Catholic Ceremony Weds Miss Dudley to Leo Ertl

Miss Verna Mae Dudley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Dudley, 423 Garfield street, became the bride of Leo Robert Ertl, Harcourt, Iowa, in a nuptial mass October 1 at Sacred Heart Catholic church. The bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Ertl, Harcourt, Iowa, were in Medford for the event. The Rev. John Ilg read the marriage service and mass at 10 o'clock in the morning before about 50 guests. Bruno Pellegrini was at the organ. Arrangements of chrysanthemums decorated the church. The bride wore a full-length white lace dress with fitted bodice having a Peter Pan collar and long sleeves. She carried a white orchid encircled with chrysanthemums and a stephanotis. Her father escorted her to the altar.

Miss Theresa M. O'Leary, Great Falls, Mont., was maid of honor, and Miss Clarice G. Hill, Seattle, a classmate of the bride, and Miss Catherine A. Ertl, Harcourt, Iowa, sister of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids. They wore gowns of tangerine colored crystalline, of ballerina length, with full skirts, puff sleeves and bows on the shoulders. Their small hats were of the same material and they carried round bouquets of white and tangerine chrysanthemums. The bridegroom's father served as best man, Richard P. Dunn and Robert W. Dunn, Central Point, cousins of the bride, were ushers. For the wedding the bride's mother wore a blue ensemble with white accessories and the bridegroom's mother chose a sheer brown dress with brown accessories. Both wore chrysanthemum corsages. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Stone were hosts for a reception in their home following the wedding. Mrs. Raymond Buman, Harlan, Iowa, poured coffee; Miss Gail Stone, punch; and Mrs. Harry Dunn served cake. Miss Beverly Nelson was in charge of the guest book. A wedding dinner for the family and wedding party was served at Kim's restaurant after the reception. The young couple traveled to Lake Tahoe and Reno on their honeymoon and will make their home at Fort Dodge, Iowa. The bride was graduated from Medford High school. She attended Seattle university and Saint Francis Xavier Cabrini school of nursing and is a graduate nurse. The bridegroom was discharged from the United States Navy in September. In addition to the bridegroom's family, out of town guests included Raymond Buman, Harlan, Iowa.

Study Group Based On Art Museum Information

"What Is a Painting?" is the subject for the first meeting of the fine arts study group of American Association of University Women. Scheduled for 8 p.m. Monday, October 10, at Medford High school, the meeting is open to all interested women, whether or not eligible for AAUW, according to Mrs. Dan W. Doty, chairman.

The course of study for the monthly meetings is based on information published by the Metropolitan Museum of Art. "What Is a Painting?" serves as an introduction to the general principles of art appreciation. It is designed to make clear that a painting is not simply a picture of something, but an interpretation of the world that will enrich the experience of those who have the clues to understand it. The object of this lesson is to provide the most basic of these clues.

Mrs. William D. Cousineau and Mrs. Edwin W. Gebhard will lead discussion about twelve paintings, including Whistler's Mother, the Mona Lisa, Madame LeBlanc, and Madame Renoir.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Alfred Lindquist

Lindquist - Pierrepont Marriage Is Announced

Grants Pass - Miss Mildred Faye Pierrepont, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Williamson, 2012 Fairview avenue, Grants Pass, became the bride of Paul Alfred Lindquist, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Lindquist, Williams, in a ceremony recently at First Baptist church, Grants Pass.

The Rev. L. G. Frasier officiated at the double ring rites. Rust and yellow chrysanthemums and sprays of huckleberry decorated the church and white satin bows marked the pew ends.

Mrs. Fredericks Broer Jr. played the organ wedding music and accompanied Burton Watson, soloist.

The bride wore a floor length gown of white silk organza fashioned with fitted bodice styled with scalloped neckline and three quarter sleeves. The full skirt and bodice were trimmed with embroidered lace medallions and her fingertip length veil was held by a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis encircling a white orchid. Mr. Williamson escorted his stepdaughter to the altar and gave her in marriage.

Miss Charlotte Reese was maid of honor. She wore a dress of green silk print and carried a nosegay bouquet of pompon chrysanthemums in yellow and rust shades. Miss Dede Lom and Miss Cheryl Cumming were bridesmaids. They wore green satin gowns and carried similar bouquets. Charles Dorn served as best man and seating the guests were Alan Wall, Albert Fitzpatrick, Williams, and Raymond Pierrepont. Candlelighter was Raymond Pierrepont.

Mrs. Williamson wore a gown of green and brown with matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother was in loden green with black accessories. Both wore corsages of yellow tea roses. A reception followed the rites in the fireplace room of the church. The tiered cake was cut and served by Mrs. Joan Sandlin assisted by Mrs. Lowell Sandlin, Mrs. Vernon Nally presided at the punch bowl and Miss Barbara Jeddeloh, Gold Hill, was at the coffee service. In charge of the gift table were Miss JoAnn Peterson and Mrs. Emily Ingram.

The couple traveled to the coast for their wedding trip. The bride wore for traveling a sheath of eggshell white with matching jacket, red accessories and the white orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The couple's home is at 806 1/2 NW Sixth street in Grants Pass. The bride and bridegroom were both graduated from Grants Pass High school class. She is employed as a secretary for Jeddell Brothers Sued mill in Gold Hill and he is employed by Southern Oregon Plywood in Grants Pass.

Political Party Organization Explained at AAUW Meeting

The organization of political parties was explained at a recent meeting of Medford branch of American Association of University Women. Robert A. Boyer, Medford lawyer, a past chairman of both the Democratic party of Oregon and the Jackson County Democratic Central committee, explained the function of party organization in Oregon.

After telling that one of the functions of a party is to secure candidates for offices, Boyer emphasized that an Oregon legislator's expenses during a two-year term are about $2,000, not including loss of income.

Mrs. Boyer, AAUW legislative chairman, discussed ballot measures which will be voted on in the coming election.

Degree of Honor To Meet Monday

The Degree of Honor Protective association will meet Monday, October 10, at 8 p.m. at Girls Community club. Mrs. Susie Johnsonburg will be hostess.

Measure Six

Particular stress was placed on ballot measure number six, which is recommended by AAUW and many other educational organizations. Entitled "State Bonds for Higher Education Facilities," it is to provide funds for self-liquidating buildings such as dormitories. Since these buildings will be paid for through fees, rentals, and copassions, the measure will not involve the use of tax money. There is no known opposition to this measure it was stated, but it could easily be confused with a similar one on the ballot.

Announcement of new members included the names of Mrs. William Cobb, Mrs. Samuel Poirer, and Mrs. John Hoogerhelde.

Mrs. Herbert E. Seitz was hostess to the group in her Walden place home. Assisting Mrs. Seitz with refreshments were Mrs. Roy F. Martin and Mrs. Orrin L. Brown.

A luncheon meeting is planned for November 12. Ashland and Grants Pass AAUW branches are invited to hear Dr. Patricia L. Swenson, mass media chairman for Oregon AAUW.
