Eagle Point - Eagle Point high, lagging 12 to 13 in the third quarter soared back to bounce Glendale 32 to 13 for the Eagles' second win against no setbacks in Rogue league football at Glendale Friday night.

The home team Pirates, who suffered their first defeat in the loop, went ahead by the single point in the third quarter when Carl Burke romped five yards to the goal and Jack Berline ran the conversion marker.

EP sparked up, however, when Bill Skeeters raced back 77 yards with the kick-off to the Glendale 13-yard line. From there Steve Geren went around end for the TD which put the Eagles in front to stay. Skeeters ran the extra to make it 19 to 13.

Bill Skeeters touchdown in the fourth quarter on a 32-yard run and Mike Palm ran for another point. Glendale's effort to fight back through the air was jolted when Palm intercepted a pass to give EP the ball on the Pirate 41. Geren scored the closing TD of the night on another 32-yard jaunt.

Glendale drew first scoring blood in the first quarter on a seven-yard pass play, Berline to Glen Blevins. Stage was prepared when a bad Eagle center snap gave the Pirates the ball on the Eagle 37 and Monty McLaughlin gained 27 yards to the 10.

Eagle Point lost the ball on a fumble in the second quarter but gained it back on Palm's interception. He took the ball on the 35 and ran back to the Glendale 10. Two plays after that Geren packed over from seven yards away.

A punt run back by Geren got the Eagles on the move again. He caught ball on his own 26 and returned 34 yards to the Glendale 40. Palm gained 13 yards and Geren then ran to the one. Skeeters pushed over for the TD and it was 12 to 6 at the half.

A fumble recovery on its own 44 gave Glendale the ball for its drive to a second touchdown.

Geren had 113 yards in 10 carries and Skeeters 95 on 20 packs.

Syracuse Rallies For 15-6 Victory

Worcester, Mass. - National champion Syracuse, its offensive stymied by fumbles, staggered scoreless through nearly three quarters Saturday before rallying to a 15-6 victory over winless Holy Cross.

The mighty Orangemen, undefeated since a loss two years ago to Holy Cross, were unable to score until the final play of the third quarter to overcome a Holy Cross second period touchdown. Syracuse added its second touchdown with 11 seconds left in the game played before 18,000 at Fitton field.

Star Syracuse halfback Ernie Davis, shackled by a driving Crusader line, scored the second touchdown on a 23-yard pass from quarterback Dave Sarette.

Quarterback Ron Miller passed for two touchdowns and ran for another to lead Wisconsin to its upset win over the Bollermakers. Purdue scored all of its points in the first half for a 13-10 lead, but Miller took over in the second half to lead the Badgers to victory. Halfback Merritt Norvell scored what proved to be the winning TD in the third period and then Miller hit end Pat Richter on an eight-yard pass in the final period to close it out.

Ohio State scored all of its 34 points before the Illini were able to get their only tally—a three-yard plunge by Jim Brown with about four minutes left in the game. The most electrifying play before a sellout crowd of 71,119 at Champaign, Ill., came with defensive halfback Billy Wentz of OSU returned the second half kickoff 100 yards to tie a Big Ten record set nine years ago.

Baylor, displaying a prototype offense triggered by quarterback Ronnie Stanley, crushed previously unbeaten Arkansas and helped the Bears run their record to 3-0. Stanley passed for one touchdown, ran for a second and handed off expertly for a third as Baylor scored twice in the third period to break the game open.

Penn State, which bowed to Missouri last week, boosted its stock as one of the top teams in the East with its victory over previously unbeaten Army. The Nittany Lions stormed from behind three times on touchdowns by halfback Jim Kerr and a one-yard plunge by Dave Hayes with 1:25 left in the game to pick up their second victory against one loss. The eastern showdown comes next week when Penn State tackles Syracuse.

Upsets Hit Top Powers Saturday

The 1980 wave of upsets rolled on in college football Saturday, catching Purdue, Illinois, Arkansas and Army in its wake and once again just missing defending national champion Syracuse.

Seventh-ranked Purdue, an upset 51-19 winner over Notre Dame last Saturday, bowed to Big Ten rival Wisconsin, 24-13; fourth-ranked Illinois, its offense sputtering, fell before fifth-ranked Ohio State, 34-7; 10th-ranked Arkansas lost to Baylor, 28-14; and Army, reputedly one of the top teams in the East, went down before Penn State, 27-16.

Syracuse, despite a tongue lashing by coach Ben Schwartzwalder for its mediocre showing against Kansas last Saturday, had all it could do to eke out a 15-6 victory over Holy Cross.

Otherwise, form held up pretty good among the nation's other more highly regarded teams, with the exception of Notre Dame. The Irish, who apparently are a lot weaker than previously thought, lost to North Carolina, 12-7 in a leading inter-sectional game, while Michigan humbled visiting Duke, 31-6, in another.

Third-ranked Iowa boosted its record to 3-0 by whipping Michigan State, 27-15; sixth-ranked Navy won its fourth game against no losses by routing Southern Methodist, 26-7; eighth-ranked Missouri, also picking up its fourth victory, clipped the Air Force Academy, 34-8, and ninth-ranked Minnesota (3-0) nipped Northwestern, 7-0.

Clemson, the nation's 11th ranked team, defeated Virginia, 21-7; 13th ranked Kansas, which held Syracuse to a 14-7 decision, downed 20th-ranked Iowa State, 28-14; and 15th-ranked Washington defeated Stanford, 29-10. Second-ranked Mississippi met Vanderbilt in a night game, and 18th-ranked Alabama and 19th-ranked UCLA were idle.

Its offensive stymied by fumbles, Syracuse staggered through nearly three periods before finally rallying to beat the Crusaders. The Orange scored on the last play of the third period to take a 7-6 lead and then added the insurance tally with 11 seconds left to play.

Quarterback Ron Miller passed for two touchdowns and ran for another to lead Wisconsin to its upset win over the Bollermakers. Purdue scored all of its points in the first half for a 13-10 lead, but Miller took over in the second half to lead the Badgers to victory.
