifying grace to the group. Such a paper on some phase of dogmatic theology is also a requirement at each meeting, Father Mai explained.

MISSIONARY

Gold Hill - The Rev. Danial Maser and his family will speak at the Gold Hill Assembly of God church, Fifth st. and Eighth ave. Sunday at 7:30 p.m. Mr. Maser recently completed a term in Cuba and is now en route to Honduras.

First Church of Christ, Scientist

100 Windsor Avenue, Medford
1 block south of East Main
Sermon: "Are Sin, Disease and Death Real?"
You are always welcome
Church and Sunday School Services at 11:00 a.m.
Nursery facilities available

Protestant Church To Have Two Events

Jacksonville - The Rev. Karl Gettmann, New Tribes Missionary from Venezuela, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. C. Smith and David Grove, missionary candidates, will give a program of music, testimonies and show colored slides of their work tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the Old Protestant church, Jacksonville.

Saturday, Oct. 8, at 7:30 p.m. the Rev. Lester Foster, New Tribes Missionary from Bolivia, will give a similar program at the church on Bolivia. He will be accompanied by