

Morse Says UN Should Get Certain Commitments From Communist China

Eugene — (UPI) — Sen. Wayne Morse, (D-Ore.), said here Sunday night the United Nations should obtain certain commitments from Red China before allowing the Communist nation to enter the UN.

Oregon's senior senator said one commitment the world organization should obtain from the Red Chinese government is a pledge not to wage war on Formosa.

Morse also said Red China should permit a survey of United Nations prisoners still in Chinese hands since the Korean war and that China should live up to provisions of the Korean truce.

Morse voiced opposition to unilateral sanctions against Cuba and said all issues between the Castro government and the United States should be submitted to a judicial body of the Organization of American States. "The only way to move against Cuba is with the participation of the rest of Latin America," he said.

He said his campaign swing through Oregon in behalf of Democratic presidential nominee John F. Kennedy and the Democratic ticket was in keeping with a pledge he made that if Kennedy were nominated he would be the first to

Yell Squad Sponsors After Game Dances

Central Point—After game dances, sponsored by the Crater High School Yell squad, have been held this fall for both Crater and opposing school students.

The dances, called "Pineapple Princess," are reported to have been well attended. The yell squad has also given several skits during pep assemblies to encourage school spirit, it was reported.

The motto at the school this year is "Make Crater Greater." The yell squad leaders are Jon Mosier, Joline Green, Lea Taberna, Becky Ferrell, Jerrie Wick, Sharon Thompson, and Bill Schwab.

issue a call for Oregon Democrats to close ranks behind the Massachusetts Senator.

Morse also urged the reelection of Charles O. Porter as congressman in Oregon's 4th District.

"The United States needs Porter's brains, his independence, his courage and integrity," he said.

Oregon's senior senator also said he would work hard for Marvin Owens, Democratic congressional candidate in Oregon's 1st District.

Morse spoke at The Dalles

Saturday night and in Hillsboro earlier Sunday, plugging the Democratic ticket. He scheduled an appearance in Portland today before returning east.

Portland Worker Crushed to Death

Portland — (UPI) — Ernest Emery White, 24, an employee at an auto wrecking firm for five days, was crushed to death Saturday afternoon beneath an automobile on which he was working.

Stocks Continue Weakness Trend Of Last Week

New York — (UPI) — Stocks failed to turn the lower price tide in the early dealings today.

By the end of the first hour, electronics, steels, autos and chemicals continued to show the weakness that ruled in most of last week's transactions.

Last week's action forcibly demonstrates that all overhanging resistance encountered at 600 in the Dow Jones industrial average will be difficult to negotiate, most brokers agree.

As a matter of fact the consensus is that last month's lows will be closely tested if not actually penetrated as the market works even closer to the 550 resistance level than it did in September.

Steels reacted to expectations of a further dip in steel production this week. Youngstown and U. S. Steel fell a point or more, Republic lost more than a half and Bethlehem a smaller fraction.

In the electronics, Texas Instruments was weak, dropping more than 5 points in the early trading. Vending, autos, chemicals and photos were easy. Gold met fairly strong support.

Smith Declares Oregon Coast State's Greatest Area of Potential Growth

By United Press International Oregon's political calendar dates headed into the final two weeks of campaigning for the November election today.

Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore.) was winding up a three-day visit to the state in support of the Democratic ticket following a busy week end which also saw former GOP presidential candidate Thomas E. Dewey in Oregon.

Elmo Smith, the Republican senatorial candidate, spoke at Taft on the coast Sunday and said his opponent, Mrs. Maurine Neuberger, has failed to present any program for the Oregon coast. Smith said he had a positive program "which would mean more jobs and a better living for everyone on the Oregon coast."

He said the state's greatest area for potential growth was on the coast. He said his program included rapid development of ports, modern highways, making 101 a defense highway, construction of a bridge at Astoria and multipurpose development of resources.

Mrs. Neuberger said in Portland today that "the case for single-unit administration of Klamath Indian reservation timber must be presented to both the U. S. Forest service and the Senate and House Appropriations committee as soon as possible to prevent any piecemeal handling of this valuable resource."

She said the Senate term she was seeking would start on Nov. 9 "so it will not be necessary to wait until the new session of Congress takes up in January to start the necessary procedures moving."

