

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stephen Samples
(Knackstedt photo)

Rites Held at Friends Church

Eagle Point — Miss Nancy Irene Beacham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Beacham, Route 1, Box 39-B, became the bride of Thomas Stephen Samples Saturday, September 4, in a ceremony at Friends church, Medford. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Samples, 460 North Eighth street, Central Point.

Clyton Crisman performed the rites at four o'clock in the afternoon. About 75 guests attended. Gladioli and Bells of Ireland decorated the church in green and white theme.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of Schiffli embroidered tulle over net and taffeta. The long-sleeved fitted bodice was styled with a Sabrina neckline edged with scalloped embroidery. Her fingertip-length veil of silk illusion was held by a halo cap of lace and tulle.

embroidered with pearls. She carried a white orchid on a white Bible, and wore a "for luck" penny in her shoe.

Miss Patricia Ann Beacham, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Miss Kay Wilburn, Long Beach, Calif., her cousin, was bridesmaid. They wore street-length gowns of green taffeta and carried bouquets of white chrysanthemums.

Miss DeLane Samples, Central Point, niece of the bridegroom, served as flower girl. She wore a frock of green brocade taffeta.

Dennis Samples, Central Point, was best man for his cousin. Ushers were Edwin Beacham, brother of the bride, and John and Fred Samples, brothers of the bridegroom.

Soloist was Clyde Weaton, who was accompanied by Mrs. Crisman on the organ.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Beacham wore a dress of pink lace over satin with pink and white accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of green taffeta with white accessories.

At the reception which followed in the church harmony hall, Mrs. Joseph Wolk-Laniewski and Miss Karen Wolk-Laniewski, Medford, cut the cake, which Mrs. Wolk-Laniewski had made and decorated. Miss Sandra Beasley, Central Point, poured punch; Miss Janet Johnson, Medford, was in charge of the guest book; and Mrs. John Samples, Central Point, was at the gift table.

Mrs. Carroll Johnson, Medford, was in charge of the reception. Mrs. John Beacham decorated the reception room.

The young couple traveled to the California coast for a short wedding trip and are at home at 907½ West Tenth street. The bride was graduated from Crater High school this year and the bridegroom was graduated from the same school in 1959. He is employed by Timber Products.

Coming from out-of-town for the wedding were Mrs. W. H. Tobin and Mrs. G. A. Wilburn and daughters, Kay and Janet, all of Long Beach, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Gelinsky, Klamath Falls; Mrs. Fred Beebe and son, Fred, Chico, Calif.; and Ralph Samples, Kinzua.

Mr. and Mrs. Reid are moving to Reno, Nev., where they have purchased an apartment house.

Guests were members of Travel Study club of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs. Mrs. Reid is a member of the group.

Farewell Shower Honors Woman

Mrs. Willis T. Fasel and Mrs. Clay M. Lee entertained for Mrs. Thomas Reid recently, with a farewell shower at the home of Mrs. Fasel, 117 Ashland avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Reid are moving to Reno, Nev., where they have purchased an apartment house.

Finalists Announced

Central Point-Mr. Richard Stratton, Mrs. C. W. Anhorn and Mrs. Walter Foote are the three finalists in the "woman of the year" award event sponsored by the Central Point Jaycees.

The winner will be announced at the annual mother-daughter banquet at Ping's Garden Wednesday, October 12, at 7:30 p.m. The banquet is held to honor the mothers, mothers-in-law, and friends of the Central Point Jaycees.

Judges will be a local minister, the wife of a businessman, and a local school teacher.

Woman Honored Guest On Birthday Anniversary

Mrs. Stella Beach, Jacksonville, was honored at a tea October 2 which celebrated her 70th birthday anniversary. The event was held at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Beach, Ross court, Medford, with another son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beach, Klamath Falls, as co-hosts.

The tea was from one until five o'clock, and about 125 guests called. An arrangement of lavender chrysanthemums centered the tea table, and another of orchid and purple colored gladioli was on the fireplace mantle.

Pouring during the afternoon were Mrs. E. A. Ayers, Mrs. Oscar Lewis, Mrs. A. E. Reinking, Mrs. Arthur Davies, Mrs. Peter Fick, Mrs. Ray Coleman, Mrs. Russell McIntyre, and Mrs. O. W. Dunford. Mrs. Harold White assisted the hostesses.

Mrs. Beach has lived in the Rogue valley since 1921. Born in Iowa, Mrs. Beach and her husband, the late Vivian Joe Beach, lived in Portland before coming to southern Oregon. Mrs. Beach lives in a home on the Old Stage road which had been acquired by her husband's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. T. Miller, many years ago, under the homestead act.

Joe and Robert Beach are the honored woman's only children. Her seven grandchildren, all present for the tea, are Jay, Julie, Mary and Ann, children of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Beach, and Michael, Daniel and Cheryl, children of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beach.

Anniversary Observed

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Hodgkins, 710 East Main street, celebrated their 59th wedding anniversary Sunday, October 2. The couple's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Hodgkins, Redding, Calif., spent the week end here in observance of the anniversary.

The Hodgkins were married in 1901 in Baxter Springs, Kan., and have lived in Medford since 1927. Soon after coming here Mr. Hodgkins established a service station at 700 East Main street and still owns the establishment.

Mr. Hodgkins also celebrated his 84th birthday anniversary October 2.

