

New Officers Elected By Classroom Teachers

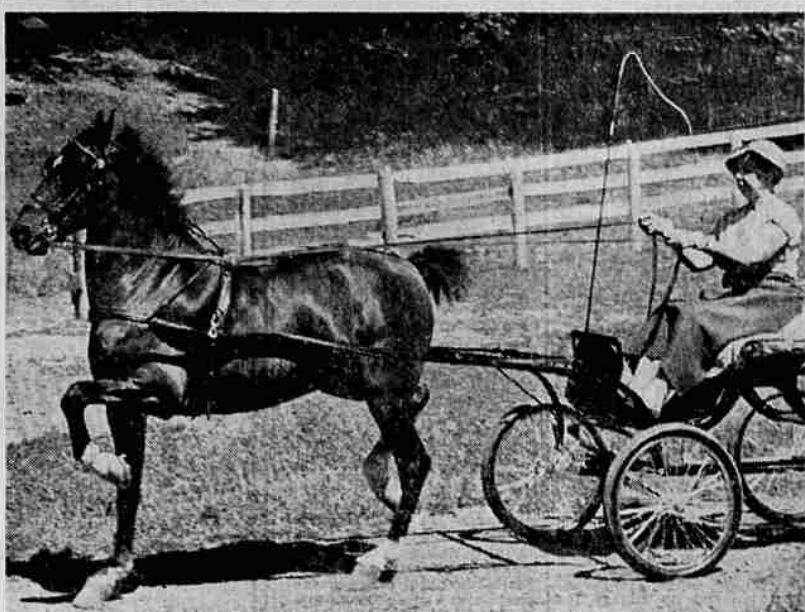

Bruce Matheny, classroom teacher at Ruch, was elected president of the Jackson County Classroom Teachers association at a dinner meeting at Kim's restaurant Monday, October 17. Others elected to offices by the county teachers were Kathryn Stancliffe, teacher at Phoenix, vice president; Miss Esther Jacobs, Rogue River elementary teacher, secretary; and David Harbison, Eagle Point, treasurer.

Delegates from the organization will attend the fall conference of the State Department of Classroom Teachers at Eugene October 28 and 29. They will participate in discussion and panel groups exploring the idea of merit rating and reviewing recent research and practice along this line. On Saturday they will attend to business of the organization and study legislative action and resolutions pertinent to education.

The group has planned three meetings for the remaining school year. The next will be a dinner meeting with a program on action and reports of delegates to the DCT convention in Eugene and will be held at Rogue River Monday, November 14 at 6:30 p.m. in the school cafeteria. A legislative meeting is planned for January and the April meeting will be concerned with the newly adopted social studies text books and course of study.

Daughters Plan Meeting Tuesday

Elta Deuell Hubbs tent, Daughters of Union Veterans, will meet for a covered dish luncheon at the home of Mrs. Andrew Severson, 604 Plum street, at 12 o'clock noon Tuesday, October 25. A business meeting will follow.

Mrs. Albert F. White and her hackney pony, My Buddy, won a number of ribbons at the Pacific International Horse show which closed in Portland October 15. Mrs. White and her husband entered their horses in several events and won a total of 11 ribbons. This picture of Mrs. White and My Buddy was made last summer at the White's ranch on Thompson creek. Mr. White leaves Tuesday for San Francisco where he will assist one of the managers during the Grand National Horse show to be held at the Cow Palace.

Whites Win Ribbons At Horse Show

Mr. and Mrs. Albert F. White, Medford and Thompson Creek, returned last week from Portland where they won eleven ribbons at the Pacific International Horse show held from October 8 to 15.

Mrs. White, driving Silver Star Mark's Lindy, a Welsh pony owned by Mrs. Martin Baurnefeld, Williams, won the grand championship and blue ribbons in the stallion class. This pony also won third and fourth place ribbons.

Driving her hackney pony, My Buddy, Mrs. White placed seventh in the championship stakes and also won two fourth place and one fifth place ribbons.

Cui Mark, a "fine harness" Welsh pony from England, owned by Mrs. Baurnefeld, won a fourth place ribbon while driven by Mrs. White. Mr. White drove the White's fine harness hackney pony, The Hobo, winning second and fifth place ribbons.

Mr. White will leave Tuesday for San Francisco where he will assist Robert Thompson, manager of the show horse stable at the Cow Palace, during the Grand National Horse show which started October 21 and will continue through October 31.

Women's Role Increasing In United Nations Work

By GAY PAULEY
UPI Women's Editor

United Nations, N.Y.—(UPI)—In all the recent din at the United Nations, one quiet fact went almost unnoticed.

It was that the distaff increasingly is playing a major role in international relations.

A check through the list of delegates and alternates to the 15th General Assembly shows at least 40 women helping to represent major powers such as the United States, Britain and Russia, and the smaller nations like Israel, Costa Rica and Morocco.

Few of the women make speeches before the assembly. Mrs. Golda Meir, the foreign minister of Israel and the highest ranking official on the distaff side, is the one exception. Most of the women delegates work quietly through the various committees to which they are assigned.

And most of them are on the assembly's third committee—the one handling humanitarian, social and cultural affairs.
