

Fall Series Opens Of Christian Living School

"Having My Way" is the sermon title of Dr. George Roseberry for both worship services at First Methodist church.

The youth choir will sing "Bow Down Thine Ear, O Lord" at the 9:30 a.m. worship service. The anthem for the 11 a.m. worship service by the chancel choir is "Consider the Lilies of the Field," Mrs. Effie Kurtz is the soloist for both worship services and she will sing "God Speaks".

The altar choir, which includes children in the 4th, 5th and 6th grades, will begin practicing Sunday at 10:30 a.m. in the junior department. The practice will follow the children's regular Sunday school hour, and will be dismissed in time for the 11 a.m. worship service.

For the fourth consecutive year, the Methodist church is sponsoring its School of Christian Living. The fall series of the school will open Sunday at 5:30 p.m. with classes for all ages, according to Jerry Igo, chairman of the committee.

Mrs. George Distell will be in charge of nursery and kindergarten. Mrs. C. Gordon Morris and her staff will be in charge of the primary and junior departments. "Good News To Share," is the title of their study course.

The first class of the school of Christian Living is on the alcohol study, sponsored by the commission on Christian social concerns. The text used will be "The Stumblings Block," by Douglas Jackson. Six Sunday evening programs have been planned, which vary widely in their manner of presentation. This class will meet in the library room.

The second class of the School of Christian Living is a study of great Christian and Methodist beliefs by the commission on membership and evangelism, under the leadership of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Watson. The text will be on the book, "I Believe," Dr. P. Malcolm Hammond, First Methodist church, Ashland, will conduct this class in Meeker Memorial chapel.

A snack supper, scheduled at 6:30 p.m. will be served by the Builders class. Following the supper is inspiration time, during which Dr. Hammond will analyze a work of art. The meeting will adjourn at 7:30 p.m.

The Junior High Methodist Youth Fellowship will meet at 5:30 p.m. for their regular meeting. The Senior High MYF and Older Youth Fellowship will meet at 5:30 p.m. to attend the School of Christian Living, and will have their regular programs at 7:30 p.m.

McAllister To Be On 'Dateline' Show

Chief Justice William McAllister of the Oregon Supreme Court will appear on "Dateline Statehouse" at 5:30 p.m. tomorrow over KBEST-TV, Medford.

He will discuss with moderator Bob Richter such questions as the role of the Court in the government of the state of Oregon, what happens when a case is before the Court, how cases are decided, what decisions mean to future law, and other important functions of the Court.

Prior to his appointment to the Court in 1956, Justice McAllister practiced law in Medford for many years, and served in the state Legislature as a representative from Jackson county from 1937 to 1944. He was speaker of the House of Representatives in the 1943 session. After military service he again served in the Legislature as a Senator from Jackson county, in the 1949 session.

"For every one who does evil hates the light, and does not come to the light, lest his deeds should be exposed. But he who does what is true comes to the light, that it may be clearly seen that his deeds have been wrought in God."