Mrs. Frank N. Bash (nee Susan Martin Fay) is shown after her wedding last month in Nashua, N.H. at the Church of the Good Shepherd. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Bash, 1325 Bundy avenue, Medford. Attending the wedding from Medford were Mr. and Mrs. Bash, parents of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Angus C. Ness, his grandmother. The couple is living in Cambridge, Mass. where he is a candidate for his doctor's degree in astronomy at Harvard university where he holds a teaching fellowship. The new Mrs. Bash's parents are the Rev. and Mrs. Robert W. Fay, Winchester, N.H. (Harding-Glidden photo)

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Peterson

Siskiyou Club To Open Season

Ashland — Siskiyou Knife and Fork club will open the 1960-61 season with a talk by Bob Ringer, west coast humorist and former sales consultant in Hollywood. The dinner meeting will be Monday, October 24, at the Mark Anthony hotel.

Reservations for the 7:30 p.m. dinner must be made no later than October 22 with the secretary, Mrs. W. W. Hendrixson, 360 Morton street, Ashland.

Mr. Ringer will speak on "I'm Only Kiddin'."

Groups to Meet In Jacksonville

Jacksonville — Members of Adare Social club will meet for a desert luncheon at the Masonic hall Thursday, October 13, at 12:30 p.m.

On the committee are Mrs. Joe E. Crawford, Mrs. Pearl Whitney, Mrs. Charles Young and Mrs. Ralph Lawrence.

A patio party for Adare Past Matrons club will be held Monday, October 10, at 12 noon at the home of Mrs. Ralph Lue, 238 Oak Grove road.

Mrs. Lula Saulsberry will be co-hostess and each member is to bring table service.

Women of Rotary To Begin Season

Women of Rotary will hold their first fall luncheon Wednesday, October 12, at the home of Mrs. C. O. Lovejoy, 2514 Old Military road. The event will begin at 12:30 p.m.

Members are to bring table service. Those wishing to make reservations are asked to call Mrs. Harvey Fields, Normandy 4-2204.

Miss Judy Bash, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bash, 1325 Bundy avenue, Medford, was recently pledged by the Oregon State college chapter of Delta Delta Delta sorority.

Couple Wed In Nevada

The wedding of Miss April Marie Owens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Owens, 310 Portland avenue, to Glen Peterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Peterson, 540 Ross lane, took place September 4 in Carson City, Nevada.

The young couple, accompanied by the bride's parents, were married at the Carson chapel by the Rev. A. G. Schriver, a life-long friend and associate of the bride's grandfather, the Rev. J. C. Whitsett (retired), Ashland.

For the wedding the bride wore a beige silk shantung sheath with moss green accessories and a green orchid corsage.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Medford High school and Southern Oregon college and is now a student at the University of Oregon Dental school. Mrs. Peterson plans to complete her senior year in high school in Portland, where they will make their home.

Red Cross Plans Coffee

Jackson county chapter of the American Red Cross will have a recruitment coffee October 12 at 10:30 a.m. at Hillcrest orchards. Everyone interested in serving in one of the many Red Cross volunteer services is invited to attend.

Some of the programs included are working with servicemen and their families, assisting veterans in the Dormitory at White City, working with the children in Junior Red Cross, aiding the blind and helping with the blood program.

Transportation and further information may be obtained by calling Mrs. E. A. Littrell, SPring 2-9105 or the Red Cross Chapter house at SPring 2-4405.

Pick a Wardrobe full of your favorite styles!

SWEATERS by darlene

See How Darlene Ribs the Bib

You're up to your neck in fashion, with this long-sleeved pull-over fully fashioned of Minklander, lambswool and fur fiber blend. In wonderful fun loving shades.

The Collar Colors the Fashion

Scoop neckline flattery ends up in a gently knotted collar. In fine-gauge Angora, a blissfully soft mixture of Angora and Lambswool that best expresses full-fashioned tailoring finesse.

Picks Do Not Stay Open Monday Eve.

You Have a Vested Interest

Your leisure life points to this attractively bordered investment; a trimly collared pullover of luxuriously soft Minklander... fully fashioned... in wonderfully sunny colorings.

Sizes: 38 to 40

Priced at $7.98 to $16.98

WE WILL BE CLOSED MONDAY EVENINGS From Now Until Christmas Shopping Season!

Pick's APPAREL
112 EAST MAIN STREET
Next Door to Robinson Bros.

Your Finest Shoe Value In The Medium Priced Field!

New... the dress-suit shoe

$13.95

Park Shop

Easy free parking right at our rear entrance.

Go steady with Fiancées

Parker Woods Leons
220 East Main

YOUR ROMANTIC REFLECTIONS NEW Blithe Spirit BY GORHAM

Designed for a girl in a special frame of mind. The charm of delicate wild flowers nestled under a wave of highly reflective solid silver. A design that will be forever young. Four piece place setting* $28.00 P.T.S.

Special Introductory Offer: "Save By The Set" Save: up to $12.00 on 4 place-settings • up to $32.00 on 8 place-settings • up to $68.00 on 12 place-settings

LAWRENCE'S YOUR FRIENDLY FAMILY STORE

OPEN MONDAY UNTIL 9 P.M.

Specializing in Fine Silver, Diamonds and Watches
130 E. Main Est. 1908

Park Shop