Mrs. Neuberger favors creation of a new national forest from Klamath Indian timber acquired by the government under the reservation termination law.

Dewey campaigned in Hillsboro and Portland Saturday for Smith before leaving for the state of Washington.

Rep. James D. Roosevelt (D-Calif.) also was in the state during the week end and said in Salem Saturday night that Vice President Richard Nixon was misleading the public by claiming that America was in front with rockets and by saying that things were never better.

Gov. Mark Hatfield campaigning in western Oregon Saturday for Republican candidates and called for the election of State Sen. Edwin Durno, who is the Republican nominee opposing Charles O. Porter. He also called for a "no" vote on ballot measure 14, the income tax bill.

Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan was due in Portland tonight to deliver a Labor temple speech supporting Kennedy. He scheduled other appearances today in Ashland and Medford.

Executives Fail To Heed Advice; Lose

New York — Joe Lanza, a 73-year-old bootblack, has been a horseplayer for 15 years without ever seeing the inside of a race track. Joe did his business with a friendly bookie.

Forty employees of the Interchemical Corp., among Joe's patrons, chipped in $50 to send Joe to the races.

Two of the firm's executives accompanied Joe to Belmont Race Track and stood by him as he studied the form and placed his bets.

Joe picked three winners out of six and netted a $35 profit. The executives declined his advice and did their own selecting. One broke even and the other dropped $14.

Eisenhower Promises Return to Desert

La Quinta, Calif. — (UPI) — President Eisenhower promised a prompt return to the desert in dedicating a new $500,000 golf course Sunday at La Quinta Hotel.

"When I come back out here in January, I won't have to worry about going back again in two, three or four days," he said. "I'm going to stay here until they kick me out."

TELEPHONE SATELLITE — The American Telephone and Telegraph company has announced it plans to put the first station of a satellite relay system into space within a year. The artist's sketch illustrates how the proposed satellite would work. Television or voice signals originating at ground stations on either side of the Atlantic would be beamed at a four-foot spherical satellite as it passes in orbit. Electronic amplifiers in the 175-pound satellite would amplify the received signal and immediately relay the signal to ground stations on the other side of the ocean. The initial system is expected to be capable of transmitting about 35 minutes of program material three or four times a day. (UPI Telephoto)

Hotel Head Sees Moral Resurgence

Boston — Is there a resurgence of moral conscience? Ernest Henderson, president of the 54-hotel Sheraton system, said its Baltimore hostelry received a silver and pearl pendant from a woman who said she found it in her room, and another, who said the cashier overpaid her, turned in $15.

The Washington hotel, he said, received a package containing a silver pitcher of a type not in use in 10 years. Henderson is a bit afraid guilty consciences will spur return of stolen towels. If former guests go in for that sort of restitution, he said, Sheraton will need additional warehouses.

School Superintendent Retires at Portland

Portland — (UPI) — J. W. Edwards, superintendent of the Portland Public School System, announced Saturday he will retire effective July 31, 1961.

Edwards, head of the Portland system since 1953, made the disclosure in a letter to the Board of Directors of School District No. 1.

INSURANCE MAN DIES

Hartford, Conn. — (UPI) — Mildard T. Wilson, 58, vice president and a member of the executive department of the Travelers Insurance Companies, died Sunday.

WARMER INSIDE—A sure sign of winter in the Chicago area is the return of Judy to heated winter quarters at Lincoln Park zoo. Judy never willingly goes inside until she feels the nip of winter, then trumpets at the door to be let in. (UPI Telephoto)

JOHN DELLENBACK

REPUBLICAN FOR STATE REPRESENTATIVE

Q. WHAT IS THE MAIN RESPONSIBILITY OF A STATE REPRESENTATIVE?

A. Each representative has a real obligation to the whole state of Oregon. The welfare of the state and of all its people is a main concern to me. But the interests of Jackson County are not always the same as those of all other parts of the state. I feel that the primary responsibility of a representative from Jackson County is to advance and protect the welfare of his people.

If either of our representatives becomes involved in other tasks and thus cannot guard our interests—who will?

As your representative, I pledge to do my best to watch carefully over the interest of Jackson County and of all its people.
