Dalton-Paulson Ceremony Takes Place in Ashland

Ashland - The wedding of Miss Shirley Joanne Paulson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Paulson, 801 Harmony lane, to Edward Walter Dalton, Beaumont, Calif., took place October 2 in the Seventh-day Adventist church here. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Joe Godwin, Beaumont, and Edgar Dalton, Oroville, Calif.

The vows were read by Elder Donald MacIvor, Lebanon, at 8:30 o'clock in the evening. Baskets of white gladioli and large chrysanthemums provided a setting for the service. About 300 guests attended.

The bride, whose father gave her in marriage, wore a dress of white silk organza with Alencon lace at the neckline and skirt front. A bustle accented the back, which fell into a chapel-length train. Her veil of illusion and lace was held by an inverted crown of pearls. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis and pink rosebuds.

Miss Beverly Paulson, Walla Walla, Wash., was maid of honor for her sister, Miss Doreen Paulson, Milo, Ore., another sister, and Mrs. Kenneth Ladd, College Place, Wash., were bridesmaids. Their gowns were of shades of rose nylon organza over taffeta, which were designed with fitted bodice, cummerbund and harem skirt. Their headpieces matched the gowns and they carried bouquets of white spider chrysanthemums with ivy.

Peter Maher, Walla Walla college, served as best man. Ushers were Budd Dickerson, the bride's cousin, and Dave Hollenbeck, both of Walla Walla college, and Dennis Walker, Medford.

Miss Carolyn Slepnikoff, Watsonville, Calif., was organist and Mrs. Bernice Paulson, Walla Walla college, sang.

For the event the bride's mother chose a beige satin brocade dress with matching jacket and brown accessories. Her corsage was a green cymbidium orchid. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue peau de soie dress with matching jacket and accessories and a white cymbidium orchid corsage.

Mrs. Arnold Pflugrad was hostess at the reception which followed in Britt Student center. Mrs. Zelma Dickerson, Roseburg, and Mrs. Alvin Paulson, aunts of the bride, served cake. Punch was poured by Mrs. Harold Alen and Mrs. Ivor Fish, Eugene. Mrs. J. D. Miracle, Central Point, was in charge of the guest book and Mrs. Donald MacIvor, Lebanon, took charge of gifts. Mrs. Dickerson was also church hostess.

The newlyweds are temporarily making their home with the bride's parents and will return to Riverside, Calif., where the bridegroom is a student at LaSierra college. He also attended Walla Walla college.

The bride was graduated from Walla Walla college and was formerly employed as an executive secretary at the College of Medical Evangelists, Loma Linda, Calif.

They traveled to the Oregon coast on their honeymoon.

Among those coming from out of town for the wedding were the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Alton J. Paulson, McMinnville; Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Paulson, Mrs. Zelma Dickerson and Zetha Dickerson, Roseburg; Mr. and Mrs. Burnell Paulson, Gaston; Nelson and Anne MacIvor, Lebanon; Harold Alen, Portland; Mrs. Merle Smith, Portland; Ivor Fish, Eugene, and Joe Godwin, Beaumont, Calif.

Farewell Event Honors Woman; Gift Presented

Mrs. C. C. Drummond was honored at the last meeting of the Christian Women's Fellowship. First Christian church, Mrs. Drummond left Medford Thursday for La Canada, Calif., where she will make her home with a son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Linus Southwick, 1101 Olive lane.

Mrs. Drummond was presented a gift and corsage at the meeting. She and her late husband served for many years as missionaries in India. She had made her home in Medford for the past 15 years. "From Frontier to Frontiers" was the theme of the program presented by Drummond circle. It was designed to show how the church met the challenge of the American frontier and how to prepare for the new frontiers of the nuclear space age.

In colonial times less than 5 per cent of the white population claimed membership in any church. Today 82 per cent are members of some church or synagogue. The few hundred churches of colonial days have grown to 325,000 scattered throughout America.

