Grange News

Central Point Grange
A large group of members and friends of the Central Point Grange attended a meeting Friday when Mr. and Mrs. William Foley showed colored slides of Europe. They took the trip last summer, and toured England, France, Germany, Italy and Belgium. On the display table Mrs. Foley had arranged some of the souvenirs which they brought home. During the business session, standing committees made reports. A vote of thanks was given to all those who helped to redecorate the powder room. Mrs. O. T. Wilson, HEC chairman, reported a successful rummage sale and expressed appreciation to the ladies for participating.

Eagle Point Grange
Friday, Oct. 21, Ang Grange having candidates is welcome to bring them to Central Point Grange. Mrs. Cyphers of Sams Valley Grange was a guest at the last meeting. The serving committee for the evening included Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Young, Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Smith, and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hammond.

Point Grange, the charter was draped in memory of G. E. (Dad) Cowden. He was a charter member of the Grange. Due to the hunting season, there was a small attendance.

TEXTILES START
Providence—The U.S. textile industry was started in 1873 in the old Slater mill in Pawtucket, Rhode Island, and the mill is a historic landmark now.

Volunteers To Be Honored at Tea

More than 300 regularly scheduled volunteer workers of the Veterans Administration Domiciliary at White City will attend a tea in their honor Thursday, Oct. 20, from 2 to 4 p.m. in the Employees' club at the Domiciliary. The tea is given each year by staff personnel to honor and encourage volunteers who donate their time to helping the disabled veterans. The volunteer workers accumulate over 25,000 hours service annually in supplementing the social work service, nursing service, personal services, recreation, manual arts therapy, library service and corrective therapy. Wives of staff members will pour at the tea.
