Optometrist Opens Practice in CP

Central Point—Dr. L. L. Rowe has opened a new professional office at 220 East Pine st., Central Point, where he will practice optometry.

Dr. Rowe, who lives with his wife, Jean, and their two children at 40 Crater lane, received his doctorate in optometry in June.

He received his bachelor's degree from Pacific university, after taking pre-optometry studies at Brigham Young university and Ventura Junior college.

He is a member of Phi Theta Upsilon national professional optometric fraternity, and has been nominated for membership in the Oregon Optometric association.

Prior to entering the service during the Korean Conflict, he lived in American Falls, Idaho.

Wall Street Chatter

New York — (UPI) — Despite the discouraging near term prospects of the steel industry, National Steel Co. still is regarded as an outstanding holding for long-pull purposes by the Alexander Hamilton Institute.

The institute points out that National Steel has been the only major steel producer to show a profit in every year since 1929 and has been an outstanding favorite with private and institutional investors alike throughout its 30-year history.

Nation's vigorous expansion program into rich market areas is expected to provide even greater insurance against the cyclical factors constantly facing the steel industry, the institute says.

Bache & Co. reports that Beneficial Finance Co. hasn't given its shareholders much to worry about in the recent market decline, actually moving against the tide of late. A possible dividend increase is in the offing and the stock still appears undervalued, Bache notes.

Spears, Leeds & Kellogg believes that the current price for commercial solvents is a fair evaluation of this year's earnings picture but does not yet reflect the probability of further growth.

Martin Gilbert of Van Alstyne Noel & Co. again would stress that there is no strong support area down to about the 525 level of the Dow-Jones industrials. This does not mean to say, however, that the market must go down to this level before the worst is over, Gilbert indicates.

Mobutu Expels AP Correspondent

Leopoldville — (UPI) — Col. Joseph Mobutu announced Wednesday night the expulsion of an Associated Press correspondent from The Congo because of a dispatch he had written on the situation here.

Mobutu said the correspondent was a British national but did not identify him further.

The dispatch speculated that Mobutu was losing his grip on the Congolese army and predicted the return to power of Premier Patrice Lumumba.

Mobutu, showing newsmen a clipping of the dispatch from the Belgian newspaper Le Soir, called it "rubbish, idiosyncrasy, and commercial journalism."

Ditch Digging Machine Locates Cadillac

Miami, Fla. — A 54-ton ditch digging machine being operated in a canal came up with more than a bucketful of mud. It scooped up a 1950 Cadillac.

Police were getting ready to send driver divers to see if the driver was in the car, when the owner walked up. Harold R. Griffith, 21, said his car broke down and someone must have pushed it in the water.
