Kennedy Given Rousing Welcome

New York - (UPI) - Sen. John F. Kennedy, campaigning for New York's important 45 electoral votes, rode up Broadway's "canyon of heroes" today for thunderous, tickertape welcome.

His aides described it as "the greatest demonstration yet."

New Yorkers stood six deep along Broadway from the Battery to City Hall to cheer the Democratic presidential nominee as he rode by in an open convertible with his wife, Jacqueline. It took a half hour for the cavalcade to travel the 15-block route of the city's honor guests.

"This was the greatest demonstration I've yet seen in the campaign," said Kennedy's press secretary, Pierre Salinger.
