California Wedding Of Interest

The marriage of Gertrude Cormia Walholm and Robert Wilfred Shepherd III has been announced. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Edward Charles St. Louis, Santa Rosa, Calif., and Dr. Frank Edward Cormia, Pelham, New York. The bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Robert Wilfred Shepherd Sr., 867 Murphy road, Medford and the late Mr. Shepherd.

The marriage ceremony took place Saturday, Oct. 15 at two o'clock in the afternoon at the Presbyterian church in Carmel, Calif., with the Rev. Joseph Ewing performing the service. Mrs. Frank Cormia, Pasadena, Calif., was her sister-in-law's matron-of-honor, and Richard Edward Shepherd, Carmel Valley, Calif., served as best man for his brother.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Frank Cormia. She wore a wool sheath dress of cocoa brown with matching accessories and short veil. Her flowers were lady-slipper orchids of cream and bronze colors. The matron-of-honor wore a dark red wool sheath dress with black accessories and small black velvet hat. Her corsage was of peppermint-striped carnations. The wedding was attended by relatives and close friends. Mrs. Shepherd went south for the event, and Mrs. John S. Day, Medford and Central Point, was among the guests. A small reception was held at the Carmel home of the bridegroom's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Jon Konigshofer. Mr. Shepherd and his bride will live in San Rafael, Calif. Mrs. Shepherd is a graduate

Feeler - Stevenson Rites Held in Central Point Hall

Central Point - Miss Carolyn Marie Stevenson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll E. Stevenson, Route 1, Box 519, became the bride of William Clayton Feeler, son of Mrs. H. J. Forsythe, 284 Palm street, Ashland, on Saturday, October 15.

Their wedding was performed in the Central Point Grange hall at 7:30 o'clock in the evening by Elder John Trude, Medford, of the Seventh Day Adventist church. About 40 friends and relatives attended. Pink and white chrysanthemums provided a setting for the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her grandfather, James E. Stevenson. She wore a pink suit with white accessories. Her flowers were pink and white chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Leonard Pekarek, Ashland, was matron of honor for her sister. She wore a suit of Nile green taffeta with a green headpiece. Her flowers were red rosebuds and spoon chrysanthemums.

Frank Pekarek, Ashland, was best man and William Stevenson, the bride's brother, was usher.

Mrs. Delmar Smith played the organ. At the reception which followed Mrs. Charles R. King, Ashland, the bride's grandmother, poured coffee, and Mrs. Mae Glidden, Ashland, her great-aunt, poured punch. Mrs. Charles Taylor cut the cake, which had been made and decorated by the mother of the bride.

Mrs. Glen Mayben, Ashland, sister of the bridegroom, was at the guest book and Miss Patricia King, cousin of the bride, was in charge of the gift table.

For the event the bride's mother wore a navy blue sheath dress with black and white accessories and a corsage of white chrysanthemums. The bridegroom's mother wore a wine red taffeta dress with black accessories and white chrysanthemums. The newlyweds are making their home at 1600 Nevada street, Ashland. The bride, a graduate of Crater High school, is employed by the Ashland Daily Tidings. The bridegroom was graduated from Naylor, Mo. High school and is employed by Selby Chevrolet company.

Shopp-Blunt Rites Held

Miss Nancy Lee Blunt became the bride of James Edward Shopp in a marriage ceremony held Sunday, August 16, in Meeker chapel of First Methodist church. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Blunt, 3945 South Pacific highway, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Shopp, 1025 South Pacific highway, Medford. About 75 guests attended.

Dr. George Roseberry of the church read the double-ring rites at three o'clock in the afternoon. Mr. Blunt gave his daughter in marriage.

Mrs. Lois D. Abbey, family friend from Klamath Falls, played the wedding music.

The bride's gown of white Alencon lace over satin was designed with alternating tiers of lace and net. The lace bodice embroidered in seed pearls, was made with Sabrina neckline and long sleeves and the full skirt had a chapel-length train. Her fingertip-length veil was held by a cap of lace and pearls and the bridal bouquet was a cascade of pink baby sweetheart roses and stephanotis centered with a white orchid. The bride's dress was made by her mother.

Mrs. Kenneth Griess was honor attendant and bridesmaids were Miss Linda Goble and Miss Dorothy James. They wore sheath gowns of pale blue brocaded satin with matching slippers and their headresses were whimsies with appliques of roses and pearls. They carried nosegays of baby pink roses and white carnations.

Teresa Curry, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl. Her frock was of baby pink and she wore a circlet of pink rosebuds on her hair. Miss Linda Blunt and Miss Shirley Butcher, Grants Pass, cousins of the bride, lighted the candles. Their frocks were of pale blue and they wore blue rosebuds on their hair.

Kenneth Griess was best man for the bridegroom and ushers were Charles Langston and Daniel Oldham.

Pink and white gladioli were arranged in the chapel, and sprays of these blossoms decorated the pew ends.

The reception which followed was at Girls Community club. Baskets of pink gladioli decorated the rooms, and the lace-covered bride's table was arranged with pink roses and the wedding cake was encircled with roses.

Mrs. Ivan Butcher cut the cake, using a knife which was a gift from Mr. and Mrs. Griess. Mrs. R. W. Curry, Fairfield, Calif., sister of the bridegroom, was at the punch bowl and Mrs. Dick Frost poured coffee and tea.

Mrs. Lottie Street took charge of the guest book and Mrs. Robert Bennett, the gift table.

The bride's mother wore a gown of cocoa-rose Chantilly lace over rose-colored taffeta and rose accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations. Mrs. Shopp wore a royal blue silk print with matching velvet and flower hat and black accessories. Her flowers were also carnations.

The newlyweds are spending their honeymoon in California and Nevada, the bride wearing for traveling a powder blue wool sheath, and matching jacket, a pink feather hat, grey accessories and orchid corsage.

The bride, a graduate of the Phoenix schools, is a saleswoman for Burelson's store. The bridegroom, who attended Medford schools, is in the circulation department of The Medford Mail Tribune. They will make their home at 4074 South Pacific highway after October 29.

Among the wedding guests was the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Rose C. Williams, Huntington Park, Calif. Others coming from a distance were Robert Curry, brother-in-law of the bridegroom from Fairfield, Ivan C. Butcher and Howard, Grants Pass.

Mr. and Mrs. James Edward Shopp

True to tradition, the men of the Shopp-Blunt wedding party painted "just Married" and "Medford" on the bridegroom's car last Sunday. Caught with spray can in hand is Charles Langston, and Daniel Oldham looks on. They were ushers for the wedding of Nancy Lee Blunt and James Edward Shopp, held in Meeker chapel, First Methodist church.
