A Serious X

To the Editor: There's only one issue in this campaign. It isn't the bold new deal, or the tried old deal. Brave words would restore the faith of many, while lack of deeds might in time restore the hope of the right. Before deciding America's fate at the polls, bear in mind that there is no dollars and cents way of measuring all the things you want that X to stand for. If you love America, you owe it the best X, to brace her freedom. No slapdash X will do. If you, Mr. Voter, who will force-feed the one issue on Nov. 8 at the polls, to combat crackpot ideas and wed a man to the White House, with a storm tested insight, who will provide the broad range of leadership that people want and need.

If you probe to the heart of the issue, isn't it really Mr. K's-why and wherefore to worry about? Hasn't Mr. President Ike shown Mr. K that truth has a beauty of its own—even when it is prickly to the touch.

Yes, Mr. K is touching his shoe. Mr. C is plucking chickens. You, Mr. Voter, will find that you get an old-fashioned thrill out of watching Mr. Nixon finish those egg headed beasts.

So the one issue Americans need to do some down-to-earth thinking before they make a serious X at the polls.

San Francisco —(UPI)—Traffic Judge Albert A. Axelrod suggested Wednesday the city reduce tow-away charges for illegally parked cars, declaring the present $10.25 fee was "outrageous." He said he has been helping illegal parkers out by dismissing the $5 fines against them.
