Nixon Says Kennedy Playing Into Hands Of Red Propaganda

Aboard Nixon Train - (UPI) - Vice President Richard M. Nixon whistle-stopped in West Virginia and Ohio today with a charge that Sen. John F. Kennedy was playing into the hands of Communist propaganda by attempting to "downgrade America" in his campaign criticism of the Eisenhower administration. Starting out in Williamsport, W. Va., with the avowed intention of "putting the heat on Kennedy" and other leading Democrats, Nixon drove across the Ohio river to Marietta, Ohio, where he renewed his attacks on his Democratic opponent.

Attacks 'Half Truths'
Working up to this nationwide attack on Kennedy, Nixon selected some specific Kennedy statements for a Marietta, Ohio, audience this morning to buttress his increasingly heated campaign argument that the Massachusetts senator is playing loose with the facts and America's standing in the world community.

"The truth of the matter is that Senator Kennedy has been trying to win this election by recklessly downgrading the United States," the vice president said in remarks prepared for Marietta. "He has done this with misleading statements, with misrepresentations, with half truths."

U. S. Said Really First
"Possibly the reason that the senator, on the spur of the moment (in their fourth TV debate Oct. 21), denied he said these things is because the facts are that the United States is really first in the world in the areas where he said we were second class."

"I do not believe that the people of the United States will support a man who offers no constructive programs of his own, but has based his major campaign theme on playing politics with America's prestige by running it down," Nixon said.

Roseburg Holding Pair in Robbery
Salem - (UPI) - Salem detectives went to Roseburg this morning to return two men arrested there as suspects in last week end's burglary of Lipman's Department store in downtown Salem.

Between $1,000 and $1,500 in merchandise was taken, most of it jewelry, watches, electric shavers and cigarette lighters.

Roseburg authorities said the men were peddling similar merchandise in a tavern and it appeared to be the Salem loot.

Salem police prepared charges of burglary against the two men. They were identified as Julius Albert Ottman, Anchorage, Alaska, and Edward Michael McGeeven of Eugene.

The suspects were to be brought here later in the day.

Grange News

Upper Applegate
The Upper Applegate Grange Oct. 14 held a dual event. The charter members were honored and Booster night was held.

The charter members were escorted to the station of the secretary where they were presented with certificates and pins. Those honored were Mr. and Mrs. Val Haskins, Mrs. Verna Culy, Mr. and Mrs. Buck, Omar Culy, Mr. and Mrs. John Byrne, Mrs. Gladys Williams, Harry Malott, Guy Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. James Wingham and Mrs. Maude Port.

A history of the Upper Applegate Grange was given by Mrs. Christine Harr. Val Haskins was presented to the assembly as the first master. Both Mr. and Mrs. Haskins were Grangers from the state of Washington. Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hart were presented 25 year pins.

Mr. and Mrs. Loftus played a harmonica duet and Mrs. Evelyn Williams drew pictures depicting popular songs and in the contest naming the songs; the women were the winners.

There was a Grand March ending in the dining room where cake and coffee was served by the Home Economics committee.

At the head table was a large cake, made and presented by Mrs. Harry Davis. The cake was decorated with miniatures of the original Grange hall which was destroyed by fire, and the present hall.

Next meeting will be Friday, Oct. 28.

Phoenix Grange
A potluck dinner was served at Phoenix Grange's "booster night" program last night.

Mr. and Mrs. Olin Poe entertained the Grange Oct. 11 with pictures they had taken while touring Alaska.

Following the lecturer's program was a memorial service in honor of Mrs. Walter Germer who died recently.

Mrs. Poe was appointed community service chairman. Charles Johnson reported that the cost of fruit picking was less this year, and that the employing of Indians was being considered for the future.

McGinty Boyden

(Continued from Page 1) only a nominal salary for the county surveyor. This served as a deterrent to interest in the office because of the very low salary. The remaining budget was applied to funds for deputies and clerical help. From these funds, my opponent was paid for his services as a deputy surveyor.

For the first time in 30 years the voters will have a choice of candidates this year. Many of you, I know, cannot remember voting for anyone other than Paul Rynning who has been county surveyor since 1926.

My opponent, who is now deputy surveyor, and his father, who was deputy before him, together have held this office for nearly 36 years. It has been a happy family affair in which the office was used as an adjunct to their own private business. If you vote for my opponent it will only perpetuate the undesirable conditions that exist in this office at the present time.

Present Administration
Under the present administration, the county surveyor and his deputy have withheld valuable records worth a great deal of money and all the while maintaining that the information was private. This information has been valuable to them in the development and promotion of their personal business. Apparently my opponent will not concede that a public office is to be conducted in the best interest of the public and not for special advantage to one individual.

I am qualified for this office as a practicing professional land surveyor and as a qualified U.S. mineral surveyor. I have operated my own business since 1953. As a mineral surveyor, I am qualified to establish special government corners in any of the 11 western states.

If I am elected, I will direct the work of this office to the areas of the county which have long been neglected. I will work and cooperate with engineers, private surveyors and citizens making all of the information of the surveyor's office available to them.

If you believe, as I do, that a change is long overdue, I would appreciate your vote on Nov. 8.

Kennedy Declares Political Bogeyman Created by Nixon

With Kennedy in Illinois - (UPI) - Sen. John F. Kennedy brought out thousands of Democrats in a tour through normally-Republican country of suburban Chicago today, and told them that Vice-President Richard M. Nixon had deliberately created a "political bogeyman" to defeat federal aid to education.

Kennedy and his party were once again trampled in the enthusiastic surge of a crowd of 5,000 persons at Libertyville, home of former Democratic presidential nominee Adlai E. Stevenson.

Kennedy urged voters in the crowd to decide whether they want to be "comfortable or concerned."

There were evidences of the usually Republican views of the electorate in this area along the route of Kennedy's fast-moving caravan, and there were Democrats in large numbers along the motorcycle route at Des Plaines, Wheeling, Libertyville, Lake Zurich and Barrington.

The Democratic presidential nominee said Nixon's expressed fear that "federal control" would result from federal aid for teachers' salaries raised a "false issue."

Illinois Democratic leaders were enthusiastic about Kennedy's showing in Monday's whirlwind tour of other mixed farm and industrial centers in their state. Sen. Paul Douglas, running and favored for reelection, predicted Kennedy "will carry Illinois."

Kennedy's first day of campaigning in that state was marked by a fresh series of campaign exchanges between Nixon and the senator.

Kennedy chose to laugh off the most sweeping Nixon accusation - that the Democrat's various spending proposals had played a major part in the recent jump in gold prices on the London market and had created unrest abroad over stability of the dollar.

Kennedy said that in making this accusation Nixon was showing "signs of tension." He added: "He blames me for the increase in gold on the London market. If Mr. Nixon is listening, I didn't do it."

Today Kennedy emphasized that public school enrollment leaped by one-third in the past eight years but that "the school rooms just are not there." He insisted that the needs must be met because "the school crisis has gotten out of control."

Kennedy said that when Nixon last February cast a vote against the then pending education bill he vetoed $25 in school aid for every child in the nation.

"I predict that if he were elected president, he would veto it again," Kennedy said. "And I also predict he won't get another chance."
