

Campbell-Glassford Rites Held in Escondido Church

A wedding of interest to valley residents was held recently at the Seventh-day Adventist church in Escondido when Miss Carolyn Gladys Glassford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Glassford, route 4, box 333, Medford, became the bride of James E. Campbell, Escondido.

Pastor John Green officiated at the 9 o'clock evening rites held September 12. Mr. Campbell is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Campbell, Cottonwood, Ariz. His sisters are Mrs. Myron Meehan, formerly of Medford and now of Applegate who teaches in the Grants Pass schools and Mrs. Truman Brown, formerly of Medford and now of Portland.

White gladioli and stock decorated the church for the ceremony. Mrs. Green played the organ, wedding music and accompanied Mrs. James Brockman, soloist.

The bride wore a white nylon lace over taffeta frock in ballerina length fashioned with sweetheart neckline. Her veil was fingertip length and she carried a bouquet of gardenias. K. Bailey gave his sister-in-law in marriage.

Attending the couple were Mr. and Mrs. John E. Campbell, Escondido. They are the brother and sister of the bridegroom and bride, respectively. Mrs. Campbell wore a pale green silk brocade frock with a gardenia corsage.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Escondido home of Mrs. Louis Neuman.

The couple traveled to Oceanside on their wedding trip, the bride wearing for traveling a blue linen suit. They are making their home in Escondido.

The bride attended Rogue River academy in Medford and La Sierra college, Arlington, Calif. She was a nurse on the staff of Rogue Valley hospital. Mr. Campbell attended Laurelwood academy and is a painter in the Escondido area.

Glimpses at Glamour

From DOROTHY ELLIOTT

I've often thought how lucky the girl under 20 really is. She is naturally so lovely. It's too bad that many of our teenagers won't take the trouble to keep their complexions and hair in that to-be-envied condition. Lasting harm can be done youthful skin by indifference — eating quantities of sweets and fatty foods — dashing water on the face instead of regular soap and water washings — allowing hair to become oily and greasy — lack of sleep — and other irregularities.

Here in our salon, we're definitely interested in helping teenagers with their beauty problems. How to accentuate their better features and minimize their smaller faults. After all, Beauty is a prized possession. It takes care, thought and attention.

Grime, dirt and flaky dryness wash away with a reconditioning shampoo. We have five operators experienced in every phase of beauty care. Come in and let us select the kind right for your hair condition at our Salon, De-Na's, at 410 Hawthorne Ave. in the Medford Shopping Center.

Rites Held At Church Wed Couple

Mrs. Pauline Hatfield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Mullins, 15 Mace road, became the bride of Theodore James Silver, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leland R. Silver, 743 B street, Ashland, in a ceremony held Saturday, October 8, at the Congregational church in Medford.

The Rev. Thomas McCamant officiated at the double ring rites held at 7 o'clock in the evening. Bronze chrysanthemums decorated the church for the event. Robert L. Semon played the organ, wedding music and accompanied Carroll L. Graber, soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a dress of champagne and gold satin fashioned on princess lines in ballerina length. Her veil was fingertip length and she carried a bouquet of wood fiber roses and rosebuds.

Mrs. Richard Deckelman, Madera, Calif., attended her sister. She wore a gold velvet frock. Her flowers were gold and brown wood fiber roses.

LaVern Parks, Ashland, served as best man and acting sister. The guests were Donald and Harold Silver, Ashland, brothers of the bridegroom.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Mullins wore a beige taffeta brocade dress with brown accessories. Mrs. Silver chose a baby blue lace sheath with matching accessories. Their corsages were white gardenias.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in Pilgrim House. Mrs. D. L. Dalley and Mrs. Willard Austin Ellis cut and served the wedding cake and Miss Judy Deckelman and Miss Karen Hein poured the coffee and punch.

The couple traveled to the coast on their wedding trip and are making their home at 524 Benson street, Medford. For traveling the bride wore

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore J. Silver
