

Camp Schedules Social Event

Mistletoe camp, Royal Neighbors of America, will hold their social meeting Thursday, October 20, at the Knights of Pythias hall.

The homecoming dinner will be served at 6 p.m. Committee members include Mrs. Carl Pearson, Mrs. Anna McCormack, Mrs. Thomas Lynch, Mrs. David Traysher, and Mrs. Roy Anderson.

Following the dinner a Cooper Home Products will be shown by Mrs. W. E. Howell and Jerry Howell.

Doneva Koepke will play two piano selections.

The camp recently held a public card party at the Girls Community club. Thirty-two persons participated.

High scores were won in pinochle by Mrs. Ora E. Meyers, first and Mrs. Carl Ludwig, second; for bridge, Mrs. Gladys Rammin, first and Mrs. Carrie Milnes, second; and for canasta, Miss Carolyn Endris, first and Mrs. D. W. Bowers, second.

Another prize was received by Mrs. Yetta Flowers.

The card committee was Mrs. Maude Lovell, Mrs. L. S. Bashaw, and Mrs. Thomas Lynch with Mrs. Irvin Patten in charge of the luncheon.

New volunteers for Red Cross service work started a series of classes Wednesday morning, October 12, at Hillcrest orchards. Mrs. Sheridan Scott, veteran Red Cross worker (above, left), assisted with orientation of new recruits (left to right) Mrs. Frank Logan and Mrs. Marvin Nelson, Medford; Mrs. William Logan, Grants Pass; and Mrs. Glenn Revel, Ashland. The orientation will continue with a meeting at 9:30 a.m. Friday, October 21, when Mrs.

Justin Smith will tell the story of Red Cross. The final session is set for October 26 at 9:30 a.m., when the national and local structure will be explained and new volunteers may sign for the service of their choice. Mrs. E. A. Littrell is chairman of recruitment. Others interested in Red Cross volunteer work may call the office, SPring 2-4405, and attend the planned sessions.

Medford League Operating Election Speakers' Bureau

Women in the speakers bureau of the League of Women Voters of Medford have scheduled over 30 appearances before clubs and civic organizations in the valley.

The League has planned the speakers program as part of its voters service for this election year. Representatives of the non-partisan voters group discuss the 15 ballot measures at the meetings in an effort to stimulate voter interest in the November election.

In addition, the Medford group has sold 1,500 copies of Voters Information Sheet, published by the League of Women Voters of Oregon, and will sponsor a candidates fair

October 20 at Hedrick Junior High school.

Taking part in the speakers bureau are Mrs. Thomas Rutter, voters service chairman; Mrs. Dunbar Carpenter, local League president; Mrs. Ogden Kellogg, Gold Hill; Mrs. John Ougterhout, Eagle Point; Mrs. Kenneth Baker, Central Point; and Mrs. Margaret Phillips.

Mrs. Thomas Goff is in charge of scheduling.

Student at Stephens
Miss Joy Olson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald E. Olson, 100 South Groveland avenue, has enrolled for her freshman year at Stephens college, Columbia, Mo. She is majoring in psychology.

Mrs. Richard Stratton (above, right), Central Point, was awarded a silver serving tray when she was named "Woman of the Year" by Central Point Jayceettes October 12. Mrs. Gay Hallett, club secretary and chairman of the Woman of the Year project, made the presentation. Mrs. Stratton works with many civic and church organizations and also assists in her husband's office. The Strattons have three pre-school children. (Knackstedt Photo)

Past Oracles Honored At October Meet

Central Point - Mrs. Hilda Hague and Mrs. Emma Colines, past oracles, were honored at a meeting of Royal Neighbors of America, Central Point camp, Tuesday, October 4. Members met at the home of Mrs. Bernard Dye, with Mrs. Francis Jennings as co-hostess. Dessert luncheon was served.

Two other past oracles, Mrs. S. Richardson and Mrs. Frank Ward, will be honored next month. Handkerchiefs with the state of Oregon painted on them are presented to the past oracles by the camp.

The group sent a donation to the RNA home in Davenport, Iowa, for the silverware fund. Members also voted to help provide a hearing aid for a hard-of-hearing resident of this area.

Mrs. Norman Stinger, oracle, won the mystery package. Mrs. Dee Hendrickson,