One of the greatest frontiers facing the church today is the development of a program to serve the neglected and needy at the parish level, it was explained.

Mrs. William Roberts was chairman for the luncheon served by members of Johnson circle.

Women of the bazaar committee met this week to prepare the luncheon menu and work out details for the annual bazaar to be held December 1. Bazaar work day will be October 18.

Basic Values To Be Topic For Meeting

"Are the basic values that your child is learning in his life concrete? Are these basic values strong enough that he can withstand the diabolic arguments to weaken his moral standards if these be spoken by Communist influences that are contrary to America's way of life? Is your child equipped to withstand the onslaught of subversion?"

These may be some of the questions that will arouse thinking after hearing a tape by Marine Corps Psychiatrist William E. Mayer on "Communist Indoctrination."

The tape will be heard at the Jackson County Council of Parent Teacher associations meeting to be held Wednesday, October 19, at the Bellview Grange, Ashland.

The meeting will begin at 9:30 a.m. with a coffee hour followed by Mrs. Marcus Woods giving the invocation and a welcome by Stanley Jobe, superintendent of Ashland schools.

After the tape is heard Dr. Marshall Woodell, Southern Oregon college, will talk on "Protracted Conflicts."

A luncheon will be served at noon by the Ashland PTA coordinating council for a small charge per person.

The afternoon session will include reports, a business meeting and a "clinic" for local presidents.

Child care will be provided for a small fee per family, but lunch will not be provided for the children.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stanley Goldsmith are making their home at Rancho Cordova, Calif. following a wedding trip to Reno and Lake Tahoe.

The bride is the former Delores Ann Hay, daughter of Mrs. Vernon C. Erickson, Fremont, Calif., and Floyd Hay, The Dalles, Ore. Mr. Goldsmith's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Howard C. Goldsmith, Ross lane, Medford.

Dr. C. Carson Bransby officiated at the September 4 wedding held at the Centerville Presbyterian church in Fremont, Calif. Approximately 225 relatives and friends attended the 7 o'clock evening rites.

The bride wore an ankle length gown of white Chantilly lace over net and her elbow length veil was held by a pearl crown. Her single strand of pearls was a gift from the bridegroom. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and orchids and a lace handkerchief that belonged to her great-grandmother.

Irwin David Jones gave his granddaughter in marriage. Mrs. Raymond Abacherli, Fremont, served as matron of honor. She wore an orchid chiffon frock with matching headpiece and carried orchids and white carnations. Junior bridesmaids were Miss Barbara Hay, The Dalles, Ore., and the Misses Kathleen, Patty, and Sandra Pickle, Poway, Calif. Little Margaret Pickle was flower girl. They are all cousins of the bride. They wore pink organza nylon frocks over matching taffeta and carried bouquets of pink and white carnations.

Herbert E. Goldsmith, Fremont, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man. Seating the guests were Charles O. Welch, Rancho Cordova, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and Jerry Clark, Fremont, Michael and Richard Welch, Rancho Cordova, Calif., nephews of the bridegroom, lighted the candles and were junior ushers.

Mrs. Erickson wore a frock of embroidered organza with matching beige accessories for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Goldsmith chose a mauve pink lace dress with mauve pink and black accessories. Their corsages were mauve orchids.

A reception was held in the fireplace room and church patio following the wedding. Assisting with the reception and serving were Mrs. Jones, grandmother of the bride; Mrs. C. Carson Bransby, Mrs. Donald Wolf, Fremont, Mrs. Wilbur Balch, Berkeley, Miss Judy Balch and Miss Jane Balch.

The bride is a graduate of Washington Union High school, Fremont, and Hayward Business school. Mr. Goldsmith was graduated from Medford High school and served four years in the United States Air Force. He attended Southern Oregon college and Santa Jose State college and is a salesman for Americana Encyclopedia company in Sacramento.
