ALL-AROUND TORNADO—Jim Barry, above, is regarded as the top all-around Medford high football player. He's a regular deep back on defense where he plays a tremendous game and performs well when he gets his chance at halfback on offense. Barry has packed the ball 10 times for 47 yards, completed two of five passes for 26 yards and caught two passes for 30 yards. He'll be in the lineup this evening against Klamath Falls here.

Tornado Host To Pel Grid Team Tonight

Victory starved and upset-minded Klamath Union High school invades Medford tonight for that annual Southern Oregon conference football engagement of the Birds and the Breeze.

Ambitious for their first gridiron triumph in seven years over the high-riding Black Tornado, the Pelicans of Klamath Falls encounter defending District 6 and Oregon Class A-1 champion Medford at 8 p.m. at the senior high school stadium.

No common rivals have been faced so far this season by the Pels and Hurricane but on the basis of season performance, unmarred and five times a winner Medford is heavy choice over the White Birds, whose season status is one win, one tie and three defeats.

Medford has one win, over Crater, in the conference. Klamath has dropped two in the circuit, to Ashland and Grants Pass.

Klamath will send a multiple T offense against the Big Wind as it attempts to whack Medford for the first time since a 26 to 18 win in 1953. (The teams tied 13 to 13 in 1955.)

Rogue River Trip Slated By Phoenix

Phoenix - Three players who missed action last week will be on hand tonight when Phoenix high football Pirates go to Rogue River for their third Rogue league scuffle and try for their third victory of the season in the circuit.

The three are: Bill Davis and Dave Johnson, who have had knee injuries and Bob Jacobs who was on a trip. Coach Jack Woodward said that Johnson will be a starting defensive linebacker and could open at wingback on offense. Davis, sidelined for three weeks, likely will see some duty at defensive halfback. Jacobs is a probable starter at end.

Woodward said the Pirates have worked on all phases of the game this week.

Beat U, Henley

Phoenix has downed Illinois Valley and Henley in the loop and Rogue River has bowed to Glendale and Eagle Point.

Others slated for much duty are Fred Tycksen, Bob Dickinson, Dave Westfall, Monty Combs, Tim O'Mara, John Gramby, Ralph Gysin, Frank Thorpe and Jerry Johnson.

Lone Pine Defeats Ruch in Football

Lone Pine defeated Ruch 20 to 0 yesterday in a Medford district elementary school football game. Martin Shadd tallied two touchdowns and two extra points and Phillip Jahn crossed for one score.

Ashlanders Nip Tornado

Ashland nipped Medford 27 to 28 yesterday in a prep cross country run at Ashland. Medford's Hi Martin finished first over the 1.8 miles route with a 10:08 time.

Second and third, respectively were Farley Buell and Tom Hudson, Ashland. Dennis Brumbach, Medford, was fourth and Bill Dahlstrom, Medford, fifth. Gordon Self took sixth for Ashland and Gary Wallace seventh. Medford's Allan Ziemann was eighth and Bill Lawrence took ninth for Ashland.

Dan Lewis, Ashland, ran in 10th position but points for that spot went to Craig Miller, Medford.

Only the first five finishers for each school counted in the scoring.

GP, Ashland In Scuffle

Grants Pass - Grants Pass and Ashland High schools each seeking to retain an unblemished mark in Southern Oregon conference football collide here this evening.

The conflict is considered a toss-up on the strength of records against common foes. Ashland beat Klamath Falls 20 to 12 and GP topping that club 19 to 6. Both were victims of Roseburg, Ashland losing 20 to 13 and Grants Pass 28 to 6.

Ducks Aim To Bust Jinx of Alumni Day

United Press International - Oregon will try to crack a homecoming jinx against Washington State Saturday at Eugene while Oregon State is expected to defeat Idaho at Moscow despite injuries to some key players.

Oregon hasn't won a homecoming game in four years and the Webfoots are running up against old alumni-day spoiler in the Cougars, who sport the nation's top pass catcher and also one of the country's better all-around halfbacks in Keith Lincoln.

Hugh Campbell, the surprising sophomore, leads the nation in passes caught, yards gained and touchdowns. In all he has caught 26 passes for 398 yards and 5 TDs. The Mel Melin-Campbell combination, plus Lincoln, is expected to give Oregon's defense a real test.

Good Physical Shape

Oregon is in good shape physically and will be after its fourth win in five games. WSU has a 1-2 record.

Oregon State, bruised and battered after four tough

Thomas, according to late word from the Corvallis campus. But the Beavers are expected to win handily. Idaho has yet to win and dropped a 33-6 decision to Utah State last week.

SOC Battles OTI In League Tussle

United Press International - Unbeaten - untied Willamette goes after its fifth straight victory Saturday night in a Northwest Conference football game against College of Idaho.

Willamette will be up against the loop's best defensive club in the Coyotes who have a 2-2 mark.

The top Oregon Collegiate conference game of the weekend will be at Klamath Falls between Oregon Tech and Southern Oregon. OTI is unbeaten for the season to SOC's 2-2 mark but the two teams both have clean slates in conference competition.

The other Northwest conference game sends Whitman to Lewianan d Clark.
