While most Medford High students were shivering in the cold during the fake "bomb scare" last Wednesday morning, one student, Jim Frake, was winging his way toward Chicago on an American airlines jet.

Jim was chosen by the Oregon Newspaper Publishers association to represent Oregon at the national high school press conference sponsored at Dearborn, Mich., last week by the Ford Motor company.

Jim left Medford Tuesday night for San Francisco. After a night at the Hilton Inn there, he flew to Chicago and Detroit Tuesday morning. The delegates were housed at the Fort Shelby hotel in Detroit for the event.

While in Detroit the delegates wrote competitively for scholarship grants, covered various events in connection with the National Auto show, and took part in the general press review of the show itself.

He returned to Medford Saturday evening.

Last week, Tornadia Week, was the setting for many varied activities. Junior and senior class meetings were held to nominate candidates for the Tornadia royal court. The sophomore candidates were chosen by a special committee. The newly elected royal court was crowned Friday night.

Mike Hood and Betsy Beck were crowned the king and queen. Their court consisted of Scott Eaton and Shirley Donahoe, junior prince and princess, and Mike Neathamer and Shirley Tillery, sophomore prince and princess.

On Thursday night near Jackson school, the Tornadia bonfire was held. The candidates for king and queen, princess and princesses were introduced. Yells and the singing of the Alma Mater and the fight song completed the evening.

On Friday morning preparations for the traditional noise parade began. Certain students were allowed to leave class in order to prepare the floats. The floats entered by the various clubs at MHS were judged on the basis of either originality or production of noise.

For originality, first prize was awarded to the Future Teachers of American club, second prize went to the Latin club, and third prize was taken by the junior class. First, second and third prizes for noise were awarded to the Boys League, the distributive educational club, and the sophomore class respectively. A semi-formal dance Saturday night completed the weeks' activities.

DeAnne Taylor, this summer's foreign exchange student, showed slides of her trip to Germany at the banquet held by the International Relations League Tuesday evening. Those attending dined on fried chicken served by North's Chuck Wagon. The decorations were based on the international theme.

Some time soon the Future Business Leaders of America will place on sale the 1960-61 student directory. The directory will include the names, addresses and telephone numbers of all members of the faculty and student body. This year approximately 500 copies will be for sale.

The student directory is the main money-raising project of the FBLA. The majority of the proceeds will go toward the FBLA scholarship fund which will be given to a deserving member of the club. The cost of the directory is 35 cents.

The production crew and business and promotion staff have been chosen for "The

The staff consisting of Judy Foreman, Susan Elder, Lori Braun, Pat Bandy, Sandra Klatt, Sandra Nash, Dayle Stratton, and Linda Graber assists the publicity chairman.

Other members of the business staff are Beverly Gebhard, Nancy Breeze, Joel Gregory, and Diane Lewis.

This Monday and Tuesday students desiring to be selected as foreign exchange students were interviewed by the local American Field Service committee. The applicants were required to state the reason why they desired to visit a foreign country and what they thought they could contribute to a family in another country. The students are judged on their personality, leadership and academic qualities.

The local committee will select the best-qualified applicants and send data concerning them to New York by Nov. 10, where the final selection will be made.

This week being National Newspaper Week, the library has displayed old Hi-Times newspapers on its bulletin boards. The newspapers date from 11 up to the present.

Donn Moomaw, all-American and professional football player will be the guest speaker at the special banquet sponsored by the United Presbyterian Youth Fellowship. It will be held in the school cafeteria tonight, and North's Chuck Wagon will cater.

Representatives of independent colleges of Oregon and Washington spoke last Thursday to interested seniors who had a grade point average of C or better. Colleges represented were Lewis and Clark, Pacific, George Fox, Willamette, Marylhurst, Whitworth and Portland university. The representatives discussed different aspects of college life.

JOHN DELLENBACK
 REPUBLICAN FOR STATE REPRESENTATIVE

Q. IS THE SCHOOL TO WHICH YOUR CHILDREN GO AS GOOD AS IT OUGHT TO BE?

A. It's a good feeling for you and me as parents to realize that our Jackson County Schools are in the main excellent. But are they ready for the 60s? I'm concerned over the fact that in the closing days of the last legislature my Democratic opponent voted against additional help for our local schools—against help which could have lowered our real property taxes.

As a former teacher and as a parent with three small children I'm deeply concerned about our doing all we can to give our children the best possible education. As your representative I pledge to work for you toward that goal.

Pd. Pol. Adv. Dellenback for State Rep. Comm. S. V. McQueen, Chm., 2136 Hillcrest Rd.
