

Sorority Luau Honors Rushees

Mrs. Larry Rose was hostess for a Hawaiian Luau given by the Beta Upsilon chapter, Beta Sigma Phi.

The event, honoring new rushees into the sorority, was held on Tuesday, September 27. Members attired in native dress provided a Hawaiian atmosphere. Grass mats on the floor were the tables and were decorated with fresh pineapples, bananas, oranges and assorted tropical fruits.

Rushees are Mrs. Jack Rentz, Mrs. Kenneth Goebel, Mrs. Kingman, Mrs. E. W. Brown, Mrs. Clyde Chriss, Mrs. Douglas Pickell, Mrs. Jack McCormick, Mrs. William Eselstyn, Mrs. H. S. Morris, and Mrs. Virgil Pfeifer. Another honored guest at the party was Mrs. Leo Radke, who is the new director of the chapter.

A model meeting for the rushees was held October 4 at the home of Mrs. Del Landring, 943 Winchester avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Allan Bourne (Memory Lane photo)

Klamath Falls Is Home Of Recently Married Pair

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Allan Bourne are making their home in Klamath Falls following their return from a wedding trip to Carmel, Calif.

Mrs. Bourne is the former Judith Elaine Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Charles Johnson, 219 Almond street. Mr. Bourne's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Chester I. Bourne, 510 Haven street, Medford.

The couple was married in a ceremony held September 18 at First Presbyterian church, Ashland, with the Rev. B. J. Holland, officiating. The two o'clock afternoon rites was a double ring ceremony.

Baskets of bronze and gold chrysanthemums decorated the church and gold satin bows marked the pew ends.

Mrs. Virginia Cecil played the wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Jay Kaylor, soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an original gown of imported peau de soie trimmed with hand clipped Chantilly lace embroidered with pearls and sequins. The frock was styled on princess lines and the flared skirt formed a chapel train. Her fingertip length veil was of tulle trimmed with pearls and sequins.

She carried a bouquet of white quill chrysanthemums and a white silk handkerchief that had belonged to the great-grandmother of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Martin Tucker was matron of honor. She wore an emerald green frock of velvet and satin. Mrs. Robert Davis was bridesmaid. Her frock was gold color. They both wore headresses and accessories which matched their dresses and they carried cascade bouquets of gold and bronze chrysanthemums.

Keith Bailey, Klamath Falls, served as best man and seating the guests were Alan Soule, Crescent City, Calif., Dennis Johnson, brother of the bride, and Steven Wisely, Medford.

Little Pamela Coarley, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl. She wore a white nylon organza frock over emerald green and carried a basket of white rose petals. Keith Restad, cousin of the bride, was ring bearer. Lighting the candles were Richard Johnson, brother of the bride, and Roger Restad, cousin of the bride.

Mrs. Johnson chose an ice blue sheath dress for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Bourne wore an emerald green print silk dress with matching jacket and green accessories. Their corsages were white orchids.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Bellview Grange hall. Mrs. Norman Restad, Crescent City, Calif., aunt of the bride, cut and served the wedding cake and Mrs. Delbert Johnson and Miss Carol Buerkle presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. J. W. Watkins, Phoenix, grandmother of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Donald Geary, Medford, sister of the bridegroom, poured coffee. Miss Diane Bowlin was in charge of the guest book and Miss Mary Gayle Hodgins and Mrs. Frank Malin were at the gift table. Mrs. Johnson was in charge of the reception.

For traveling the bride wore a turquoise wool frock with copper colored accessories and the white orchid from her corsage. The bride is a graduate of Ashland High school and attended Southern Oregon college. She is employed by La Pointe's in Klamath Falls. Mr. Bourne is a graduate from Crater High school, Central Point, and is scheduled to be graduated from Oregon Technical Institute in December of this year.

A number of Medford residents attended the ceremony. Among the out of town relatives attending was Mrs. Alice Johnson, Tacoma, Wash., grandmother of the bride.

