Officers of Federation Conduct Institute Here

Officers and members of clubs make up the First district, Oregon Federation of Women's clubs, assembled in Medford Thursday for an institute. Officers of the state federation, who had been giving a series of such meetings throughout the state, conducted the sessions here. This was the last in the series.

Mrs. Fred C. Gast, Portland, federation president, gave the main address of the institute. She was introduced by Mrs. Clay M. Lee, Medford, First district president, who greeted the group.

Mrs. Melford M. Nelson, Monmouth, Ore., talked on "Our Federation," and Mrs. John S. Taylor Jr., Salem, second vice-president, and state chairman for extension, talked about membership.

Mrs. H. J. Stephens, Rogue River, first vice-president of First district and district chairman of extension; Mrs. Norman Wade, Talent; Mrs. Frank Kahl, Klamath Falls and Mrs. Eugene Ingram, Medford, were introduced.

Mrs. Gast also spoke on by-laws, and Mrs. Clark C. McCall, state chairman of public affairs, talked on "Program."

Mrs. Nelson also discussed finances and Mrs. Walter B. Rich, Portland, spoke of federation projects.

Others taking part in the morning session were Mrs. Ralph Foster, state chairman of mineral and wild life, district second vice-president and Ashland Civic club president; Mrs. William E. Boone, dis-

PTA Hears Specialist In Reading

Donald McLarrin, reading specialist at Hedrick Junior High school, was guest speaker at a meeting of Washington Parent-Teacher association October 14. Principal Ronald Weatherford introduced the speaker, who gave a demonstration using a controlled reading machine.

Mrs. Donald Hickey, safety chairman, stated that leaflets would be presented to each child explaining the dangers of blasting caps. Blasting cap display boards have been ordered. The display boards have illustrated dummy caps so the child may become familiar with them. Bicycle safety tape has been purchased by the association and will be applied to each child's bicycle by the student council.

The teachers were introduced to the group by Mr. Weatherford and each teacher was presented a corsage.

It was recommended by the board that rainy day games be purchased for the lower grades. The budget, recommended by the executive board, was accepted by the group.

Mrs. Nils Edin gave a legislative report. Mrs. Rollie Pean, magazine chairman, recommended that each parent subscribe to the Parent-Teacher magazine.

Plans were made by the group to present a style show

Mrs. Lyon Ends Five-Week Trip

Mrs. Beryl Lyon, 826 East Main street, returned last week from a five-week trip in Washington, Vancouver Island, and California.

Mrs. Lyon left Medford September 11 for Portland where she met a friend, Mrs. Bernice Blattenberg, Denver, Colo. The two have been close friends since 1915.

The two women visited in Seattle, ferried to Victoria and Vancouver, B. C., then returned to Seattle and Portland before traveling down the coastal Highway 101 to San Francisco.

Among the places visited during their five days in the Bay area were the Luther Burbank gardens, Christian Brothers winery, and other points of interest.

In Long Beach they visited Mrs. Blattenberg's daughter and family who they accompanied to La Jolla, Calif., where they visited a common nephew and niece of the two women, Dr. and Mrs. Herman Rossell.

In Los Angeles Mrs. Lyon visited a cousin, Mrs. Edythe White, and returned to Medford via the valley route.

Candidates To Speak

Mrs. Evelyn Nye, Republican candidate for re-election to the Oregon house of representatives, and Dr. Edwin R. Durno, Republican candidate for United States representative, will speak to Medford Townsend club Wednesday.

The Townsend organization is a "non-political and non-sectarian group whose goal is a real pension plan for the elderly citizens of America," club members reported.

Members with birthday anniversaries in October will be honored. The meeting will be held at 12 o'clock noon at Walker's Dreamland.

Twelve new council officers will be elected during the business session following a potluck luncheon. Visitors at last week's meeting included Mrs. Hattie Cofer, Red Bluff, Calif., and Mrs. Hazel Macklin, Portland, who was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Krug, Phoenix.

Music was furnished by Mrs. Ellen Townsend, Ashland, and J. P. Graham, Medford.

Orchestra Gives Surprise Party For Director

A surprise birthday party honored Edward Root, director of the Senior Citizen's orchestra and instructor of the orchestra class at the Senior Activities Center, Friday evening at his home, 3281 Jacksonville highway.

Sixteen members of the class attended the event. Two cakes and other refreshments were served.

John Gribble, on behalf of the class, presented Mr. Root with a leather billfold inscribed with his name and "Senior Citizen's Orchestra" and some money.

Music was played due the event.

Society to Hear President Speak

Mrs. Victor Boehl, president of the Rogue Valley Rose society, will speak at the monthly meeting of Medford Rose society in the courthouse auditorium Monday, October 24, at 7:45 p.m.

Members are to bring rose cuttings for exchange, and also a list of roses they no longer want or have room for in their gardens. Following the lecture and business, members may compare lists and make arrangements to exchange bushes they no longer want for bushes they would like to have.

PTA Committee Plans Session

The Jackson County Council of Parent Teachers associations legislative committee will meet at the home of Mrs. Tom Ness, 7 Glen Oak court, Tuesday, October 25, at 10 a.m.

The state PTA sponsored "Lights on for Education" program which will be held in all schools in Oregon, January 5, will be discussed.

Mrs. Kay Crowell, director of the Jackson County Juvenile department, will discuss proposed changes in the juvenile code.

Mrs. Ness asks that each PTA unit in the county have representatives at the meeting.

Kenneth Baker To Be Speaker

Dr. Kenneth Baker, research director for KBES-TV, will speak for a dinner meeting of the Grants Pass, Ashland and Medford chapter of the National Office Management association Monday, October 24. It will be held at 7 p.m. at the Medford hotel.

It is stated that anyone interested may attend the no-host dinner.

Hornbrook Visitors

Hornbrook—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Julian and two sons of National City, Calif., visited Hornbrook October 16 at the home of Mrs. Bertha Bradley and other friends. The Julians were buyers of Mrs. Bradley's ranch and lived here on the ranch for several years.