Leek-Crawford Ceremony Event in Forest Grove

Forest Grove—Miss Connie Rae Crawford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Crawford, Forest Grove, became the bride of Dr. Kenneth L. Leek, son of Mr. and Mrs. Aulton Leek, 1530 West Main street, Medford, in a ceremony September 16 at Forest Grove. The candlelight service was read at eight o'clock in the evening by the Rev. Carl Mason at the Methodist church.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a peau de soie gown with princess skirt gathered at the sides and back. The Sabrina neckline was trimmed with Venetian lace. Her net veil of illusion was caught into a lace crown trimmed with seed pearls, and she carried a white Rainbow Bible with white roses centering a silhouette bouquet of bouvardia.

Mrs. Robert Wilson, sister of the bride, served as matron of honor and Miss Lois Fleming was bridesmaid. Their matching street-length dresses of sheer beige with short sleeves and full skirts were worn with brown veils and matching gloves. They carried nosegays of yellow and white chrysanthemums.

A three-year-old niece of the bride, Julie Kay Wilson, was flower girl. Dr. DeWayne Halverson, Forest Grove, served as best man. Ushers were Dr. Lawrence Hedgrin, Chesham, Wash.; Dr. Roy Box and Duane French, Forest Grove. Larry Bosshardt sang.

The church was decorated with baskets of white gladioli and bronze colored chrysanthemums, with white satin bows at the pews.

Mrs. Crawford wore a mocha colored silk dress with matching accessories. Mrs. Leek's brown dress was of silk with beige accessories. Their corsages were of white roses.

A reception followed in the fellowship hall of the church. Miss Patricia Leek, Medford, sister of the bridegroom, cut and served the cake. Mrs. Marjorie Spelling and Mrs. Leta Lenz poured.

Miss Barbara Betts was in charge of the guest book. Lia McKibben and Patsy Johns took care of the gifts.

The bride, a registered nurse, is a graduate of Forest Grove High school and Emanuel hospital school of nursing, Portland. The bridegroom, an optometrist, is a graduate of Medford High school and Pacific university. He is practicing in Portland and the newlyweds will make their home at 2546 N.E. Hoyt street.

They traveled to Canada on their honeymoon, the bride wearing a traveling suit of beige wool with dark brown accessories.

The bridegroom's family traveled from Medford for the wedding.

Benefit Tea Announced

Mrs. Dwight Houghton is chairman of arrangements.

Elkins-Newman Marriage Held at Episcopal Church

The wedding of Mrs. Margaret May Newman, 209 Ashland avenue, to Joel D. Elkins, 410 Marie street, took place Friday, September 30, in St. Mark's Episcopal church. The Rev. George R. V. Bolster performed the double-ring rites at 7:30 o'clock in the evening before about 50 guests.

The bride, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Shade, Tacoma, Wash., has been employed as a medical secretary at Sacred Heart hospital. The bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Agnes Elkins, Luck, Wis.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Thompson, Hills, Calif., attended the couple. White pompon chrysanthemums decorated the altar.

The bride wore a beige gown, styled with a silk skirt and nylon lace bodice and cummerbund. A huge bow in brown shades at the waistline accented the back. She also wore a pearl choker and earrings, gift of the bridegroom, and carried two gold-tone orchids atop a lace covered prayer book.

Mrs. Thompson wore a navy blue ensemble with white accessories and a gardenia corsage.

Arthur Elkins, son of the bridegroom, and Larry Peterson, the bridegroom's son-in-law, served as ushers.

Mrs. Ernest Conrad was organist and accompanied the soloist, Mrs. William Wilson, who was an associate of the bride at the hospital.

A reception followed in the parish house. Mrs. Larry Peterson, the bridegroom's daughter, cut the cake and Mrs. Edward Shade, Tacoma, the bride's sister-in-law, served coffee. Mrs. Emory Caldwell, a co-worker of the bride, poured punch. Mrs. Harry G. Sanford, Shady Cove, the bride's daughter, took care of the guest book and the bride's niece, Miss Janice Shade, Tacoma, assisted.
